Whitchall, September 18, 1802.

Whereas, by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Persons administering, or aiding or assisting, or being present at and consenting to the administering unlawful Oaths, or taking them voluntarily, are made guilty of Felony, and punishable with Seven Years Transportation; and all Persons, although they may have been compelled to take such Oaths, are not exempt from the Penalties unless they give Information thereof before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace within Four Days; and all Persons aiding and assisting, or being present at and consenting thereto, or causing any such Oath or Engagement to be administered or taken, though not present at the administering or taking thereof, are deemed principal Offenders, and liable to the same Punishment; and any Engagement or Obligation whatsoever, in the Nature of an Oath, is deemed to be on Oath, and punishable in like Manner:

And whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that many Workmen and others concerned in the Woollen Manufacture have entered into illegal Combinations against their Masters, and have bound themselves by an Oath, or some other secret Engagement, to carry the same into Effect;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such unlawful Practices, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons (having taken such Oaths) who shall come forward and give Information against any of the Persons concerned in administering the same, or any others who have had Oaths administered to them, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the following Rewards are offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (that is to say,) FIFTY GUINEAS to the Person who shall give the first Information; TWENTY GUINEAS to the Person
