St. James's, March 10, 1803.

THIS Day the Reverend Doctor Landon, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Oxford; the Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor, High Steward of the University; the Reverend Mr. Rodd and the Reverend Mr. Wetherell, the Two Proctors; and the Delegates appointed by the University to attend on this Occasion, together with the Viscounts Mountjoy, Hinton, Dupplin, Lewisham, and Elrington; Lords Newton, Cranston, and Rodney; Mr. Ward, Mr. Nevill, Mr. Allen, and Mr. Turner, Members of the University, all in their proper Academical Habits; and accompanied by the Archbishop of Dublin, the Marquis of Titchfield, the Bishops of Durham, Winchester, and Oxford, Sir William Dolben, Bart. one of the Members for the University, and several other Noblemen and Gentlemen who were educated at the University, waited upon the King, to present to His Majesty the following Address of Congratulation on the recent Detection and Defeat of a most atrocious Conspiracy against His Majesty's sacred Person, and the civil and religious Establishments of this Kingdom:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincere and cordial Congratulations on the recent Detection and Defeat of a most unnatural Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the civil and religious Establishment of this Kingdom.

The signal Protection which, in this as well as former Instances, the good Providence of God hath vouchsafed to your Majesty, your Royal House, and to the People of this Realm, justly demands our devoutest Praise and Thanksgiving.

Anxious as we are, and ever must be, in these Seats of Learning, to inculcate the sound Principles of true Religion as the best and surest Basis of Fidelity, Loyalty, and every moral and political Duty, we cannot but reflect with peculiar Detesta-tion and Abhorrence on that consummate Depravity of Heart, which, in Defiance of every divine and human Obligation, could have formed Designs so malignant and atrocious, even amidst all the Advantages of your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and under the fullest Enjoyment of our free and happy Constitution.

We are earnestly desirous of renewing to your Majesty our Assurances of faithful and unalterable Attachment: Nor shall we ever cease to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God that he would preserve and prolong a Life so important, as that of your Majesty, to the dearest Interests of your People; and that, under your Majesty and your Royal House, he would be graciously pleased to continue to our latest Posterity the invaluable Blessings we now enjoy in the Exercise of our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with peculiar Satisfaction your affectionate Congratulations on this fresh Instance of the Divine Protection, which I, in common with My People, have experienced in the Detection and Defeat of a most desperate and atrocious Design to involve our established Constitution, together with the great and manifold Blessings we derive from it, in one general Destruction. It is upon your constant and faithful Exertions to instil into the rising Generation true Principles of Religion and Virtue, that the Permanency of these Blessings must greatly depend; and in these your laudable Endeavours, you may confidently rely on the Continuance of My Favour and Protection.

St. James's, March 16, 1803.

THIS Day the Reverend Doctor Sumner, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge; Doctor Pearce, Doctor Jowett, Doctor Ingle, the Reverend Mr. Burrell, Mr. Broderick, the Reverend Mr. Sumpter, the Reverend Mr. Walker, being the Delegates appointed by the University; attended by Mr. Beverley, Esquire Beadle; accompanied by Lord Percy, Lord Clonmel, Lord

John Fitzroy, Lord Burgherft, Lord Primrose, Lord Royfton, Lord Pollington, Lord Henry Moore, Lord Headley, Residents in the Univerfity; and attended by the Earl of Eufton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Univerfity; Earl Westmoreland, Earl Spencer, Lord Ellenborough, Lord Alvanley, Lord Brownlow, Lord Offulfton, Lord Leffie, Lord Hinchinbrook, Lord St. Helens; Bifhops of Ely, Bath and Wells, Chichefter, Chefter, Rochetter, and Bristol; Right Honorable Sir William Wynn, the Attorney and Solicitor General, the Secretary at War, the Honorable Mr. Cuff, the Honorable Mr. Dundas, the Honorable and Reverend Mr. Wellesley; Doctors Davis, (Provost of Eton,) Heath, Rhudde, Raine, Wilgrefs, Bell, Jenkin, Annesley, (Mafter of Downing College,) Fisher, Territt, Leycefter, and Adams; and about Two Hundred other Noblemen and Gentlemen, who were educated at the Univerfity, waited upon the King, and prefented the following moft dutiful and loyal Addrefs:

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addrefs of the Chancellor, Mafters, and Scholars, of the Univerfity of Cambridge.

Moft Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Mafters, and Scholars of your Univerfity of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmeft Congratulatory upon the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious, desperate, and determined Conſpiracy againft your Majesty's Royal Perfon. It is, however, with the deepeft Concern, and with the utmoft Detestation we reflect, that thefe wicked Machinations, originating in the baſeft Principles, were directed to the Subverſion of every Thing, which ought to have been held moft valuable and dear to all Subjects, faithful to the true Interests of their Country, to their Conſtitution, and their King.

After a Life uniformly devoted to our general Welfare and Happinefs, it might have been expected that no Man would have proved himſelf ſo hardened, ſo daring in traitorous Projects, as to aim at the Deſtruction of the auguſt and beloved Father of his People, moſt juſtly endeared to us by every ſacred Tie. But ſince, from ſome late Inſtances, it is unhappily too evident, that, under the moſt artful Diſguiſe, the worſt Intentions have been concealed, every Individual muſt readily concur in his ſteady and earneſt Endeavours to avert ſuch alarming Dangers; and, while he conſults for the Security of his Sovereign, to promote the ſureſt Means for his own Safety and the univerſal Good. Actuated by theſe Motives, among the moſt faithful of your Subjects, ſhall we of this Body, to whoſe Care is intruſted the important Charge, never ceaſe to inculcate into the Minds of our Youth every ſound Maxim of Loyalty and Obedience. And, as we have ever hitherto been guided by theſe Principles, ſo we may farther hope to render a Service acceptable to your Majesty, by adhering in future to the ſame Rule for our Conduct. Thus, we truſt will our invariable Attachment to our King, our honeſt Zeal in the Support of the Conſtitution, united with the Maintenance of Religion and the Advancement of Literature and Science, be beſt proved by our Exertions in impreſſing on all, true Ideas of the ineffimable Advantages, which we now enjoy.

May that Providence, who moſt ſeaſonably hath warded off a dark and deteſtable Conſpiracy, ſtill guide the Minds of your prudent, vigilant, and active Counſellors to the timely Detection of ſuch treaſonable and horrid Deſigns. May your Majesty long experience from all your Subjects, the moſt cordial Proofs of Affection, Fidelity, and Loyalty. And may they ever ſhow themſelves able and willing to ſupport on every Occaſion, their lawful Government, the Purity of their Religion, the Proſperity of their Country, and the Security of the beſt of Sovereigns.

To which Addrefs His Majesty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Answer:

I Return you My Thanks for your affectionate Congratulatory upon this freſh Inſtance of the Divine Protection which has been vouchſafed to us; and I receive with the higheſt Satisfaction your Expreſſion of the Horror and Detestation, which ſo wicked and unnatural a Deſign to deſtroy our inſeparable and common Interests, has ſo juſtly excited in your Minds.

You may rely on the Continuance of My Favour and Protection in Support of your uniform and laudable Exertions to promote in the riſing Generation the Principles of ſound Learning and true Religion.

St. James's, March 16, 1803.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majesty was pleaſed to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majesty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Dublin, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulatory to your Majesty upon your late ſignal Escape from the Devices of a Band of wicked Conſpirators.

When we contemplate your Majesty's Royal Virtues, we muſt feel, in common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the utmoſt Abhorrence at this recent and deteſtable Conſpiracy: But whiſt our Indignation is ſo juſtly excited againſt the Authors and Abettors of it, we cannot but admire this freſh Inſtance of the Interpoſition of Divine Providence in protecting the beſt of Kings from the meditated Attack of the Traitor and Aſſaſſin.

For the long Continuance of your Majesty's Life in Health and Happinefs, we, with all your faithful Subjects, do moſt fervently pray; convinced that, in obtaining that Bleſſing, we ſhall enjoy the beſt Security for all the Advantages of civil and religious Liberty enſured to us by our glorious Conſtitution.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common-Seal of ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, the Eighth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Preſented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

We most humbly return Thanks to the Almighty for the Mercy vouchsafed to us by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects; and we most devoutly implore a Continuance of Safety and Protection to your Royal Person and Family, on which the Welfare of these Kingdoms so much depends.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, unite in the general Voice of National Joy and Congratulation at your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the malignant Designs of the late traitorous Conspiracy levelled against the Safety of your Royal Person, and intended to subvert our invaluable Constitution. We contemplate with equal Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity, and return the most fervent Thanks to that overruling Providence, which influenced and directed your Majesty's Councils to the Detection of so foul a Treason. May that same Guardian Providence still continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Life; and may you long reign the King, the Friend, and the Father of a free, loyal, and united People.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said City the Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the Machinations of designing Traitors, whose sole Aim was the Destruction of our happy Constitution, Religion, and Laws.

We humbly return Thanks for the Mercy vouchsafed in the Discovery of one of the most detestable Plots that could be devised, and by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects; and we earnestly implore the Almighty to continue his Care and Protection over your Royal Person and Family, on which the Welfare and Happiness of the Empire at large so materially depend.

Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave most heartily to congratulate your Majesty, on your signal and providential Escape from the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy, which aimed at the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and the Subversion, by Force, of our free, happy, and inestimable Constitution.

We cannot possibly contemplate the public Conduct and private Virtues of your Majesty, without feeling the utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Design against a Life, endeared to us by the Experience of the many Blessings we have pre-eminently enjoyed during the Reign of a Sovereign, whose Government has been marked by the greatest Mildness, and constant Attention to the public Welfare; and we are confident that those wicked and traitorous Machinations have justly excited the utmost Indignation, and their happy and timely Discovery and Defeat, have diffused the greatest Joy through every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

For ourselves, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government, and to the Constitution, as by Law established; and to express our ardent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, and in future be undisturbed by any Conspiracies or Attempts against your Majesty and our excellent Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, at this Time, humbly to approach your sacred Person, under a deep Sense of the great Importance of your Majesty's valuable Life to the Happiness and Prosperity of these your Kingdoms, and to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the late Detection and Disappointment of one of the most detestable Plots which the Wickedness of infatuated and misguided Individuals could have conspired to execute; a Conspiracy that, while it afforded lamentable and additional Proofs of the horrid Principles with which these Men were actuated, was equally destructive of all Civil and Religious Liberty.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, permit us humbly to assure your Majesty of the Continuance of our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and that we are determined to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, firm and unchanged, the happy Constitution of these Kingdoms.

That your Majesty's precious and invaluable Life may long, very long, be preserved as a signal Blessing to your People and Kingdoms, and that all your Subjects may learn to imitate that illustrious Example both of public and private Virtue so conspicuously set before them by your Majesty, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave humbly to present to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations upon the timely and providential Discovery and Detection of the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and upon the Facility as well as Certainty with which, by the Vigilance and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers, and the able and upright Administration of Justice in the Execution of the Laws, the nefarious Plans and Purposes of infatuated and desperate Individuals can be frustrated, and they themselves consigned to ignominious and merited Punishment.

Whatever has a Tendency to subvert our established Laws, and to introduce Anarchy, whereby your Majesty's precious Life might be endangered, and the Blessings of Peace and social Order interrupted, we ever did and ever will hold in Detestation and Abhorrence.

Permit us, Sire, on this Occasion to renew and repeat our Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our inviolable Attachment to your august Family, and to that inestimable Constitution and Form of Government under which we have the Happiness to live.

Given under our Common-Seal the Fourth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Hartley, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, beg Leave to approach the Throne of your Majesty, with our humble, but sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's recent most fortunate Escape from an atrocious and desperate Conspiracy; we contemplate, with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, the Enormity of the Design as well as the Circumstances of aggravated and unexampled Wickedness that marked its projected Execution; we truly regret that there should be found, among those who daily partake of the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, Persons sufficiently depraved to imagine and concert so execrable an Attempt; and in common with all your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, we unite in offering up our grateful Thanks to the Divine Providence who has defeated and brought to light those atrocious Designs which had for their Object to involve, with the Destruction of a beloved Sovereign, the Subversion of our Laws, the Overthrow of our Liberties, and the utter Annihilation of our happy Constitution.

That the sacred Person of your Majesty may ever be preserved both from the Attacks of open Enemies, and the secret Machinations of Traitors, that, secure in the Affections of your People, you may long remain the Guardian and Protector of their Laws and Liberties, and continue to exhibit a bright and illustrious Example of public and private Virtue, is the ardent and unceasing Prayer of the loyal Corporation of this ancient and honorable City.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council-Chamber, this Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir Richard Gamon, Bart. and Sir H. P. S. Mildmay, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the recent atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your most sacred Person and illustrious Family.

We contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation a Design pregnant with such extensive Mischief, and which aimed at the Subversion of our most excellent Constitution, and therewith the Laws, Liberties, and Happiness which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Reign.

At the same Time we acknowledge, with the most profound Gratitude, the merciful Interposition of Almighty God in having thus signally frustrated such wicked and unnatural Designs, and in having protected a Life endeared to us by the paternal Care and Affection, and by the anxious Interest and Concern, which your Majesty has invariably manifested for the Prosperity and Happiness of your People.

Animated with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Loyalty, and of our sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our determined Resolution to support and maintain inviolate our free and happy Constitution.

We feel and acknowledge, with humble Gratitude, the special Favor of Divine Providence, which has preserved to this United Kingdom, a Sovereign, who has made our Happiness the chief Object of his Reign, and whose Life has afforded to his Subjects an illustrious Example of every Virtue.

We earnestly renew the Assurances of our Loyalty to your Majesty, of our zealous and faithful Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and of our Readiness to defend and guard to the utmost, your Majesty's invaluable Life against the Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the Machinations of domestic Traitors.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ANIMATED by the deepest Sense of the Divine Mercy manifested in the Defeat of the late atrocious Conspiracy, we your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, presume to offer our most fervent Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Escape.

Sensible as we are of the Blessings enjoyed during a long and mild Reign, we feel unfeigned Detestation of those wicked Plans which threatened the sacred Life of our beloved Monarch, and the Existence of our invaluable Constitution.

We are too well convinced of the inestimable Value of that Life to the best Interests of the United Kingdom not to join in the general Indignation roused against the Projectors of so foul a Treason, and we hasten to add to the Voice of our Fellow-Subjects our Declarations of the most sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

May your Majesty continue to reign in the Hearts of Britons, and may that Almighty Power which hath hitherto protected you through so many Dangers and Difficulties, vouchsafe to hear our Prayers for the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the Preservation of our glorious Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Berks, do offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the discovering and frustrating one of the most abominable Plots which the Wickedness of misguided Individuals could imagine against the sacred Life of your Majesty and our glorious Constitution; and do assure your Majesty that we conceive this mischievous Plot was equally destructive of all practical, moral, and civil Liberty; and that we are fully sensible, that, in the Preservation of your Majesty's Person, and of your august Family, the dearest Interests of this Kingdom are deeply concerned.

Daniel Agace, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, humbly approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Person and Government, and with Gratitude to God for the late Preservation of your Majesty, and the Constitution of the United Kingdom, from the desperate Designs of a Conspiracy, which, by the Vigilance of a wife and active Administration, has been most providentially detected and defeated.

When we reflect on the Privileges enjoyed by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects under your Majesty's benign and mild Reign, we are filled with Astonishment and Indignation that there should have existed an Individual in the Kingdom who should have harboured even a Thought injurious to the best of Kings, and to a Constitution which stands unrivalled throughout the World.

We cannot but hope that the well-timed Interposition of our impartial Laws will bring to a true Sense of their Duty and Allegiance those misguided Men (if any such remain) who may have listened to editious and ill-disposed Persons, whose Designs pointed to the Overthrow of Church and State.

May it please the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty under his gracious Protection, to be a Blessing and an Example to a free, united, and faithful People.

James Taylor, Sheriff of the County of Oxford.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, assembled at the Common-Hall of the said County, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of a wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

To express to your Majesty our Horror and Detestation of so atrocious a Design to destroy a free and happy Constitution, by an Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Life, a Life rendered invaluable to us by your Majesty's Virtues in these Times of Difficulty and Danger, when we labour under the Effects of those flagitious Principles, which are alike subversive of the Duties of private Life, of legitimate Authority, of public Order, and Civil Liberty.

That whilst we trust that the Punishment which has been inflicted upon the Conspirators will have the Effect of preventing traitorous Machinations in future, we acknowledge with the utmost Thankfulness and Humility the Interposition of Almighty God, who in detecting and defeating those wicked Designs has afforded your Majesty a fresh Instance of that All-powerful Protection upon which your Majesty has invariably placed your Reliance.

To assure your Majesty that it is our fixed Resolution, as it is our sacred Duty, to defend and protect your Majesty's Person, and to second your Majesty's uniform Endeavours to maintain and preserve that excellent Constitution under which this Kingdom has so long flourished, and to transmit it unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Detection of those Traitors who have lately suffered the just and necessary Punishment of their Crimes.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, the Goodness of Providence in again preserving your Majesty's sacred and invaluable Life from the Hand of the Assassin; and we contemplate with Horror and Indignation the persevering Malignity of a few desperate and disappointed Men, whose Objects are not more destructive of all social Order and Happiness, than the Means they would employ are base, sanguinary, and flagitious.

We, however, feel the greatest Consolation in observing that every Attempt against your Majesty's Person and Government has uniformly called for the most unequivocal Demonstrations of Loyalty and Affection from all Orders of your Majesty's Subjects; and we fervently pray that, if the Spirit from whence these atrocious Designs originated, be not wholly extinguished, the experienced Vigilance of your Majesty's Government, aided by the zealous Co-operation of the loyal Part of the Community, may effectually deter the most inveterate Enemies of the Constitution from a Renewal of such Attempts.

On Behalf of the County,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hertford, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person, and to express our common Joy at your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the wicked and malicious Designs of your Enemies. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are not more sensible of the many Miseries and Misfortunes which would have been entailed upon this Country, if those treasonable, murderous and revolutionary Plans had been carried into Execution than we are of the Blessings and Advantages we at present enjoy under your Majesty's mild and protective Government.

We hope and trust that the just and awful Sentence of the Law which has brought the Conspirators as they deserved, to an ignominious Death, will convince others that the same Fate awaits them if they persevere longer in the same wicked Plans against the Constitution of our Country in Church and State. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready to protect and defend your Royal Person, alike in War or in Peace against open or secret Enemies. Should any foreign Force again dare to act in Hostility to your Majesty, we are ready to rally round your Throne, to avenge your Wrongs, or to bury ourselves in one Grave with the Honor of your Crown and Independence of these Kingdoms.

Should desperate Traitors again dare to conspire against your Royal Person, your Family, or Government, we shall exert our utmost Vigilance to discover, defeat, and discomfit them, and to drag them to that speedy and condign Punishment which the Wisdom and Justice of the Law inflicts upon such heinous Offenders.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to offer our sincere and warm Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of the late detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with a true Sense of the Blessings we derive from the British Constitution, so justly an Object of Admiration and Envy to the World, and by which Liberty and Property are secured and guarded to all, we have seen with Horror and Indignation a Plot laid for its Subversion and Overthrow by some desperate and insatuated Wretches, who, insensible of the Blessings we enjoy, wickedly and audaciously conspired against their Sovereign and his Government, and unmoved by the recent dreadful Scenes exhibited in a neighbouring Country, intended to introduce Anarchy, with all the dreadful Miseries attending it, into this happy Kingdom. We are comforted, however, by the Reflection that their wicked Machinations have been timely detected, and the Traitors themselves brought to condign Punishment.

We most fervently pray Almighty God that your Majesty may long reign beloved and revered by your People as their Father and their Sovereign; and that every traitorous Design against your precious Life, and our excellent Constitution, may meet with similar Detection and Punishment.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to renew our often-repeated Assurances that we will defend your Majesty and your Government with our Lives and Fortunes against all your Enemies; and that we will exert ourselves to the utmost of our Ability to bring to Light, and defeat, any traitorous Attempt to disturb the public Peace, or to excite Sedition among your Majesty's Subjects.

In the Name, and by the Appointment of a General Meeting assembled at Dumfries, this Third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years. John Murray, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgessees, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our most unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's signal and providential Escape from that wicked and detestable Conspiracy so lately projected against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and for the Subversion of that happy Constitution which for Ages has secured to us the Blessings of Freedom; admiring those aimable Virtues which adorn the sacred Character of your Majesty, we are impelled to express our most ardent Wishes that your Majesty (undisturbed by the diabolical Machinations of Traitors,) may long reign over a free, happy, and prosperous People. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Sentiments of Loyalty to the Person of your Majesty, and Reverence for those Laws by which the Perpetrators of the late horrid Conspiracy have been brought to condign and exemplary Punishment, a Punishment which we earnestly hope and trust will operate as a powerful Example to others, and check the Extension of those destructive Principles, which are subversive of all social Order and good Government; and it is our most earnest Prayer, that our invaluable Constitution, of which your Majesty is the Head, may be transmitted to the latest Posterity unchanged and unimpaired.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

THE Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgessees, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, humbly approach your Royal Presence with their unalterable Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, increasing always as your Majesty's Claims to universal Gratitude and Praise increase.

Great and perfect as is our Joy on your Majesty's Escape from the diabolical Attempts of maddening Conspirators, it cannot be unattended with Indignation and Regret that a Country, ever celebrated for its Valour, Honor, and Humanity, should give Birth to Wretches fit only to wander through inhospitable Deserts, and mingle with Beasts of Prey!

Watching with impatient Solitude the Progress of our grossly violated Laws against the late convicted Traitors, we admired the solemn Candour and Impartiality of a Trial which occupied the Attention of all Europe, and interested almost the whole known World; and we cannot avoid expressing our entire Satisfaction and perfect Approbation of the ultimate Issue of an Inquisition so indispensibly necessary and important for the Safety of a most beloved Monarch, to the Prosperity of your Dominions, and to the future Prospects of Freedom of distant Nations.

Such repeated Tokens of an Omnipotent Protector of your Royal Person and illustrious Family, must give fresh Dignity to the sacred Character you bear, must animate our fondest Hope, and sanctify our earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may long live and reign the Pride and Happiness of your People.

Frederick Breton, late Mayor.

[Presented by James Anyatt, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town and County, attended by the Right Honorable George Rose.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, and the Parts adjacent, in the Town-Hall of the said Borough assembled, humbly beg Leave, with one Accord, to congratulate your Majesty on the late providential Discovery and Defeat of a dark, wicked, and desperate Conspiracy aimed at your Majesty's Life, the Destruction of your august Family, and the Overthrow of our most invaluable Constitution and Government, as by Law established, the Pride and Glory of every true Englishman, and the Admiration of surrounding Nations, for the Preservation and Maintenance whereof, and of your sacred Majesty's Person, with Hearts full of Affection and Gratitude we offer up our Thanks to the Almighty, and are ready to risk all that is dear and valuable to us in this Life.

At the same Time we cannot forbear from expressing our warmest Acknowledgments to your Majesty's Ministers, and those intrusted with the Administration of the Laws, for the mild, temperate, and constitutional Course they have pursued, in bringing to Justice the principal Leaders and Abettors of so nefarious and diabolical a Conspiracy.

We humbly assure your Majesty, (notwithstanding these vile Traitors held some of their Meetings for the above horrid Purpose in this Vicinity,) that nowhere in your Majesty's United Kingdom does there exist more Loyalty, Veneration, and Attachment to your sacred Person, and your illustrious Family and Government, than in the Hearts of those who now ardently congratulate your Majesty on the present Occasion.

May the supreme Dispenser of all Things guard and protect your Majesty's sacred Person from all Dangers, and your Majesty long continue to reign with Felicity over a loyal, dutiful, and affectionate People; and may the Sceptre (as a Blessing to Posterity) continue to latest Generations in your Majesty's illustrious House.

Florance Young, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough.

May it please your Majesty,

GRACIOUSLY to accept the humble Expressions of the Joy your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Borough and Town of Marlborough, feel on the complete Failure of a traitorous Attempt to destroy at one Blow your People's Happiness, which has ever been your Majesty's anxious and unremitting Care.

Turning with the most abhorrent Detestation from Treason, though humbled to find any British Breast open to so foul a Crime, we lift up thankful Hearts that your Majesty's invaluable Life is still Heaven's Boon to your Dominions, and a Pledge for the Preservation of our Religion and Laws. May the sacred Persons of your Majesty, and of our gracious Queen, with your whole Royal Family, ever be protected by Divine Providence, whose Goodness, we earnestly hope, will permit us to live and die under your Majesty's most gracious and paternal Rule.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Bruce and James Henry Leigh, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that Borough and Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy of both Provinces of that Part of the United Kingdom called England.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy of both Provinces of that Part of your Majesty's United Kingdom called England, beg Permission to approach your Royal Presence to express our humble and most cordial Congratulations upon the providential Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

In every Plot which (we recollect with Horror) has been formed against your Majesty's invaluable Life, we are persuaded the Peace and Tranquillity which your Kingdom enjoys under your Majesty's auspicious Government, has been the ultimate Object of the Traitor's Malice. In the Preservation of your Majesty, the good Providence of God hath graciously preserved to us our happy Constitution in Church and State, of which your Majesty is, under God himself, the surest Support and Stay.

We trust the earnest Prayers will still be heard, which we cease not to offer daily to the Throne of Mercy, for the long Continuation of your Majesty's Life, and for the Safety of your Person, and for the Maintenance of your Royal Descendants on the Throne of this Kingdom, to be the Guardians of its Religion and its Laws for endless Generations.

[Presented by the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with Assurances of unfeigned Joy and heartfelt Satisfaction at your Majesty's late Escape from the furious Malice of a Band of daring and desperate Traitors.

With inexpressible Horror we reflect on the Danger to which your Majesty has been exposed, and on the atrocious Wickedness of those who could resolve to raise their impious Hands against a Prince who has such powerful Claims on the Affection and Gratitude, as well as on the Duty, of his People.

In this new and signal Instance of your Majesty's Preservation, we recognize, with grateful Devotion, the continued Favour of that gracious Being, who has so often interposed for your Deliverance from the most awful and imminent Dangers; and we most earnestly implore that Being still to watch over and preserve your invaluable Life, to defend and prosper your Government, and to prolong, for many Years, a Reign which has been distinguished by an unexampled Display of every Virtue, public and private, in the Person of the Sovereign, and which has proved one of the choicest Blessings bestowed by Providence on this highly-favoured Nation.

We cannot quit your Majesty's Royal Presence without availing ourselves of this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that, in the Discharge of our Functions as Magistrates, we will exert our utmost Endeavours to discover and frustrate all seditious Conspiracies, and to guard a Life so deservedly dear to all your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

[Presented by William Mainwaring, Esq; Chairman of the Sessions.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Justices of the Peace for the Liberty of your Majesty's Tower of London, in Session assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of this United Kingdom.

If abundant Evidence had not rendered it impossible to deny the Fact, it could hardly have been conceived that your Majesty, distinguished as your Majesty has ever been for Clemency, for making the Laws of this Realm the Rule of your Government, and for Affection towards the Land which gave your Majesty Birth, could have had an Enemy, or the Constitution a Foe.

Convinced, as we are, that traitorous Principles have been industriously disseminated amongst the People, we shall pay the most unremitting Attention to preserve the Peace of the District which your Majesty has been pleased to confide to our Care, to prevent the Formation of Plots, and to check the Progress of Conspiracies.

Under these Impressions of Allegiance and Duty, we request Permission to assure your Majesty of our loyal Attachment; and we do most earnestly beseech Almighty God to continue his Protection to your Majesty, and to shield your Majesty's Royal House against either the insidious Artifices of secret Disaffection, or the daring Outrage of avowed Treason.

Signed by Order of the Magistrates in Session assembled,

Daniel Williams, Chairman of the Session.

[Presented by Sir Daniel Williams, Knt. Chairman, Colonel Matthew Smith, William Forstee, Esq; and William Blizard, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit us, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal College of Surgeons in London, to approach your Majesty, and to express the Joy and Satisfaction which we feel at the late providential Discovery and Overthrow of the atrocious Designs of wicked and desperate Men:

And while we acknowledge, with the most lively Gratitude, this benign and signal Interposition of Providence, in shielding the sacred Person of your Majesty, and our Laws and Liberties, from the Effects of their traitorous Intentions, to offer up our ardent Prayers, that our glorious Constitution may be protected against every Foreign and Domestic Enemy; and that your Majesty may long continue to reign the common Father of a free, a happy, and united People.

Given under our Common-Seal, at the College, this Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order of the Court of Assistants,

Okey Belfour, Secretary.

[Presented by Thomas Keate, Charles Blicke, and David Dundas, Esqrs. accompanied by Sir James Earl, John Heavyside and William Blizard, Esqrs.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of this ancient Corporation, presume to join in the general heartfelt Congratulation on the providential and timely Discovery and Prevention of the late horrid and wicked Design against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, participating with equal Joy and Gratitude, that the treasonable Machination was, through Divine Goodness, defeated.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to add our Assurances, that, to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, our Attachment remains firm and invariable; and that it is our earnest Prayer that the same kind Providence that has hitherto shielded your sacred Person, and preserved our happy Constitution and Laws, may continue thus to bless and unite this Kingdom to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common-Seal of the said Guild, the Seventh Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

James Dewitt and Thomas Burmby, Wardens.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings, beg Leave, most humbly to approach your Royal Presence.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the numerous Blessings we have enjoyed under our mild and excellent Constitution since your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, we heard with Astonishment and Horror of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, in common with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, to express our Indignation at such an atrocious Attempt to disturb the Tranquillity of your Kingdom, and receive from us the renewed Assurance of that entire Devotion and Attachment to your august Self and Family, which we have never ceased to cherish in ourselves, and which we shall transmit to our Children as their best Inheritance.

Given under our Common Seal, at Hastings, this Eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Mr. Milward, Mayor.]

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of your Majesty's Royal Burgh of Cupar Fife, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Sentiments of Veneration, Love, and Loyalty, and to express our Abhorrence of the late Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and which also aimed at the Destruction of our glorious Constitution. Truly grateful for the many inestimable Blessings that we have enjoyed during your Majesty's Reign, we most fervently pray Almighty God long to preserve a Life so truly valuable, and so essential to the Happiness of Millions of loyal and affectionate Subjects.

STONYHURST COTTON-MILL.

TO be sold by Auction, on Wednesday the 6th of April next, at the Bull's-Head Inn, in the Market-Place, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, before the major Part of the Commissioners appointed in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John Emett, of Stonyhurst, in the said County, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, subject to such Conditions as will be then and there produced,

All that capital new-erected Messuage or Dwelling-House, situate in the Township of Aighton, in the said County of Lancaster, on the Banks of the River Hodder, with the Barns, Stables, Cow-Houses, and other Outbuildings, Gardens, and Orchards, thereto belonging:

And also all that Building, now used as a Cotton-Mill or Factory, called Stonyhurst-Mill, situate on the Banks of the River Hodder, and adjoining to the said Messuage or Dwelling-House, together with Cawl or Dam covering Forty-five Yards of Land, and a large Weir of Eight Feet Four Inches high, or thereabouts, across the said River Hodder, from which there is a Fall of Water of Sixteen Feet:

And also all those Twenty-five Cottages and a Farm-House, now divided into Three Cottages and suitable Outbuildings, and several Closets, Fields, and Parcels of Land, in Aighton aforesaid, containing in the Whole Seventy-six Acres, Two Roods and Sixteen Perches, or thereabouts; the above Factory is Five Stories in Height, Eighty-one Feet in Length, and Twenty-six Feet and a Half in Breadth within the Walls:

And also all the Machinery in the said Cotton-Factory, consisting of Forty-four Spinning Frames, Forty-eight Spindles in each Frame, Twenty-seven Carding Engines, Two Stretching Frames, Ninety-six Spindles each, Six Drawing Frames, Four Boxes each, and Two Slabbing Frames, and a large new Water Wheel Ten Feet wide, and Eighteen Feet Six Inches high, Buckets Twenty-two Inches deep, which is in complete Repair, having been very little used.

The Cottages adjoin to the Factory, and are well adapted for the Residence of Persons employed there, and produce the yearly Rent of 2l. 12s. 6d. or thereabouts.

The above Premises are within Four Miles and a Half of Clithero, Ten Miles of Blackburn, and Thirty-one Miles of Manchester, and are most advantageously situated for the Purpose of carrying on a Cotton-Factory to any Extent, or for the Purpose of Printing or Bleaching, as the Grounds and Water for those Purposes are, perhaps, not to be equalled in the County.
