A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Seventeenth Day of August next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burghesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Seventeenth Day of August next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland do, respectively, upon Notice thereof, forthwith issue out Writs in due Form, and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament: And We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in Our said Parliament, to be duly returned to and give their Attendance in Our said Parliament; which Writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of August next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit, to declare Our Pleasure for Summoning and Holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland on Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of August next ensuing the Date hereof: In Order therefore, to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the Advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Tenth Day of August next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and, immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to Preserve the Peace thereof during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourselves at Windsor the Twenty-ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two, in the Forty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Termination of the arduous and important Contest in which this Country has so long been engaged, for the Preservation of its Religion, Liberty, and Constitution.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty, that, highly as we prize the Blessings of public Tranquillity, and anxiously as we wish for the Continuance of Peace, yet, should the Ambition of any Enemies induce them to encroach upon the just Rights or Independence of your Kingdom, we will be neither lulled by their Artifice, nor intimidated by their Power, from supporting your Majesty in repelling every Attack with the same Zeal, Energy, and Constancy which have been so eminently displayed by your Majesty's Subjects in the Course of the late just and necessary War.

Signed, by a Resolution of the Meeting,

Watkin Williams Wynne, Chairman.
Montgomeryshire, July 5, 1802.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, offer their sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

They have seen with great Anxiety the Progress of a War extending its baneful Influence over the fairest Portion of the Earth, and unequalled in its desolating Effects; in which, whilst the most powerful States of Europe have been borne down in the Torrent, Great Britain alone, under the Favour of Divine Providence, through the Vigour and Prudence of your Majesty's Councils, and the effective Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land, has resisted the Attempts of her Enemies from without, and the Machinations of secret Treason and open Rebellion in her own Dominions.

Conspicuous in the Annals of Glory, this Nation presents to the World an Example of Energy undepressed by temporary Calamity, and of Moderation in the Hour of Triumph, which, at the same Time that it secures to her some of her constitutional Liberty, invites the Four Quarters of the Globe to participate with her the Blessings and the Arts of Peace.

To your Majesty, in a peculiar Degree, belong the Gratulations of a beneficent Heart on the Prospects now opened to our View. Your faithful and loyal Subjects thus contemplate in the Happiness of their Sovereign, the Cause and the Fruit of their own Prosperity and Peace.

Untridge, Mayor.

Rob. Currie and Rich. Griffith, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with their sincere and ardent Congratulations on the Event of a general Peace.

The Circumstances which have attended a devastating and widely-extended War, afflicting in its Progress, and painful on Retrospection, have yet afforded to your Majesty's faithful Subjects the consolatory View of a great Nation firmly resisting the revolutionary Storm; and finally, under Favour of Providence, reposing in Security and Peace.

With those Blessings, the Fruit of wise and vigorous Councils, happily directed to that End, aided by the active Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life and happy Reign, we associate the Permanence of our invaluable Constitution, and the commercial Prosperity of these Realms.

R. W. Wynne, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of Dunbar, deeply impressed with Sentiments of Veneration and steady Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, crave Permission to approach the Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity to your Majesty's Dominions.

While, on the one Hand, we contemplate with Gratitude and Delight the Spirit and Determination which uniformly animated your Majesty's Councils, and which were so successfully aided by the unprecedented Exertions of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies during the late arduous Contest in which we were engaged, so on the other, we cannot refrain from laying at your Majesty's Feet our humble Sense of the Firmness, Moderation, and Wisdom of those Measures which, through the Blessing of God and your Majesty's paternal Goodness, have led to a Restoration of Peace.

That the same Providence which has hitherto been your Preserver may continue to give to your Majesty a long and happy Reign, and may secure to your Majesty the Possession of the Confidence and Affection of a virtuous and loyal People, is the most earnest and humble Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

At Dunbar this Fourth of July One thousand eight hundred and two.

Chr. Middlemas, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of North Berwick, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity.

We rejoice that the arduous Contest in which this Country has been engaged in Defence of our Religion, our Laws and Independence, has been, by the Blessing of God, brought to a Conclusion; and we contemplate with Gratitude and Delight, that intrepid Bravery which has, on every Occasion, so eminently distinguished your Majesty's Fleets and Armies.

We assure your Majesty, that, whatever Exertions or Sacrifices we have been called to make during the War, we are ready to renew them with the same Spirit, should the Dignity and Honor of your Majesty, and the Security of the Empire, call for such an Exertion.

We trust, however, that such an Event is far distant; and we pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and peaceful, and that our Constitution, which is at once the Wonder, Terror, and Delight of distant Nations, may continue to bless our Children's Children.

Signed in Name and by Authority of the Council, this Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two Years.

P. Minchin, Chief Magistrate.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Consul-General and Factory of Lisbon, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on the happy Event of a General Peace.

Residing, as we do, at a Distance from the Seat of your Majesty's Government, we do not the less feel its benign Influence; and the Solicitude which was expressed by your Majesty's Ministers, at a recent Period of Alarm, for the Security of our Property, with the judicious Measures suggested and pursued by them for its Preservation, have impressed us with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude. Our Hearts are still in our native Country; and our Inclinations, therefore, not less than our Duty, impelling us to take the deepest Interest in every Circumstance that can contribute to its Prosperity and Happiness. We trust, that it will not be deemed presumptuous in us to say, that we yield to none of our fellow Subjects in Sentiments of Respectful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and of Veneration for your Royal Authority.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Blessings of Peace, that your valuable Life may be very long preserved for the Benefit of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and that the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland may continue to flourish with Increase of Dignity, Wealth, and Power, is our daily and fervent Prayer.

At the Request of the British Factory,
John Hunter, D. Consul-General.
