

Your Majesty's loyal Corporation of Newport renew, at this eventful Moment, their most ardent and fervent Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and for every Blessing which your paternal Bosom can receive, from the Prosperity and Happiness of a free, grateful, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Paisley, request to express our most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our Tribute of Gratitude for your Majesty's Acquiescence in restoring to the Nation the inestimable Blessings of Peace: and while we have with Pleasure remarked the Efforts of your Majesty's Subjects in the Defence of the Country, it affords us the more heartfelt Satisfaction to be able to assure your Majesty, that in no Quarter of the Kingdom have your Majesty's Views and Wishes been more strenuously seconded than in the Town of Paisley; and it is our most earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may live long to enjoy the Thanks and Blessings of your People, and that your Happiness and that of your Subjects may be undisturbed by Foes from Abroad, or by Traitors at Home.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council.

Walter Robertson, Chief Magistrate.

17th May 1802.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Burgh of Haddington, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts impressed by the deepest Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty for the late Exercise of your Royal Prerogative in the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty of Peace with France, Spain, and the Batavian Republic.

Feeling, as we did, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, the Misery and Distress consequent upon such extended and protracted Hostilities, combined with the severe Pressure of Scarcity with which these Realms were lately afflicted, though at the same Time admiring the Patience and Fortitude with which a brave and loyal Nation bore up against such aggravated Calamities, we could not view the late joyful Event, without feeling the liveliest Sentiments of Gratitude towards your Majesty as well as to those able and upright Ministers through whose Auspices an Event so desirable has been finally brought to so happy a Conclusion.

*We trust that the British Isles now happily united into one great Empire, may long continue under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty to enjoy the Blessings of Peace alike undisturbed by foreign Foes and domestic Faction, and that sensible of the distinguished Privileges we enjoy as a Nation, it may be our earnest Wish and constant Endeavour to preserve these Privileges sacred and inviolate, and transmit them unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Town-Council, in Common-Council assembled.
By James Roughead, Provost.
29th May 1802.

[Presented by the Honorable Thomas Maitland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulation on the final Success of your Majesty's Efforts for putting a Period to the Calamities of War.

Engaged in a Contest, not for Glory or Acquisition of Territory, but for the Blessings of established Government, the Independance of your Crown, and the very Existence of Religion and social Order in Europe; your Majesty has been not less conspicuous for the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, than for your ardent Desire, whensoever these great Objects might appear to be secured, to stop the Effusion of Blood, and restore to your People the Blessings of Peace. We rejoice that your Majesty's Exertions, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, have been crowned with a favourable Issue; and, while the heroic Bravery of your Fleets and Armies has, under your Majesty's Exertions, been the Instrument of preserving the civilized World from the Dangers with which it was menaced, your Majesty has been no less successful in finally accomplishing the great Work of a safe and honorable Peace; and thus gratifying the first Wish of your Heart, to secure the permanent Interests of your Empire, and the Happiness and Tranquillity of your People. We acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude to the Almighty, the signal Protection, which, in the Course of this awful Struggle, your Majesty has experienced from the desperate Attempts of the Enemies of our excellent Constitution, the Existence and Preservation of which is so closely interwoven with the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the happy Establishment of your illustrious Family on the Throne of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our unremitting Endeavours to impress on the Minds of the Youth entrusted to our Care, a Sense of the Blessings they enjoy under the wise and auspicious Administration, which, by your Majesty's gracious Appointment, presides over this Part of the United Empire, and to inculcate the Principles of Loyalty and Attachment to the British Constitution, as the best Security for our effectual Attainment of the great End of our Institution, the Advancement of sound Learning, and of the salutary Influence of Morality and true Religion.
