

Thanks upon the Termination of the War, we exult in the Glory which your Majesty's Arms have acquired during the Course of it; the brilliant Victories which have been atchieved by your Majesty's Fleets and Armies will stand distinguished in the British Annals, and both the War and the Peace will redound to your Majesty's Honour, whose sole Aim, as the common Father of your People, has ever been their Safety, their Honour, and their Prosperity.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, this Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two Years, by William Otto, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and others, Landholders of Aberdeenshire, to approach the Throne, and to join our Fellow Subjects in uttering the Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your parental Attention to the Welfare of your People in restoring to them the Blessings of Peace.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Satisfaction of seeing all your Subjects, by Means of domestic Union, and a steady Cultivation of the Arts of Peace, reap the Fruits of the public Tranquillity, which your Majesty's most gracious Endeavours have succeeded in procuring for them, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of a General Meeting of the Noblemen, &c. of the County of Aberdeen, held at Aberdeen, the Twenty-eighth of May One thousand eight hundred and two, by Errol, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal, affectionate, and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of the Land-Tax, and Heritors of the Stewarty of Kirkcudbright, assembled at our Annual General Meeting, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations and sincerest Gratitude for having restored to your Dominions the Blessings of Peace.

We assure your Majesty that we will use our best Exertions to make the Peace productive of every possible Benefit, so far as our Influence or Example can extend, as the surest Means to repair the Devastations of a War carried on for preserving the Blessings of political and religious Liberty, and of social Order.

That your Majesty may be long preserved in the Enjoyment of good Health and every other Comfort, for the Happiness of your Dominions, is the fervent Wish of your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Signed, by the Appointment of the Meeting, by their Preses. Pat. Heron, Preses.

Kirkcudbright, 30th April 1802.

Whitehall, June 12, 1802.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Thursday the 20th of May last, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Cart of Mr. Robert Bailey, of Calstone Mills, in the County of Wilts, having in it about Thirty Broad Cloths, was attacked between Warminster and Devizes by Five Men with their Coats off, Four of whom had their Faces disguised, (a Sixth Man holding their Coats at a Distance,) who compelled the Driver to leave the Cart whilst they cut and otherwise greatly injured about Fourteen of the said Cloths;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrage above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me Matthew Davies, Solicitor.

Warminster, 10th June 1802.

Whitehall, June 12, 1802.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Cotton-Mill belonging to Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co. called Calver-Mill, at Calver, in the Parish of Bakewell, in the County of Derby, was, on or about the 17th Day of May last, burned down, and that there is Reason to believe that the same was maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Mill on Fire, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set the same on Fire,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co. to any Person making Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

And a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, upon the like Conditions and Exceptions, by the Sun Fire-Office:

And a further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, upon like Conditions and Exceptions, by the Phoenix Fire-Office of London.

For Messrs. Gardom, Pares, and Co.

James Heygate.

For the Phoenix and Sun Fire Offices,

Thos. Worsley, Secretary, Thos. Watts.
