W Hereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that, on Sunday the 6th Day of June instant, as William Woodard and Five other Boatmen, in the Service of the Customs, belonging to the Six-Oared Boat under the Command of Mr. Simon Baspall, Sitter, were out upon Duty on the Cliff at Southwold, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, they discovered a Lug-Sail Vessel and a Lug-Sail Boat (marked on the Stern Fly of Rye) within her, Sailing to the Northward, close to the Shore, and pursuing the same along the Shore as far as Easton Cliff, they were there met by Nine stout Sailors, one of whom appeared to be the Master, all armed with Muskets and Cutlasses; that the Officers saw them load their Muskets as they approached, and, upon their coming up, they told the said Officers that they had Goods and did not mean to lose them, and desired the said Officers to turn back as far as the Hedge, otherwise they would fire upon them; that the said Officers were thereupon obliged to retreat, and, after being detained and guarded by the said Sailors for a considerable Time, they were then compelled to go to a Public-House at South Cove, where they were likewise confined and guarded by the said armed Sailors until Seven o'Clock in the Evening, during which Time the Whole of the Goods were, as it is supposed, carted off from the Shore and carried up the Country;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover any One or more of his Accomplices, so that any One or more of the said Offenders may be apprehended for the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners, J. Hume.

W Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King that in the Month of May last, several anonymous Letters, written by some Person or Persons unknown, have been sent by the Post directed to John Scaif the Elder, of Stone Gravels, in the Parish of Chesterfield, in the County of Derby, threatening the Disturbance of the Peace of himself and of his Family, and the Destruction of his Property; and that, on or about the 22d Day of May last, an Hay-Stack belonging to the said John Scaif, standing near his House at Stone Gravels aforesaid, was set on Fire, and the greatest Part thereof consumed before it could be extinguished, and that there is Reason to believe the same was maliciously done by some Person or Persons unknown; and that, since the said Hay-Stack was so set on Fire as aforesaid, another anonymous Letter was sent on or about the 27th Day of May last, directed to the said John Scaif, with the Chesterfield Post-Mark stamped thereon, of which the following is a Copy:

"Once more I make bold to write to you on the occasion which hope you found no deceit from my last—wich in a short time will be compleatly
