St. James's, June 24, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the County of Kincardine, in North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our Congratulations on the successful Termination of the late arduous Contest, in which this Nation was compelled to engage for the Preservation of its political Existence, and the Security of its Religion, Liberty, and Laws.

We cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude and Thanks for the paternal Care and Attention manifested by your Majesty in watching over and securing to your People all these invaluable Blessings. The Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, aided by Divine Providence, have been enabled to oppose with Success, a powerful Combination of foreign Enemies, assisted, we are sorry to say, by domestic Traitors, and to conclude, by an honorable Peace, a War glorious to this Nation.

It is our most earnest Wish and fervent Prayer, that the same Almighty Power, which has been pleased to protect these Kingdoms so remarkably in the late War, will long grant your Majesty to reign in Peace over us, undisturbed by Foes from Abroad or Faction at Home, the happy Sovereign and Father of a free, an independent, and a loyal People.

Signed by our Appointment, in our Name and Presence, by Alexander Burnett, of Strachan, Esquire, Advocate, Sheriff Depute of said County, our Preses, at Stonehaven, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

M. Burnett, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Alderney assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the States of the Island of Alderney assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations on the Return of Peace.

Situated as we are, within a few Miles of the Enemy's Coast, we have experienced, during the Whole of a Nine Year's War, the most undoubted Proofs of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to our Defence. The Protection that we have received from the Mother Country has been great and effective. During the late arduous Contest the Inhabitants of this little Island have been called upon for, and have shewn more Energy and Vigour than in any preceding Period, yet severe as these Exertions may have been, they shall be renewed with equal Spirit the Instant they are required for the Support of your Majesty's Dignity and the Safety of our native Land.

To the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils we owe our present tranquil State, and to the watchful Care of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief of your Majesty's Army, who has ever lent a most gracious Ear to our Wishes, we are indebted for that Security, which, even in the midst of Alarms, has caused this Island to enjoy a well-grounded Confidence in its Means of Defence.

Whilst, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Gratitude, we beseech your Majesty to accept our most grateful Thanks for having put an End to the Calamities of War, we cannot but mention the uncommon Skill, Zeal, and Intrepidity with which the Officers of your Navy, sent off this Coast for its Security, have performed that Service.

We devoutly pray the Almighty Giver of all good Gifts to shower down on your Majesty His most precious Favours, and to grant to your Majesty a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Peter Le Mesurier, Governor and Commander in Chief.
