THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Derby.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Derby, assembled at a public Meeting of the said County, beg Leave, to approach your Throne with lively Sentiments of Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

With great Admiration and Gratitude, and with a just National Pride, we have witnessed during the late arduous and eventful Contest, the unexampled Heroism and Valour displayed in your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and the steady and genuine Fortitude and Patriotism manifested by all Ranks of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, whereby, under the Auspices of Divine Providence, the Honor and Independence of the Kingdom have been maintained; its Religion, Laws, and Liberties preserved; the baneful Principles of Anarchy successfully resisted, and your Majesty's faithful Subjects restored to the Blessings of Peace.

Earnestly do we pray, that such Blessings may be continued to us, and that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a loyal and united People.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting, by Thos. Prinssep, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Prinssep, Esq; High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys, of your Majesty's Island of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, ever impressed with Sentiments of warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, with our most sincere Congratulations on the Establishment of public Peace.

Whilst with honest Pride and grateful Pleasure, we look back to, we venerate and admire the uniform Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Valour and Achievements of your Fleets and Armies, during the late most arduous Contest; these, supported by the firm Patriotism and undaunted Spirit of a free, a loyal, and united People, have, under God, preserved to us, all the Blessings of our happy Constitution, in Church and State inviolate; have established the Character of the Nation on the solid Basis of true Glory, firm undeviating Honor, persevering Fortitude, and determined Courage, and are the best Security for the Duration of that Peace which the united Efforts of Wisdom and of Valour have so honourably accomplished.

With heartfelt Gratitude, we desire to unite with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects, in Prayers to the God of all Mercies, that the Blessings of Peace, may be long continued to us, and that your Majesty may long live the Father of a loyal, happy, and united People.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, assembled in their Annual Meeting, according to the ancient Statutes of this Realm, take the Opportunity to return your Majesty our grateful Acknowledgements for your successful Exertions in restoring to your People the Blessings of Peace.

Representing, as we do, the Commercial and Manufacturing Interests of this Part of the United Kingdom, we take a warm Concern in an Event, which, amidst the Wreck of Nations, has not only preserved entire your Majesty's Dominions and our glorious Constitution, but which, we trust, will enable us to make the most beneficial Use of those Resources, which the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils have carried unimpaired through the Calamities of War.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Blessings which you have procured for us, and see your People flourishing in Arts and Commerce, as they have done in Arms, is our sincere and earnest Prayer.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the Fifteenth Day of July, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and two.

Wm. Fettes, Preses.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Royal Council of Customs, and of the Indies, Copenhagen, June 3, 1802.

HIS Danish Majesty having ordered, for the Guidance of Persons navigating in the Baltic, that a Light-House should be erected upon the extreme Southern Point of Falster, called Giedser-Odde, and, after having previously consulted with M. Lowenörn, Adjutant-General of the Royal Marine and Chief of the Pilots, the Public is hereby made acquainted, That a Light-House has been constructed upon the said Giedser-Odde, at about One-eighth of a Mile from the most extreme Point of Land, and although the Light is entirely produced by a Coal Fire, yet Care has been taken to surround it with a Lanthorn or Glass Case according to the latest Invention, of Fourteen Feet Diameter, so that, be the Weather what it may, a constant Flame will arise therefrom, and the Light be augmented thereby, because all that Part of the Case which is towards the Land, and which cannot be seen at Sea, is lined with a Plating of polished Block Tin.

In order that the dangerous Flat called Trindelen, situated by the Compass at about Three Quarters of a Mile S. E. One Quarter S. without the Giedfer-Odde may the more readily be observed by Navigators during the Day, a Pillar with a Barrel on the Top of it, painted black, has been erected on a rising Ground near the Sea, and which is placed, as with Regard to the Trindelen, in the same Point of View as the Light-House, which is painted White:—So that when under Sail, the Black Barrel is seen in the same Point of View as the White Light-House, (which may very easily be distinguished from the Trindelen in gloomy Weather, and even at a Distance of Half a Mile without that Flat, according to the greater or less Elevation of the Vessel at Sea,) she is in a right Line with the Trindelen. In such Case a Vessel must keep at the Distance of a Mile from the Coast in order to avoid the said Flat, it being impossible to take Soundings. When the Course is from West to East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Western Side of the Light-House the Vessel is quite clear of the Flat, and vice versa, when sailing from the East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Eastern Side of the Light-House.

As to Ships not being of great Burthen there is a Passage between the Trindelen and Shore; but this Passage must be extremely well known, or a Pilot should be taken, who will come out from Giedfer-Odde upon Signal being made.

This Light-House will be opened on the 1st of August 1802, from which Day the Regulations contained in the Ordonance of the 21st March 1705, and in the Placard of the 1st February 1779, will be adopted; so that it will be kept burning in Summer, or from Easter Day to Michaelmas Day, from an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise; and in Winter, or from Michaelmas Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

Custom-House, London, July 24, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Saturday the 19th Instant, about Half-past Two o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. Archibald Weatherston, Coast Wailer, in the Service of the Customs, at Budle, within the Port of Berwick, being out upon Duty, and attempting to examine a Cart which he met upon the Road leading from Sunderland to the Wilsb. was at a Place called Newham-How-Ways; most barbarously and inhumanly beaten by Three Men, one of whom was on Horseback, and the other Two in the Cart, who seized him and knocked him down with Bludgeons, and afterwards tied his Hands behind his Back, and his Legs together, and then left him bleeding, and almost senseless in consequence of the Wounds which he had received. From the Conversation which passed between them there is Reason to believe that the said Three Men, were Smugglers belonging to Boomer, and one of them said, in Answer to the Complaints of the said Archibald Weatherston, that he had himself been worse used by an Excise Officer;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence. PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners, J. Hume.

Description of the Smugglers.

One of the said Men was stout made, about Five Feet Seven or Eight Inches high, had on a Drab Jacket, round Faced, and spoke the Scotch Language quick, and apparently about Thirty Years of Age; another of the said Men was rather slender made, about Five Feet Eight Inches high, had on a Brown Coat, thin faced, Black Complexion, and rather ruddy, and between Forty and Fifty Years of age; the Third cannot be accurately described.
