From Saturday January 1, to Tuesday January 4, 1803.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st of December 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council dated the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, issued in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and continued by several subsequent Acts, was pleased to prohibit the Exportation, and to permit the Importation, and the taking out of Warehouse, of Corn and other Articles of Provision, and likewise to allow the Importation of Foreign Corn, and other Articles of Provision therein enumerated, Duty free, in the Manner therein-mentioned, for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of the said Order, which Order was further continued by another Order, bearing Date the Second Day of June last, until the First Day of January next: And whereas an Act has been passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods, in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Island of Malta;" His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Prohibition to export from any Port or Place in Great Britain any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and the said Liberty to import and take out of Warehouse any Foreign Corn and other Articles, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision Duty free, be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March next inclusive, save and except the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, and it is hereby declared, that nothing herein contained is intended to extend, or shall be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland;"

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions specified and enforced in and by the said Orders, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, and the Second Day of June last, respecting such Exportation and Importation, (except as herein excepted,) and the taking the same out of Warehouse, and all Matters and Things in the said Orders of the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one and the Second Day of June last contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Thirty first Day of March next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force under the said last-mentioned Order of the Second of June last.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st of December 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act

“ to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;” it is, among other Things, enacted, That an Act made in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled “An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament;” which was continued by an Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and further continued and amended by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, and also further continued and amended by Two Acts of the Forty-first and Forty-second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, shall be, and the same is thereby, continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, That, from the First Day of January next, until the Thirty-first Day of March next inclusive, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley pulled, or Pearl Barley, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it is His Majesty’s pleasure nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Subsistence, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Sailors, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Maintenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty’s Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty’s Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty’s Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Ports, Cities, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty’s Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they are entered Outwards before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or hereafter may be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit, at any Time, any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Suffrance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize:

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

THE Reverend CHARLES PROBY, Clerk, Vicar of the Vicarage of Slawston, in the County of Leicester, do hereby give Notice, that in pursuance of the Power and Authority given to the Reverend John Parker, since deceased, and his Successors, Vicars of the said Vicarage, in and by a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George:

the Third, "for dividing and inclosing the Open and Common Fields, Meadows, Common Pastures, and other Commonable and Waste Lands and Grounds, in the Parish of Slawiton, in the County of Leicesters," I shall, in the Manner prescribed by the said Act; apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said County of Leicesters, in the Week after the Close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have Two Persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a Third Person, to be named and chosen by themselves Arbitrators or Referees for inquiring into and ascertaining, by the Mode and in the Manner prescribed by the said Act, the Average Price of a Bushel of good marketable Wheat within the said County of Leicesters, for the Seven Years then last past, and for the Purpose in the said Act particularly mentioned. Dated this 9th Day of December in the Year of our Lord 1802.

CHARLES PROBY.

ALL Persons who have any Claims on the Estate of William Tryon White, Esq; formerly Commander of the Marquis of Lansdowne, in the Service of the Honorable the East India Company, deceased, are desired to send in their respective Accounts immediately to his Mother Mrs. Eve White, of No. 6, Somerset-Street, Portman-Square, the Captain's late Residence, in order that the same may be examined, and, if found correct, settled; and all Persons who were indebted to the said Captain William Tryon White, are hereby desired to pay their Debts as above, without Delay.

Notice to the Creditors of Francis Garbett and Company, and Charles Gascoigne.

December 21, 1802.

WALTER HOG, Accomptant in Edinburgh, Trustee upon the sequestrated Estates of Messrs. Francis Garbett and Company, late of Carron Wharf, and of Mr. Charles Gascoigne, one of the Partners of that Company, hereby intimates to the Creditors on these sequestrated Estates, that he is to submit to their Consideration, at the Annual General Meeting of the Creditors, to be held in the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, upon the 10th Day of January 1803, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Proposal which has been made to him by Mr. James Gibson, Writer to the Signet, Agent for John Minyer, of London, Esq; Executor of the deceased William Pocock, of Newgate-Street, London, Esq; for compromising a Question, which has long depended in the Court of Session, respecting the Validity of an Assignment of Nine Shares of the Stock in Carron Company, standing in Mr Gascoigne's Name, granted by him, while Factor for the first Trustees on these sequestrated Estates, to the said William Pocock, in Security of a Debt due to him, by Francis Garbett and Company.

The Purport of Mr. Minyer's Proposal is, that on his receiving One-Half of the Balance of the Debt remaining due to him, as on the 1st of April last, (which Half he states at 1736l. 6s. 3d.) and being ranked on the Funds of Francis Garbett and Company, and Charles Gascoigne for the other Half, so as to draw therefore the Dividends hereafter to be declared, he will immediately convey to the Trustee, for behoof of the Creditors, all Right which he has to the said Nine Shares of Carron Company's Stock, and to the Dividends thereon remaining unpaid, since 31st December 1776 inclusive, and which now amount to a large Sum.

The Trustee therefore requests a full Attendance of the Creditors, by themselves or their Doors, properly authorized, at the General Meeting, on the 10th January 1803, in order to determine whether Mr. Minyer's Proposal ought to be accepted or rejected. Such Creditors as do not then attend personally, or by their Proxies, will be held as acquiescing in whatever Resolution the Meeting shall adopt upon said Proposal.

WHEREAS STEARNE TIGHE, of the City of Dublin, Esq; deceased, my late Grandfather, to whom I am Heir at Law, did, by Release reciting a Lease for one Year, bearing Date the 9th of December 1752, demise unto Thomas Wallis, of the City of Cork, Gentleman, his Heirs and Assigns, Two Front Dwelling-Houses, or Tenements, situate in Castle-Street, in the City of Cork, for the Lives of Thomas Wallis, Richard Cramer, and Joseph Robbins, with a Covenant for the perpetual Renewal thereof, at the Fine of Nine Pounds on the Fall of each Life, with a Nomine Poena, in case of not renewing of Five Shillings per Month, as by one Part of said Release in my Possession will now fully appear. And whereas the said Lives are long since dead, and no Person or Persons have or hath since their Decease, claimed any Right or Benefit to the Renewal of said Premises, nor have they paid the Renewal Fines or Nomine Poena, or tendered the same to any one for me or my Use, as by said in Part recited Release they have a Power of doing. Now I do hereby, in pursuance of the Statute in that Case made and provided, give Notice, that I have made a Demand of the said Fine and Nomine Poena on the principal Occupiers of said Premises, and that unless the Person or Persons entitled to said Renewal, shall within Two Months from the Date hereof, demand a Renewal of said Premises from me, who alone am entitled to renew the same as Heir at Law to my said Grandfather the Lessor, and also pay me the Renewal Fines and Interest thereon, and also the Nomine Poena, that I will consider the Premises demised, and all Benefit of Renewal from thenceforth relinquished by the Heirs at Law, Assignee or Assignees of the said Thomas Wallis the Lessee named in said Lease, and by all and every other Person or Persons entitled to said Renewal. And that I will, pursuant to this Notice, and of the Statute in that Case made and provided, from and after the Expiration of said Two Months, if not required to renew and paid all Renewal Fines and Interest, Septennial Fines, and Nomine Poena by the Person or Persons who have or hath a Right to a Renewal, proceed for a Recovery thereof as by Law I am entitled, which all Persons having any Right or Claim thereto, are desired to take Notice. Witness my Hand this 12th Day of November 1802.

STEARNE TIGHE.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,

With Benefit of Survivorship.

Notice is hereby given, that Payment of the Half-Yearly Dividends due at Christmas last, together with all Arrears due to that Period, will commence at the House of Messrs. Boldero and Co. No. 30, Cornhill, on Tuesday the 11th of January instant, from which Day the Office will continue open for Payment of the same, from the Hour of Ten in the Forenoon to the Hour of Two in the Afternoon, on every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

The Debentures are to be produced, and also a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance of the Nominee will be required; and it is particularly requested that on the Demise of the Nominee, the Debenture may be delivered in to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class: And as it is expedient that the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences that affect a Reversionary Property, where so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of all Persons who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to Messrs. Boldero and Co.

The Public are requested to take Notice, that, by the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, all Persons neglecting to demand the same for the Space of Three Years, shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominees had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

THE very valuable Sugar Estate of GOLDEN VALE, in Jamaica will be peremptorily sold to the highest and best Bidder, at Garraway's Coffee-House, on the 28th Day of January 1803, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock.

The aforesaid Plantation is situate in the Parish of Portland, about Four Miles and Half only from Port Antonio, the finest Harbour in the Island, and the Rendezvous of the Homeward-bound Convoys in War-Time; it consists of 3256 Acres of Land, or thereabouts, whereof about 200 Acres are now in Canes, with 158 seasoned Negroes, 183 Head of Stock, a complete set of Works, and all other necessary Buildings in good Repair; and, with an additional Strength of Negroes, may make a certain annual Crop, (being in a fertile and seasonable Part of the Country,) of 350 to 400 Hogheads of good Sugar, and the usual Proportion of Rum; and, after reserving a sufficient Quantity of Penn Land and Provision Grounds for such an Estate, there would remain a large Tract of valuable Land, which might be disposed of to small Settlers for Coffee, &c. to great Advantage.

The Estate being the Property of Greenwich Hospital, and the Chief Object of the Commissioners being to realize the Value thereof in England, they will allow a reasonable Time for the Payment of the Purchase-Money by Instalments, the Principal being secured to their entire Satisfaction.

For further Particulars apply to William Mitchell and Francis Smith, Esqrs. Spanish Town, Jamaica, or to the Subscribers in London. MILLIGAN and MITCHELL.

London-Street, 30th December 1802.

N.B. Any Person intending to bid at the Sale of the above Estate must call here at least Ten Days previous to the Day of Sale, and settle the Terms of Payment.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause Hewetson against Hilman, it was (amongst other Things) ordered that John Spranger, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, should enquire who were the next of Kin of Richard Hewetson, late of King-Street, Covent-Garden, in the County of Middlesex, and of Croydon, in the County of Surrey, Laceman, deceased, the Testator in the said Decree named, living at the Time of his Death, (which happened on the 19th Day of March 1800,) and if any of such next of Kin were dead, who were their Personal Representatives; all Persons claiming to be next of Kin of the said Testator, living at the Time of his Death, or the Personal Representatives of such of them as are dead, are forthwith to come in and prove their Kindred before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
