From Tuesday June 15, to Saturday June 19, 1802.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorised, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions as shall be specified by His said Majesty, in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of Great Britain of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the Twelfth Day of this instant June, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef,

Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Sustainance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to Order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or may hereafter be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit at any Time any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Sufferance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) that the Prohibition contained in an Order made by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation; or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, should be, and continue in force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the First Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one: excepting, nevertheless, out of such Prohibitions, any foreign Corn, or Meal, or Flour, that should have been imported and Warehoused in the Manner, and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty of foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by his said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, any foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and also the Liberty to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption any such foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse, and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout; provided a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty;" and to continue for the same Period, "An Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to order that his said Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, should be continued in Force for and during the Space of Six Months from the Date hereof; and whereas the said last-mentioned Order in Council will now shortly expire, and whereas it is expedient further to continue the same with such Alteration and Exception, as is hereinafter mentioned, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers so vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse, foreign Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, excepting only the Article of Rice, as expressed in the said Order, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse; and all Matters and Things in the said Orders contained, shall be and continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's the 16th of June 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable William Lord Lowther to be Lord Lieutenant of the Counties of Cumberland and Westmorland, His Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Council-Office, Whitehall, June 15, 1802.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint His Grace Hugh Duke of Northumberland, K. G. to be Lord Lieutenant of and in the County of Northumberland, and of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, a Council was this Day held at Northumberland-House, when His Grace took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, June 16, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Most Excellent Majesty GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants, Householders of the ancient City of Westminster, and that Part of the Liberty thereof, which is situated within the united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants, Householders of the ancient City of Westminster, and that Part of the Liberty thereof, which is situated in the united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and present to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the Ratification of the Definitive Treaty at Amiens, by which, through your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, and the Vigilance, Firmness, and conciliatory Spirit of your Majesty's Administration, the Calamities of War are terminated, and the Blessings of Peace restored; and we ardently pray, that your Majesty, for whose Person and Government we feel a warm and unalterable Attachment, may long happily Reign over a free and united People.

[Presented by F. W. Lubbock, Esq; Richard Hollingworth, Esq; C. Savill, M. P. H. Alexander, M. P. John Blackburne, M. P. Philip Hollingworth, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to embrace this Opportunity of professing our most sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and to present to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the Restoration of Peace to these your Kingdoms, by the Conclusion and Ratifications of the late Definitive Treaty.

We cannot but reflect with the utmost Satisfaction, that the wild and destructive Designs, by which this Country was threatened at the Commencement of the War, have been effectually disappointed; that your Majesty's Dominions have not only been preserved entire, but valuable and important Acquisitions have been annexed to them; and that we continue in the confirmed Possession of those Means of Exertion which the late Contest has conspicuously proved to be equal for maintaining the Independence, and asserting the Honor of this Country.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will at all Times be ready, along with our fellow Subjects, to support the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of our Country, with the same Zeal and Energy which have been so eminently manifested during the War now happily brought to a Conclusion.

That your Majesty may very long enjoy a peaceable and prosperous Reign, is the Ardent Wish and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen in Council assembled.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and by their Appointment, and the Common Seal of the said City is hereunto affixed, at Aberdeen, this Twenty-second Day of May, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and two, by

Ja. Hadden, Provost.

[Presented by James Halquhar, Representative for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care, in restoring to these Realms the inestimable Blessings of Peace and Tranquillity.

Deeply affected with the Prospect of the many Advantages to be derived to our Country from this so desirable and long desired Event, which we consider, under Divine Providence, as the certain Harbinger of the Revival and Extension of our Trade and Commerce, those fruitful and unfailing Sources of our national Prosperity, we cannot forbear mingling this our Offering of Congratulation to your Majesty; inconsiderable as it is, with the general Oblations of a grateful and affectionate People.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous, and distant Ages rejoice in the same Blessings, under your Royal Family, which your faithful Subjects now enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

In Testimony of the above we beg Leave to subscribe our Names this Fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

J. Mullis, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by Wilberforce Bird, Esq; one of the Representatives.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, and its Neighbourhood, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgments for your paternal Regard in having restored to your People the Blessings of Peace; and, at the same Time, to express our firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Principles of our most excellent Constitution. May your Majesty long continue to be revered and beloved as the Father of your People! May the Evening of your Life be tranquil and serene, unclouded by War abroad or Faction at Home! Yet should we, through the Aggressions of any foreign Power, be compelled again to take up Arms, we feel confident that one and the same Spirit would be found to pervade and animate all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, with a firm Determination to preserve inviolate, even with our latest Breath, the Dignity of the Crown, and the Honor, Freedom, and Independence of the Nation.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City of Worcester, in Common-Hall assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Worcester, humbly beg Leave, with the Warmest Sentiments of Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to the British Empire.

We contemplate with great Thankfulness, that, under the Blessing of Providence, the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, the United Kingdom has been preserved from those dreadful Scenes of War and Devastation with which the surrounding Nations have been afflicted.

It is a Source likewise of unspeakable Gratification, that during the long and arduous Contest in which your Majesty has been engaged, the Patience, Fortitude, and Loyalty of all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects have been most eminently displayed.

Permit us, Sire, to express our ardent Wish that the determined Spirit of Peace and Conciliation now manifested by your Majesty's Councils may have the happy Effect of long continuing to your Majesty and your faithful People, a Blessing which must so materially contribute to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Country.

Signed in the Name, and on Behalf of the Common Hall, the Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two. Richard Rowlands, Esq; Mayor.

[Presented by E. Wigley and A. Roberts, Esqrs; Representatives for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, humbly approach the Throne to offer to your Majesty our warmest and most unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

When we reflect on the eventful Contest in which we were so many Years engaged in Defence of our glorious Constitution, our Religion, and our Laws, we cannot but contemplate, with the highest Degree of Pleasure and National Pride, that, owing to the brilliant and unexampled Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, to the unshaken Loyalty of your People, and the firm and united Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, your Majesty has been enabled, through Divine Providence, to secure to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace, in the full Enjoyment of their most dear and invaluable Rights and Liberties both civil and religious.

We pray that the Advantage to be derived from our present Situation may be diffused throughout all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects; and that, under the Protection of Almighty God, your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and grateful Nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the Eighth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

— Hammond, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Mayor of Canterbury, attended by Alderman Simmons and the City Members.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Restoration of the public Peace.

While we rejoice that, amid the Disasters which other Kingdoms of Europe have experienced, your Majesty and your Royal House have, under the Protection of Divine Providence, been preserved to your grateful and affectionate People, we congratulate your Majesty that the good Sense of the Nation has been eminently manifested in rejecting, with Abhorrence, the Principles of Anarchy, and in adhering with still firmer Attachment, if possible, to those of our invaluable Constitution.

With becoming Sentiments of National Pride we also congratulate your Majesty on the many Instances of Heroism and Valour which have been displayed in your Fleets and Armies during the late arduous Contest, and which have at length enabled your Majesty to exercise your best Prerogative, and to restore, on honorable Terms, the Tranquillity of your Dominions.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to stand forward in Defence and Support of the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and the Safety and Welfare of the Church and State, if at any Time endangered by foreign or domestic Enemies.

And we unite in Prayer to the Almighty that the Life of your Majesty may be prolonged to a late Period; and that, under your mild Government, this Country may long enjoy the solid Blessings of Peace.

Signed at a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, held at the Town-Hall, Oxford, the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, by Order of the Meeting, Thomas Toovey, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Toovey, High Sheriff, attended by Lord Charles Spencer, Lord Francis Spencer, John Fane, Esq; G. F. Stratton, Esq; John Spencer, Esq; Sir Henry Dashwood, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of the most sincere Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and humbly to express our warmest Thanks to your Majesty for having graciously complied with the Wishes of your People in concluding a Peace with the Government of France.

We acknowledge with the sincerest and warmest Gratitude your Majesty's Wisdom and constant Attention to the real Welfare of your People, equally conspicuous in your warmest Desire of Peace, and in your fixed and unalterable Resolution never to sacrifice either to that, or the temporary Ease and Relief of your Subjects, those essential Rights and permanent Interests upon the Maintenance and Preservation of which, the future Security of this Country must principally depend.

We most ardently and sincerely hope, that the Peace so recently restored to Europe, may, through the Blessing of the Almighty, and good Faith of the different Governments, long continue, and that nothing may interfere to frustrate the earnest Hope so graciously expressed by your Majesty of securing to your Subjects the Blessings of a long and lasting public Tranquillity.

Thos. Owen, Sheriff for the County of Carmarthen.

[Presented by Thomas Owen, Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to offer our grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty for your paternal Care and Attention towards your People in procuring to them the Blessings of Peace, and consequent Increase of their Trade and Manufactures.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unvaried Loyalty to your Royal Person and Family, and of our sincere Attachment to our excellent Constitution; and we trust to your Royal Regard and Care that the Welfare and Prosperity of your Dominions may be effectually secured by a long Duration of Peace with the neighbouring Nations, and the mild and prudent Administration of our Laws at Home.

In the Possession of every Happiness may your Majesty long continue to reign over a free, united, and grateful People.

Signed for and by Order of the Meeting,

Robert George Hopwood, Sheriff.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, humbly beg Leave to express our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the happy Event of Peace, which, under your Majesty's most auspicious Care and Direction, cannot fail to be of lasting and permanent Advantage to the whole of your United Kingdoms.

We have likewise the further Satisfaction of seeing this Blessing become general, and all Christendom (which has so lately trembled for its Religion and Laws,) now possessing, in a great Degree, the same Security with ourselves.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign, that the Blessings of Peace, may, in future attend it, and the Arts of Peace adorn it, is the ardent Wish and earnest Prayer of your ever grateful and loyal People.

[Presented by Thomas Hamer, Esq; High Sheriff, attended by Sir Richard Hill, John Kynaston Powell, Representatives for the County, and Sir Corbett Corbett, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Dorset.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg to lay at your Majesty's Feet our unfeigned Congratulations, as well as our most sincere and heartfelt Thanks, for that your Majesty has put an End to the Calamities of War, and has restored to this Country the Blessings of Peace, after having, by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, preserved our most glorious Constitution inviolate, amidst the Wreck of surrounding Nations; and we most fervently pray, that no foreign or domestic Enemies may attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, but that, under your Majesty's paternal Care, they may long flourish in Peace and Prosperity; and that the Crown, the Laws, and the Constitution of this Kingdom may descend unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

Signed in the Name, and on the Behalf of the County of Dorset, at a Meeting held at Dorchester this Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

Edmund Morton Pleydell, Sheriff.

[Presented by Edmund Morton Pleydell, Esq; High Sheriff]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Suffex, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the strongest Feelings of Attachment to your Royal Person, and the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for your parental Care over these United Kingdoms, so strongly marked during the Course of a long Reign by many of the most important Events; but more especially for that dignified Firmness, no less necessary than magnanimous, displayed in the late arduous Conflict, which has happily produced the returning Blessings of Peace, on which we beg Leave most cordially to offer our Congratulations. May the Great Disposer of all Events protect your Majesty, and may your Majesty's Reign long continue the Blessing of your United Kingdoms, happy and prosperous.

June 7, 1802.

W. Asburnham, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Southampton, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Restoration of the Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions by the Termination of a War, one of the most interesting both in its Causes and Consequences that has yet been recorded in the Annals of Mankind.

By the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, and the unparalleled Exertions and Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, not only these Kingdoms and their Dependencies have been preserved inviolate, but the Perils that threatened the moral and religious Principles of all the civilized World have been averted.

To this long and arduous Contest so happily terminated, may many, very many, Years of Peace and Tranquillity succeed, and your Majesty continue to reign over a powerful, united, and grateful People, enjoying every Blessing of public Prosperity and domestic Happiness; and may that warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, which induced your Subjects of every Rank and Description to stand forth in the Hour of Difficulty and Danger, still manifest itself by every possible Instance of Duty and Affection to the best of Kings.

Edward Hulfe, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir Edward Hulfe, Bart. High Sheriff, attended by Sir William Heathcote, Mr. Shute, and Mr. Middleton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations on the happy Re-establishment of Peace in your Majesty's Dominions and in Europe.

We have admired, with Gratitude, the great and glorious Exertions of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which have brought about this joyful Event; and we feel peculiar Satisfaction in the final Arrangement of the Treaty having been confided to the Wisdom of our illustrious and highly esteemed Countryman.

We trust that your Majesty's Dominions will enjoy the Blessings of a permanent Peace; and earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united Nation.

Signed in the Name, and at the Request of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, June the Fourteenth, One thousand eight hundred and two.

Thomas Cockfedge, High Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff, and attended by the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Huntingfield, Lord Viscount Brome, Sir Thomas Charles Bunbury, Bart. Sir Gilbert Aylick, Bart. W. B. Russell, Esq; Sir C. Kent, Sir T. C. Cullum, A. Adair, Esq; and G. Mathew, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warm and unanimous Congratulations on the timely Restoration of Peace to your united Kingdoms, and on the eventual Extension and Confirmation of it to the Rest of Europe and of the civilized World.

To the Prudence and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, supported by the steady Patriotism of Parliament, and of the People in general, and to the unrivalled Atchievements of your Fleets and Armies, (Exertions which we confidently trust will revive on every renewed Occasion) we rejoice to acknowledge that, under Providence, we are indebted for the Maintenance of our Religion inviolate, of our free and happy Constitution unimpaired, and for the Preservation of your Majesty's widely extended Dominions not only entire, but even at the End of such an obstinate and arduous Conflict, by additional Bulwarks protected and enlarged, amid the Convulsions that in so many neighbouring Nations have subverted their municipal Laws and ancient Forms of Government, have loosened the Bonds of civil and of social Order, undermined all moral Institutions, and shaken the very Altars of our God.

For the uninterrupted Enjoyment of such invaluable Blessings, whilst surrounded by Anarchy and Misrule, we look back on your Majesty's constant Vigilance and Care with Sentiments of Gratitude and Affection, not less ardent than those with which we confidently anticipate your Solitude for our increasing Prosperity, by a sincere and earnest Cultivation of the Spirit and the Arts of Peace; and, impressed with the full Influence of your Majesty's paternal Goodness on our present singular and enviable State of Welfare, we shall never cease to implore of Divine Providence that, by His gracious Interposition, He may still continue to guard your sacred Person, to augment the Splendor and Happiness of your Royal and Illustrious Family, and transmit to the Love and Reverence of the latest Posterity the auspicious Character of your Majesty's mild, beneficent, and patriotic Reign.

[Presented by the Duke of Rutland, attended by Sir E. Hartopp, Mr. Keck, &c. &c.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Assistants, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban, in the County of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Assistants, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Alban, in the County of Hertford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our thankful Acknowledgments for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

And more particularly we acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention shewn to us and the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects of the United Kingdom in putting an End to the late War.

Sensible of the many Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and trusting to your Majesty's constant Endeavours for the Prosperity of your People. We hope that your Majesty will long reign over a free and happy Nation, and that the Sceptre may continue in your Majesty's Family, as a Blessing to Posterity to the latest Generation of your illustrious House.

Francis Carter Searandre, Mayor.

[Presented by Thos. Skip Dyot Buchnall, Esq; William Stephen Poyntz, Esq; Representatives for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of the antient Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our unfeigned Congratulations on the Restoration of the invaluable Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot reflect upon the various Engagements, both by Sea and Land, in which your Majesty's Forces, during a severe Contest of Nine Years, have so eminently distinguished themselves, without gratefully acknowledging the Favour and Protection of Divine Providence, and without entertaining the highest Veneration of your Majesty and your Councils, by whose Wisdom and Energy, in the Choice of your Majesty's Commanders, and the Direction of your Forces, this Country has been enabled to check the ambitious Views of a powerful and inveterate Foe, who aimed at universal Empire.

Having, under your Majesty's paternal Care, now attained the Blessings of Peace, we hope we shall long enjoy them, and we ardently and sincerely Wish that your Majesty's Life may long be preserved to participate in the Happiness and Prosperity of your dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Twenty fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Lord Milfintoun.]

BE pleased, most gracious Sovereign, to accept the cordial and respectful Congratulations of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis, who participate the general Joy diffused through your Majesty's Dominions on the happy Return of Peace, which, under the protecting Arm of the Almighty, has been given to contending Nations; and contemplate, in the Prowess of your Majesty's Arms, the Wonders performed in every Part of the Globe by your Fleets and Armies, whose Atchievements have been conducted with that Spirit and Coolness which evince that the Sword was drawn by Britons only to protect their Rights; and that, during the Course of an unexampled Struggle, it has not been stained by that Barbarism which too generally adds to the Calamities of War.

We beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty in not only having lived to see the Restoration of Peace, but in having nobly sheathed the Sword in the very Triumph of Victory, proving to the World that a great Mind is best exemplified by its Humanity and Moderation.

May your Majesty's Reign be yet long and happy; and may the Blessings of Peace be so generally diffused through your Majesty's Realm, that the Prosperity and Happiness of your Subjects may prove a Source of unceasing Comfort to the best of Sovereigns—the Father of his People.

[Presented by Sir James Pulteney, Bart. and Mr. Garthshore.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgessees of the Borough of Leicester, in Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt and unanimous Congratulations on the Attainment of Peace.

We are thankful for the Blessing which the Wisdom, Firmness, and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils have procured for the Empire; we are persuaded that your Majesty's paternal Care will be employed, as well to cultivate and improve it, as to prevent all such Occasions of Misunderstanding with foreign Powers as might endanger it; but, whilst we express our Hope, and trust that Tranquillity may long continue amongst us, allow us to add our Assurance to your Majesty, that we will at all Times be ready to support the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights, Laws, and Liberties of our Country with the same Zeal, Energy, and Fortitude which your Majesty's faithful Subjects have invariably manifested during the War, now happily brought to a Conclusion.

We pray that that Providence, which, amidst the Wreck of Empires, has preserved to this Country such innumerable Blessings will permit your Majesty long to witness and promote the Happiness of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, this First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

Thos. Peach, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men, and Burgessees of the Borough of Andevor, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Approved Men, and Burgessees of your ancient Borough of Andevor, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace; and particularly to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Services of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which, under Divine Providence, have been the Means of effecting so requisite and desirable an Event: The Burthens of the War we felt in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects; but however heavy they may have been, and however we should lament the Renewal of them, yet, if necessary for the Honor and Defence of your Majesty's Crown and Government, we shall at all Times be ready to make our utmost Exertions for the Dignity and Protection of both: And that your Majesty may long live to reign over a happy and free People is the most sincere Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects the Corporation of Andevor.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Asibeton Smith, Esq.]

May it please your Majesty,

VIEWING, with inexpressible Joy, the true and natural Feelings which, from your Majesty's Wisdom, have been restored to a loyal Nation by a happy and most satisfactory Peace, we, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgessees of your Majesty's Corporation of Romsey, humbly, but sincerely, approach your Royal Throne with our most fervent Thanks for your Majesty's paternal Regard for your faithful People.

We have deplored the Miseries of a War into which your Majesty's Kingdom has been necessarily coerced; but our utmost Ability has been cheerfully contributed for the Preservation of a Sovereign whom we love, and of a Constitution for which we ever have been, and still are prepared to die. Our Hearts are at your Majesty's Throne. Our Gratitude for the long-wished Blessing shall be lasting. May the Love of your People continue to constitute the Solidity of your Government, the Felicity of your Empire, and the Glory of your Reign; and may the Arms and Hearts of Britons perpetually guard their patriot King, his Posterity, and his Crown.

We humbly beg Leave, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty on the great and glorious Achievements gained so nobly by your Majesty's Navy and Army in the Course of their general Services, which have so much contributed to the gaining this most desirable Object, which your Majesty's Love for your People, through the Wisdom of your Councils, has procured for this most faithful, loyal, and united Kingdom.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the Corporation of the said Town to be hereto affixed, this Eleventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. attended by Mr. Chute.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant-Justices, Capital Burgessees, and Burgessees of the Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave, with the sincerest Expressions of Respect and Duty to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the happy Restoration of Peace.

While we participate in the universal Joy which this auspicious Event has diffused through every Rank of your Majesty's Subjects, we recollect with Pride and Satisfaction the glorious Efforts which this Country has made during the late important Contest, for the Preservation of her own internal Security, and the general Interests of Europe.

Reflecting with lively Gratitude on the rational Freedom which it is our Happiness to enjoy under the Influence of our venerable Constitution, and the mild and paternal Benificence of your Majesty's Reign, we bless the Wisdom and Energy of those Counsels by which the Laws and Liberties of our Country have been preserved, amidst the Wreck of powerful States, and the general Subversion of social Order.

We contemplate with the warmest Admiration, the unexampled and illustrious Achievements of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land; the Security and Extension of your Majesty's Empire in the East, and the Establishment of our great national Bulwark, by the unrivalled Dominion of the Sea, are Objects of the first Importance, alike conducive to the Commercial Prosperity of this Country, and the Glory of the British Name.

These are the Triumphs which our valiant Countrymen have acquired, under Circumstances of peculiar Difficulty, the destructive Influence of a foreign Climate, the Disadvantage of unequal Force, and the Opposition of confederated Powers; and we feel a well-grounded Confidence, that on any future Occasion, the same gallant Exertions on their Part will be seconded by the same generous and patriotic Ardour which animated every Description of your Majesty's Subjects to unite in supporting the Throne of their King, and the Constitution of their Ancestors.

Impressed with these Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, we bend with Thankfulness to the Almighty Disposer of Events, whose Providence has signally interposed for the Deliverance of both, from the secret Machinations of evil Men, fervently imploring the Continuance of that Guardian Care for the Safety of our beloved Sovereign, and the Protection of these his Dominions.

Long may you, Sire, continue to rule this United Kingdom in Prosperity and Peace; may your Subjects be duly sensible of the Happiness which they enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, and may your paternal Solitude for their Welfare, receive its glorious Recompence in the Blessings of a grateful and affectionate People.

Given under the Seal of the said Borough, this Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, in the warmest Sentiments of our Hearts, to express our Joy and most grateful Thanks to your Majesty for putting an End to the Calamities of War, and restoring to us the Blessings of Peace.

We are equally sensible of the tender Regard your Majesty has shewn for your People, not only in the Establishment of the public Tranquillity, but, in the midst of all your Difficulties, in preserving to us our most excellent and envied Constitution.

In this happy Situation, Sir, we, your faithful Subjects, shall always think it our indispensable Duty to add our hearty and most fervent Prayers that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and happy, no more disturbed by foreign War or domestic Faction, but that you may enjoy the Fruits, and cultivate the Arts, of that Peace you have so happily accomplished; and that all your Majesty's Subjects, who cannot but feel, may have the Gratitude also to acknowledge the many and great Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government, and, as they share in its Advantages, contribute to its Support and Honor.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall, in Bewdley aforesaid, this Twelfth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

By Order of the Corporation,

W. A. Roberts, Deputy Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in the County of Oxford. June 1, 1802.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, return our sincere Thanks for your paternal Care and Goodness in graciously communicating, by Proclamation, the happy Event of your having put an End to a most calamitous War, begun from Necessity, conducted with Wisdom and Valour, and ended by Prudence, amidst, as we conceive, the most unparalleled Perils and Dangers, foreign and domestic, that ever existed in the World.

We this Day, in Obedience to Command, attended Divine Worship to offer up our Praises and Thanksgivings to Almighty God, in religious Exultation, for the manifest Blessings restored unto us; and we believe it a Time the most proper to present at your Majesty's Throne, as we presume to do, our unfeigned Congratulations on these happy Events. And we beg Leave to assure you, that we will constantly implore the Divine Power to continue to your Majesty a long, peaceable, and happy Reign over a loyal and grateful Nation; and that, finally, it may be His blessed Will to exalt you unto His everlasting Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal the Day and Year aforesaid.

The humble Address of the Alderman, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, highly gratified with your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation of Peace, and thoroughly sensible that the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty's People is at all Times inseparably connected with the Happiness of their beloved Sovereign, beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the War, and to assure your Majesty that the most ardent Wishes of the Inhabitants of Wokingham are, that your Majesty's Reign, crowned, as it is, with Peace and Plenty, may, under the Blessing of Divine Providence, long continue over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed (in the Name and by the Order of the aforesaid Alderman, Burgesses, and Inhabitants), John Horne, jun. Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, with Sentiments of the highest Respect and most unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and offer our humble, yet sincere, Congratulations on the Treaty of Peace lately concluded with the French Republic and her Allies.

The Success which has attended your Majesty's anxious Endeavours to procure for your faithful People the Blessings of Peace, at the same Time that it calls forth our warmest Acknowledgment and Thanks, gives a further Proof, were any necessary, of your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects.

The unexampled Exertions and Intrepidity displayed by your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, conspicuous as they must have appeared in the Eyes of all Europe, and to which, under Providence, it is principally indebted for the Restoration of Tranquillity, whilst they furnish us with a well-grounded Confidence in our own Strength, cannot fail, we trust, of enabling this Kingdom to support that Rank in the Scale of Nations it must be the dearest Wish, as it ought to be the chief Pride, of every Friend of his Country it should ever maintain.

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we bow down with Gratitude to the Divine Goodness, earnestly imploring your Majesty's Reign may long be rendered happy and prosperous over a free, loyal, and united People.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the happy Termination of a most critical and important Contest, and on the joyful Restoration of Peace to all your Majesty's Dominions.

Deeply sensible of your Majesty's affectionate Concern for your Subjects, and firmly relying on the Wisdom and Integrity of your Councils, we have dutifully and cheerfully submitted, for a Series of Nine Years past, to all the Inconveniences of the War, humbly conceiving that such vigorous and decisive Measures, though highly painful to your Majesty's most benevolent Disposition, were essentially necessary for the Preservation of your People; and being fully convinced that the War was conducted on your Majesty's Part with the most humane Attention to the Comforts and Condition of every Order of your Subjects, and with unexampled Generosity and Compassion to your Enemies.

We thankfully acknowledge that your Majesty has seized the earliest Opportunity of relieving us from the Calamities of a War which your Majesty was anxiously desirous to prevent, and has often endeavoured, with equal Anxiety, to bring to an honorable Conclusion; and it is our earnest Wish that we, with all the Inhabitants of this highly favoured Empire, living under the best of Constitutions and the kindest of Sovereigns, may long continue to be a loyal, happy, and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Shrewsbury, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most lively Sentiments of Affection to congratulate your Majesty on the Return of Peace to the United Kingdoms.

We heartily join with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects in expressing our warmest Admiration and Praise of those glorious Achievements which have distinguished your Majesty's Arms throughout this memorable Contest. Indeed, when we contemplate the Nature of the late War, and the unexampled Difficulties attending its Progress, our Minds are impressed with a deep Sense of the genuine Patriotism displayed by all Descriptions of your Majesty's People in maintaining the Honor and Independence of their Country, and the Purity of that inestimable Constitution under which they have the Happiness to live.

We beg to assure your Majesty that we shall studiously endeavour, as the best Return we can make for the Blessings of Peace, to discharge the Duties of our several Stations in such Manner as may tend to improve and perpetuate those Blessings, convinced that this is the only Acknowledgment by which we can manifest a due Regard to the Favour of Providence, or render our present Offerings in any Degree worthy of your Majesty's Approbation.

Richard Bratton, Mayor of Shrewsbury, by the Direction and on the Behalf of the Meeting.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to offer our humble but hearty Congratulations to your Majesty on the Termination of Hostilities, and the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace.

We ascribe it, under Divine Providence, to the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, the Intrepidity of your Majesty's Forces, and the Loyalty of your Majesty's Subjects, that your Majesty has been enabled to bring the arduous and unexampled Contest in which we have been engaged to a happy Conclusion.

It has been an Occasion of great Exultation to your Majesty's Subjects, and must have afforded to your Majesty the highest Satisfaction to have seen the Hearts of all Ranks of your Majesty's People like the Heart of one Man, united in a fixed Determination to brave any Danger, and make any Sacrifice in Defence of their King and Constitution, their Liberty, and their Religion; and though we most earnestly hope that your Majesty's Dominions may long enjoy, in undisturbed Security, the Advantages of Peace, yet should it at any Time be unavoidably necessary to recur to the Alternative of War, your Majesty may assure yourself that we shall ever be found ready to assist, with the truest Ardour, in maintaining the Honor and Safety of your Majesty's United Kingdom.

To the KING.

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Vice-Chancellor, Principal, Dean of Faculties, and Professors of your University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, request Permission humbly to express to your Majesty our grateful Sense of your paternal Goodness in restoring to your People the Blessings of Peace. The successful Termination of the arduous Conflict in which your Majesty has been engaged for the Preservation of our Constitution, affords us the most heartfelt Satisfaction; and our fervent Prayer is, that your Majesty may continue long to reign over a free and happy People, and be the Protector of Religion, Liberty, Learning, and social Order.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the Liberty of the Tower of London, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Termination of the late extended War, and the Commencement of Peace.

Looking round on the Desolation which has wasted some of the most flourishing States of Europe, we hail, with great Satisfaction, the Blessings of Peace which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils have procured for us; and cannot but express our Thankfulness that the Commerce of our Country continues in the most flourishing Condition, the Honor of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies have reached the highest Pinnacle of Glory, the Throne of the United Kingdom fixed firmly on its Basis, and our invaluable Constitution unimpaired: That they may continue so in Perpetuity, and that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a loyal People, is our ardent Prayer.

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of the Island of Guernsey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and States of your Island of Guernsey, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace, by which is terminated a War bloody and extended, but just and necessary, and in the Progress of which Actions have been performed by your Majesty's Fleets and Armies which stand unrivalled in the brightest Annals of British Glory.

We acknowledge with Sentiments of the warmest Gratitude, that to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils it is (under the Divine Providence) to be attributed that we, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, have been protected in the Advantages resulting from an extensive Commerce, and maintained in the full Enjoyment of our civil and religious Rights during the whole Course of the late arduous and eventful Conflict; and that Peace is now restored with Resources unexhausted, a valuable Addition made to your Ma-

Majesty's Foreign Possessions, and with the National Spirit, as well as the National Character, at the highest Pitch of Elevation.

That your Majesty may long, very long, live to ensure and to participate in the Happiness of a grateful, an affectionate, and a loyal People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and most dutiful Subjects.

W. W. Dalrymple, Lieutenant-Governor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Animated by that true and genuine Spirit of Loyalty which so universally pervades the Hearts of your Majesty's Subjects, we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and fervent Congratulations on the much wished for Restoration of Peace, which we flatter ourselves will be productive of the happiest Effects upon the Prosperity and Interests of all Ranks and Degrees of your Majesty's faithful People.

It is with infinite Pleasure we call to Mind that Unanimity and Exertion which shone so conspicuous in the late perilous Contest; and we humbly hope, that the same Divine Providence which has rewarded the unparalleled Bravery of our Countrymen with the Palm of Victory, and has now terminated the Horrors of War, may long, very long, preserve your Majesty on the Throne of the United Kingdom; and that the Peace, which brings Tranquillity to Britain, may afford to your Majesty a Succession of Years fraught with true and heartfelt Satisfaction.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Scottish Presbytery, in London and the Vicinity, approach your Royal Person with every Sentiment of Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection, to express the Gratitude which we feel in contemplating the Blessings conferred on the British Empire by the Restoration of Peace to Europe. These Blessings we must ascribe, under Divine Providence, to your Majesty's paternal Regard to the real Interests of the great People committed to your Care, to the Wisdom of your Councils, and to the tender Humanity by which you are prompted to diminish the Calamities, and extend the Felicity of the human Race. We pray Almighty God to crown your Majesty with Length of Days to behold and to enjoy the increasing Veneration, Gratitude, and Love of the Nations whom He raised you to govern. May your Royal Breast never more be disturbed by external War nor internal Discord.

It shall be our constant Study and Endeavour, Sire, as it is our Duty, in our several Spheres, to promote the Cause of good Order, Peace, Virtue, and Religion, which we are well assured your Majesty will consider as the surest Test of Allegiance to our Sovereign, and of Love to our Country.

May Heaven guard your Person, support your Throne, and multiply your Comforts, till at length, far distant be the Day, full of Years, full of Glory, you shall be called to exchange the most splendid of earthly Crowns for one celestial and eternal.

William Smith, Moderator.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the King's College and University of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the King's College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace.

An Event which diffuses over the British Empire such universal Joy, and is so interesting to Mankind, calls forth our Gratitude to the Almighty, by whose Blessing on your Majesty's Councils and Arms, the late arduous Contest has been brought to a happy Conclusion, and the Stability of your Majesty's auspicious Government secured.

While we adore that Providence which rules over the Destiny of Nations, we look up to your Majesty with every loyal Sentiment as the Guardian of our civil and religious Rights, the Patron of Science and of every liberal Art.

It shall be our continued Endeavour to instil into the rising Generation, along with the Love of Learning, the congenial Love of social Order, and those Principles of well-regulated Freedom which have made the British Constitution the Envy of the Nations.
