To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Sarqubar, in Name of all the Inhabitants of that Burgh, beg Leave with all Duty and Respect to present to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations upon the Conclusion of the War, and our most grateful Thanks for restoring to your People the Blessings of Peace.

We are fully convinced, that in procuring to us this great Benefit, your Majesty has consulted at once the Honour and Prosperity of your Empire, and that your Majesty's Ministers, in treating with the Enemy, have obtained the very best Terms, which, under the existing Circumstances, could reasonably be expected, and we applaud the Prudence and Humanity of your Majesty's Counsels, in putting an End to a Contest, which could not have been continued longer with any certain Advantage to your Majesty's Dominions. But, while we thus offer your Majesty our Congratulations and Thanks upon the Termination of the War, we exult in the Glory which your Majesty's Arms have acquired during the Course of it; the brilliant Victories which have been atchieved by your Majesty's Fleets and Armies will stand distinguished in the British Annals, and both the War and the Peace will redound to your Majesty's Honour, whose sole Aim, as the common Father of your People, has ever been their Safety, their Honour, and their Prosperity.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, this Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two Years, by William Otto, Provost.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We assure your Majesty that we will use our best Exertions to make the Peace productive of every possible Benefit, so far as our Influence or Example can extend, as the surest Means to repair the Devastations of a War carried on for preserving the Blessings of political and religious Liberty, and of social Order.

That your Majesty may be long preserved in the Enjoyment of good Health and every other Comfort, for the Happiness of your Dominions, is the fervent Wish of your loyal and affectionate Subjects.
