WHEREAS Advertisements have at different Times appeared in the Newspapers, offering Sums of Money, for the procuring of Places or Situations in the Customs, inserted either by Persons not aware of the serious Consequences which attach upon Transactions of this Nature, or by Persons of a different Description, with a View to delude the ignorant and unwary; the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, think it necessary to have it generally made known, That, in Addition to the Punishment, which the Common Law would inflict upon the Offence of Bribing, or attempting to bribe any Person intrusted with the Disposal of any Office, the Statute passed in the 5th and 6th Year of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, inflicts the Penalty of Incapacity to hold such Office, in the Person purchasing, and the Forfeiture of Office in the Person selling; and, that in case any such Place or Situation, either shall have been, or shall hereafter be procured or obtained by such corrupt Means, they are determined to enforce the Penalties of the Law, and to prosecute the Offenders with the utmost Severity. And they do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who will give Information and Satisfactory Proof of any Place or Situation in the Customs being so obtained, so that the Parties concerned therein may be proceeded against accordingly.
