THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Termination of the arduous and important Contest in which this Country has so long been engaged, for the Preservation of its Religion, Liberty, and Constitution.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty, that, highly as we prize the Blessings of public Tranquillity, and anxiously as we wish for the Continuance of Peace, yet, should the Ambition of any Enemies induce them to encroach upon the just Rights or Independence of your Kingdom, we will be neither lulled by their Artifice, nor intimidated by their Power, from supporting your Majesty in repelling every Attack with the same Zeal, Energy, and Constancy which have been so eminently displayed by your Majesty's Subjects in the Course of the late just and necessary War.

Signed, by a Resolution of the Meeting,

Watkin Williams Wynne, Chairman.
Montgomeryshire, July 5, 1802.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, offer their sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

They have seen with great Anxiety the Progress of a War extending its baneful Influence over the fairest Portion of the Earth, and unequalled in its desolating Effects; in which, whilst the most powerful States of Europe have been borne down in the Torrent, Great Britain alone, under the Favour of Divine Providence, through the Vigour and Prudence of your Majesty's Councils, and the effective Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land, has resisted the Attempts of her Enemies from without, and the Machinations of secret Treason and open Rebellion in her own Dominions.

Conspicuous in the Annals of Glory, this Nation presents to the World an Example of Energy undepressed by temporary Calamity, and of Moderation in the Hour of Triumph, which, at the same Time that it secures to her some of her constitutional Li-
