Creditors of the late ROWLAND and HENRY RUGELEY, deceased.

BY Information from the Agent employed at Charleston, South Carolina, for managing the Estate and Concerns of the late Rowland and Henry Rugeley, there is Reason to suppose their Creditors will eventually receive more than has been expected from that Property. The Trustees have therefore judged it necessary to make it thus known to their Creditors, as a Prevention to their making Sale of their Claims to this Estate to Persons who may designedly apply for becoming Purchasers, at less than the Effects are likely to produce.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause wherein Richard Yerbury, since deceased, and Robert Goldsborough, and Sarah his Wife, also since deceased were Plaintiffs, and Ebenezer Head and Richard Snow, both since deceased, were Defendants, it was, amongst other Things, referred to Nicholas Ridley, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who (under the Act of Parliament, passed in the 40th Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Relief of Persons entitled to intailed Estates to be purchased with Trust Monies,") were entitled to the Residue of the Sums, of 2995l. 7s. 5d.
