From Tuesday January 18, to Saturday January 22, 1803.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th of January 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty, at this Board, that the Malignant Fever which some Time since raged in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, and at Baltimore, in Maryland, within the United States of America, has totally ceased; His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the Quarantine laid by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eighteenth of September last, upon all Ships, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, which, subsequent to the First Day of July preceding, should have cleared out from any of the said Ports of Pennsylvania or Maryland, and had arrived, or which should thereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the Ports of Pennsylvania, or of Maryland, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done, in case such Order of the Eighteenth of September last, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided such Ships and Vessels shall have sailed from the said Ports of Pennsylvania or Maryland subsequent to the 21st of December last; and that none of the Crew or other Persons on board have died or been sick with the said Fever during the Course of the Voyage: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 31st of December 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council dated the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, issued in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and continued by several subsequent Acts, was pleased to prohibit the Exportation, and to permit the Importation, and the taking out of Warehouse, of Corn and other Articles of Provision, and likewise to allow the Importation of Foreign Corn, and other Articles of Provision therein enumerated, Duty free, in the Manner therein-mentioned, for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date of the said Order, which Order was further continued by another Order, bearing Date the Second Day of June last, until the First Day of January next: And whereas an Act has been passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Island of Malta;" His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Prohibition to export from any Port or Place in Great Britain any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and the said Liberty to import and take out of Warehouse any Foreign Corn and other Articles, and likewise to import certain other Articles of Provision Duty free, be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March next inclusive, save and except the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, and it is hereby declared, that nothing herein contained is intended to extend, or shall be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland:"

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that all the Exceptions, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions specified and enforced in and by the said Orders, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, and the Second Day of June last, respecting such Exportation and Importation, (except as herein excepted,) and the taking the same out of Warehouse, and all Matters and Things in the said Orders of the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one and the Second Day of June last contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Thirty first Day of March next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force under the said last-mentioned Order of the Second of June last.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at Windfor, the 31st of December 1802,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the

"bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" it is, among other Things, enacted, That an Act made in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament;" which was continued by an Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and further continued and amended by another Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, and also further continued and amended by Two Acts of the Forty-first and Forty-second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and three, shall be, and the same is thereby, continued until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, That, from the First Day of January next, until the Thirty-first Day of March next inclusive, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid are not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as shall be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustainance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as may be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they are entered Outwards before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners as aforesaid, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from any Port of Great Britain to any Port of Ireland, of any of the Articles above-mentioned, provided the Persons so exporting the same shall enter into Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the due landing thereof in the Ports in Ireland for which the same shall be respectively cleared out; and shall also comply with all other Conditions which now are, or hereafter may be required by Law in respect to such Exportation:

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit, at any Time, any Person or Persons from shipping or putting on board any of the Articles above-mentioned, to be carried from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, having such, or the like Coast Sufferance, Coquet, or other Coast Dispatch for that Purpose, and on such and the like Security being given for the landing and discharging the same, as now is, or hereafter may be by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying Coastwise any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize:

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

THIS is to give Notice to the concerned, that Information has been received at this Office, that the Brig Wear, of Hull, Thomas Tomlinson, Master, bound from Cadiz for Leith and Hull, with a Cargo of Wine, Indigo, and other Goods, was stranded at Amble, about 30 Miles from Newcastle, on the 10th Instant,

EVAN NEPEAN.

Whitchall, January 15, 1803.

WHereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that early on Wednesday Morning the 29th Ultimo, a Barn, situate in Carlton-Field, in the County of Cambridge, the Property of the Reverend Newton Charles Lane, of Brinklay, near Newmarket, was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, by which the same, together with several Stacks of Corn, containing upwards of Three Hundred and Fifty Quarters of Wheat, Twelve Hundred Quarters of Barley, and a considerable Quantity of Pease, Oats, and Tares, farming Utensils, and a Threshing Mill, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Newton Charles Lane, and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Phoenix Fire Office, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Navy-Office, January 5, 1803.

THIS Majesty having been graciously pleased to direct, by His Order in Council bearing Date the 22d Day of October 1802, that the following Bounties be granted to Sixty Chaplains in His Majesty's Navy, who have served during the late War with France, Spain, and Holland, and do not enjoy the Benefit of any Ecclesiastical Living or Preferment from the Crown, or otherwise, of the Annual Value of Seventy Pounds, viz.

To the Twenty who shall have served longest actually at Sea, not under Seven Years, a Bounty of Four Shillings per Day:

To the next Twenty who shall have served longest actually at Sea, not under Five Years, Three Shillings per Day:

And to the next Twenty who shall have served longest actually at Sea, not under Four Years, Two Shillings and Sixpence per Day:

And further ordered that, in Case any of the Chaplains now receiving His Majesty's Bounty, granted by former Orders in Council, should have served at Sea during the late War, their Time of Service in either of the preceding Wars shall be included, and be considered as entitling them to the Benefit of that Class to whom a Bounty is granted by His Majesty's present Order, exceeding the Amount of that they may at present enjoy.

Notice is hereby given to such Chaplains as may be entitled to claim His Majesty's Bounty as aforesaid, that they must deliver into this Office, on or before the 31st Day of March next, a List of the Ships they have served in, together with an Affidavit made before a proper Magistrate, that they have not enjoyed the Benefit of any Ecclesiastical Living or Preferment from the Crown, or otherwise, of the Annual Value of Seventy Pounds, between the 22d October and the 31st December 1802.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

To the PROPRIETORS of the WEYMOUTH-HOTEL.

Salisbury, December 21, 1802.

Notice is hereby given, that the Treasurer of this Jointure Concern will proceed to make a Distribution of the Rents which he has in his Hands amongst such of the Proprietors who shall, on or before the 24th Day of June 1803, send to him (Michael Burrough, Esq; of Salisbury, Banker) an Account of their Claim. And it is expressly required, that each Claimant will make an Affidavit, either before a Master in Chancery or a Magistrate, of the Title of the Claimant, either as an original Subscriber, or as Assignee or Executor of an original Subscriber, of the Place of Residence and actual Existence of the Nominee in respect of which such Claim is made, or if dead, when and where such Nominee died; and all Claims not duly verified upon Oath will be disallowed; and all Persons not then claiming will lose the Benefit of the said Distribution.

ALL Persons having Claim or Demand on the Estate of John Horner, late of Bucklersbury, in the City of London, Drug-Merchant, deceased, are desired forthwith to transmit an Account thereof to Farrer, Lacey, Steadman, and Wall, Solicitors, Bread-Street-Hill, London.

ALL Persons who have any Claims on the Estate of William Tryon White, Esq; formerly Commander of the Marquis of Lansdowne, in the Service of the Honorable the East India Company, deceased, are desired to send in their respective Accounts immediately to his Mother Mrs. Eve White, of No. 6, Somerset-Street, Portman-Square, the Captain's late Residence, in order that the same may be examined, and, if found correct, settled; and all Persons who were indebted to the said Captain William Tryon White, are hereby desired to pay their Debts as above, without Delay.

Captain JOHN CAMPBELL's Creditors.

ALL Persons having any Claims or Demands upon the Estate of Captain John Campbell, of Middle Scotland-Yard, deceased, formerly of the West Kent Militia, and late of His Majesty's Household, who have not yet sent in their Accounts, are peremptorily required to send the same on or before the 20th Day of February next, with the Nature of their Securities, to Mr. James Smith, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, or they will be excluded from the Benefit of the Dividend of his Effects about to be made amongst his Creditors.

THE very valuable Sugar Estate of GOLDEN VALE, in Jamaica will be peremptorily sold to the highest and best Bidder, at Garraway's Coffee-House, on the 28th Day of January 1803, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock.

The aforesaid Plantation is situate in the Parish of Portland, about Four Miles and Half only from Port Antonio, the finest Harbour in the Island, and the Rendezvous of the Homeward-bound Convoys in War-Time; it consists of 325 Acres of Land, or thereabouts, whereof about 200 Acres are now in Canes, with 158 seasoned Negroes, 183 Head of Stock, a complete set of Works, and all other necessary Buildings in good Repair; and, with an additional Strength of Negroes, may make a certain annual Crop, (being in a fertile and seasonable Part of the Country,) of 350 to 400 Hogheads of good Sugar, and the usual Proportion of Rum; and, after reserving a sufficient Quantity of Penn Land and Provision Grounds for such an Estate, there would remain a large Tract of valuable Land, which might be disposed of to small Settlers for Coffee, &c. to great Advantage.

The Estate being the Property of Greenwich Hospital, and the Chief Object of the Commissioners being to realize the Value thereof in England, they will allow a reasonable Time for the Payment of the Purchase-Money by Installments, the Principal being secured to their entire Satisfaction.

For further Particulars apply to William Mitchell and Francis Smith, Esqrs. Spanish Town, Jamaica, or to the Subscribers in London. MILLIGAN and MITCHELL, London-Street, 30th December 1802.

N.B. Any Person intending to bid at the Sale of the above Estate must call here at least Ten Days previous to the Day of Sale, and settle the Terms of Payment.
