St. James's, March 10, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Recorder, Bailiffs, Citizens, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Lichfield.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Recorder, Bailiffs, Citizens, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Lichfield, highly sensible of the numerous Blessings which we enjoy under the mild and paternal Government of your Majesty, unanimously beg Leave to address your Majesty on your Majesty's recent providential Deliverance from a most daring and flagitious Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person.

While we view with Indignation and Abhorrence the traitorous Machinations of wicked Conspirators, we cannot but feel an additional Impulse of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, of Obedience to the Laws, and of Reverence and Attachment to the free and excellent Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we should be guilty of Impiety to the Almighty.

and of Ingratitude to your Majesty, were we to withhold the just Tribute of Thanksgiving for so many Instances of Deliverance from Danger to which the Person of your Majesty has been exposed, and which Divine Providence has, in Mercy, averted from this Nation.

And we pray that the same Almighty Power may continue to grant to your Majesty the utmost Enjoyment of those public and private Virtues, which, for the Good of your People, your Majesty so eminently possesses; and that the Period may be far distant when your Majesty may be called to close a Reign, glorious, virtuous, and happy.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of Glasgow, most humbly approach your Throne with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Escape which your Majesty has made from the late wicked and diabolical Conspiracy which was formed against your Life and Government. We have peculiar Satisfaction in reflecting, that, through the Whole of your benign and auspicious Reign, we have had Cause to adore the Wisdom and Goodness of Almighty God in protecting your sacred Person alike from the Attacks of the Infanc, and the Daggers of Traitors and Assassins.

That your Majesty and your Descendants, to the latest Ages, may continue to dispense to an affectionate People the Blessings which we have enjoyed under your mild and parental Government, is our most earnest and fervent Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said City, in the Name and Presence, and by Appointment, of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the said City, in Council assembled, at Glasgow, the Fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years, by Lau. Craigie, Provost.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late dangerous Conspiracy, aimed against the sacred Person of your Majesty, and the Government and Constitution of the Country.

Impressed as we are with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and excellent Government, directed at all Times to the Maintenance and Support of every Measure essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects, we reflect with no less Astonishment than Horror that Persons should be found who could for a Moment entertain Designs so hostile to their Sovereign and their Country.

As faithful and loyal Subjects, affectionately attached to our King and Constitution, we cannot but admire the Wisdom and Justice of the Law, and of your Majesty's Councils, in having made such wicked and dangerous Traitors the Instruments of public Example and Determent to others; but as all human Means may fall short of defeating the Machinations of designing Men, when resolutely and impiously bent on Mischief, we devoutly implore that the same watchful Hand of the Almighty, which has so often, and so signally, preserved your Majesty amidst Dangers equally alarming and threatening, may continue its Protection and Care over a Life so intimately connected with the dearest Rights and Interests, and Happiness of us all. And under the same kind Providence may this and every other Country under your Majesty's Dominion be for ever effectually defended against those vile Principles, and their attendant Calamities, which its Enemies have been plotting, and insidiously endeavouring, to introduce, to the Subversion of our present happy Establishment.

Given under our Common-Seal this Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Francis Burton and John Atkins Wright, Esqrs. Representatives for the City of Oxford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations of our Countrymen for the happy Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person from the late treasonable Conspiracy.

We earnestly and humbly hope that Providence will mercifully continue its tutelary Care over your Majesty's Life and Health, and with them confirm in your Royal Breast the like Disposition, Resolution, and Activity for the Maintenance of our Constitution, civil and religious, as have so long secured the Applause, and rivetted the affectionate Attachment, of a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common-Seal this Fourth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your antient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, ever eager to evince our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the Escape of your Majesty from a vile and horrid Conspiracy.

We greatly lament that at this Period there should be found any of our Countrymen so wanting in Gratitude and Affection to the best of Sovereigns, or so deficient in Veneration for our most glorious Constitution, as to endeavour to disseminate those detestable Principles, which have proved so adverse to the Happiness of Mankind, so destructive of all true Liberty.

Deeply, however, impressed with your Majesty's paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, and feeling confident in the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, we cherish the Hope that, through the Goodness of Divine Providence, your Majesty will, in Tranquillity and Happiness, long be enabled to extend the Blessings of your Reign to a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common-Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said Borough, the Eighth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

James Gint, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington and J. Smith, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, beg Permission to offer your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the recent Escape of your Majesty from a most foul and diabolical Conspiracy, aimed at the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Person, as well as at the Subversion of the British Constitution.

Fully impressed with the Magnitude of the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we view with inexpressible Horror and Concern the Existence in the British Dominions of the smallest Remains of those Principles which have caused so much Misery in Europe; we trust, however, that the just Punishment which, under the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, has awaited the traitorous Conspirators, will call back to Loyalty the few of your Majesty's Subjects who, by Plots and Machinations, may have been seduced from their Duty and Allegiance.

Be assured, most gracious Sovereign, of our invariable Attachment to your Majesty, as well as to that Constitution under which it is our Pride and Happiness to live, and which, we trust, will be handed down to our Posterity unchanged and unimpaired.

That the Almighty will be pleased to shower down every Blessing upon your Majesty, and long preserve to your People the Life of their much-beloved and gracious Sovereign, are the unceasing Prayers of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the said Borough.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington and J. Smith, Esq.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Dean and Canons of the Free Chapel of St. George, within the Castle of Windsor, approach your Majesty with Sentiments of sincere and devout Gratitude to God for the Protection recently afforded to your Majesty's Person.

The indignant Horror which this late Conspiracy against your Majesty's Life has excited in the Breast of every honest Man, is mixed with Grief and Shame that the Conspirators should have been found among the Subjects of this free and happy Country.

It is not, Sir, the Language of Adulation, it is a plain Truth, that your Majesty's Virtues, public and private, have secured to you in the fullest Measure the Love and Veneration of your People. Your Majesty has no Enemy among them, but the Enemy of the Constitution in Church and State: And we have full Confidence that, whilst your Majesty's paternal Care watches over the Safety of this venerable Fabric, it will always be found sufficiently strong to furnish to your Majesty a Bulwark, impregnable alike to foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors.

The numberless Advantages which we daily experience under the Shade of your Majesty's mild and virtuous Government suggest to us Motives of Interest as well as Duty for imploring a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life. And whilst we humbly supplicate this Blessing for ourselves, we are not less solicitous for every Event that may contribute to the Happiness of your Royal Person, the Welfare of your illustrious Family, the Splendor of your Throne, and the Prosperity of your Empire.

[Presented by the Dean and Canons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to join the general Voice of our Country in offering our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, formed against your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we express our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty Power which hath shielded your Majesty from the Danger which threatened you, we cannot forbear to lament that any Portion of your Majesty's Subjects should have been so deluded by the insidious Arts of evil-designing Persons, and rendered so blind to their own Happiness, as to project their Country's Ruin, by meditating a Blow against the Life of a Monarch who hath so long reigned in the Hearts of a grateful People.

May the same Divine Goodness, which hath brought to Light this horrid Conspiracy, long, very long, preserve your Majesty's sacred Life; on which, we are deeply sensible, so essentially depend the Happiness of your Subjects, and the Safety, Honor, and Welfare of your Dominions.

Given under our Common-Seal this First Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

W. W. Bolton, Mayor.

[Presented by Earl Fitzwilliam, High Steward; Samuel Thornton, and John Staniforth, Esqrs. Members for Hull.]

All that capital new-erected Messuage or Dwelling-House, situate in the Township of Aighton, in the said County of Lancaster, on the Banks of the River Hodder, with the Barns, Stables, Cow-Houses, and other Outbuildings, Gardens, and Orchards, thereto belonging:

And also all that Building, now used as a Cotton-Mill or Factory, called Stonyhurst-Mill, situate on the Banks of the River Hodder, and adjoining to the said Messuage or Dwelling-House, together with Cawl or Dam covering Forty-five Yards of Land, and a large Weir of Eight Feet Four Inches high, or thereabouts, across the said River Hodder, from which there is a Fall of Water of Sixteen Feet:

And also all those Twenty-five Cottages and a Farm-House, now divided into Three Cottages, and suitable Outbuildings, and several Closets, Fields, and Parcels of Land, in Aighton aforesaid, containing in the Whole Seventy-six Acres, Two Roods and Sixteen Perches, or thereabouts; the above Factory is Five Stories in Height, Eighty-one Feet in Length, and Twenty-six Feet and a Half in Breadth within the Walls:
