AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of June 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, and to continue, for the same Period, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall be lawful for

His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorised, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, during the Continuance of the said Act, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, or under and subject to such Restrictions, Regulations, and Provisions as shall be specified by His said Majesty, in any Order in Council, the Exportation from any Part of Great Britain of any Articles of Provision; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition, either in Part or in the Whole, or to make any new Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions relating thereto, as Circumstances may require, any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the Twelfth Day of this instant June, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel on its Voyage out and Home for the Sustainance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively, in such Quantities as shall be judged to be necessary by the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, upon Application to be made from Time to Time, and under Licences to be granted by their Lordships; or without such Licences, provided Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to Order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bonds, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or may hereafter be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit at any Time any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Suffrance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Faulkener.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," (which Act, by subsequent Acts, has been further continued until Forty Days after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament,) His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to order, (and it was thereby ordered,) that the Prohibition contained in an Order made by His Majesty in Council, on the Sixteenth Day of October One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on the Exportation, or the loading or laying on board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, should be, and continue in force until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the First Session of Parliament that should be begun and holden after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and one: excepting, nevertheless, out of such Prohibitions, any foreign Corn, or Meal, or Flour, that should have been imported and Warehoused in the Manner, and under the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty of foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and should not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, and with Exception also as to the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, from Great Britain, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty was also pleased by his said Order in Council of the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, to continue in like Manner, and for the like Term the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain, any foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and also the Liberty to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption any such foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and likewise the Liberty to import into any Port or Place of Great Britain in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, any Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse, and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago-Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet-Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout; provided a due Entry should be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that should be so imported, with the proper Officer of the Customs at the Port where the same should be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, and amend an Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty;" and to continue for the same Period, "An Act of the last Session of Parliament for prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn, or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and for permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty;" the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the subsequent Acts continuing the same, are further continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to order that his said Order in Council, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, should be continued in Force for and during the Space of Six Months from the Date hereof; and whereas the said last-mentioned Order in Council will now shortly expire, and whereas it is expedient further to continue the same with such Alteration and Exception, as is hereinafter mentioned, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers so vested in His Majesty, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Corn, or any of the Articles as aforesaid, and the said Permission to import and take out of Warehouse, foreign Corn, and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision, excepting only the Article of Rice, as expressed in the said Order, bearing Date the Tenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred, with every Exception, Proviso, Rule, Regulation, and Restriction specified in the said Order respecting such Exportation, Importation, or taking out of Warehouse; and all Matters and Things in the said Orders contained, shall be and continue in force until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawcener.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend John Marshall, Clerk, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Orsett, in the County of Essex, and Diocese of London, void by the Translation of the Right Reverend Father in God Doctor Richard Beadon, Bishop of Gloucester, to the See of Bath and Wells.

St. James's, June 18, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your antient and loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Whilst we gratefully acknowledge the many and invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Sway, we cannot refrain from congratulating your Majesty on the Termination of a War which, in a Manner and Degree unknown in former Contests, threatened the Destruction of our dearest Rights and Interest.

With honest Exultation we have seen, that by the energetic Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, aided by the unexampled Valour of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, the British Name has been raised to the highest Pitch of Distinction, and, ultimately, an End put to the Devastations and Calamities of War.

It is our earnest prayer, that your Majesty may, to the latest Period of a long Life, enjoy the pure and exalted Satisfaction of beholding the Prosperity of a free and united People. John Larden, Mayor.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Belgrave and Thomas Grosvenor, Esq; Representatives for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity.

We rejoice, that the arduous Contest in which this Country has been so long engaged has, by the Favor of Divine Providence, been brought to a Conclusion; and we contemplate, with Gratitude and Satisfaction, the Spirit and Bravery which have so eminently distinguished your Fleets and Armies, and the laudable Efforts of all Ranks of your Subjects, in support of their Religion, their Laws, and their Independence.

We assure your Majesty, that constant as the Exertions, and great and serious as the Sacrifices have been which we have made during the War, we shall be ready to renew them with equal Spirit and Perseverance if, from unavoidable Causes, they hereafter should be required for the just Defence of your Majesty's Dignity and Honor, and the Security and Welfare of the Empire.

We flatter ourselves that such an Event is far distant; and it is our earnest Prayer, that the Blessings of Peace may be continued to us; and that your Majesty may long live to witness the Affection and the Attachment of an happy, loyal, and united People. In the Name of the County,

R. C. Elwes, Sheriff.

[Presented by W. R. Cartwright and Francis Dickens, Esq;]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Town of Monmouth, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the Success which has attended your Majesty's anxious Exertions in the Restoration of Peace; and we doubt not but your paternal Care, ever watchful over national Happiness, will continue to be exercised for the Preservation of this most valuable Blessing.

Having on this, as on every other Occasion, experienced the Beneficence of our most gracious Sovereign, we beseech your Majesty to accept the Tribute of Hearts deeply impressed with Gratitude; and we earnestly implore the Divine Goodness to prolong your Majesty's auspicious Reign over a loyal, happy, and united People.

[Presented by Lord Edward Somerset.]
