

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 19, to Tuesday March 22, 1803.

St. James's, March 16, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the recent Deliverance of your Royal Person from the Hands of avowed Violence, and your Kingdom from the dread Effects of atrocious Conspiracy.

We cannot but reverè these Blessings, as the continued Security of our dearest Interests, and deplore with just Indignation, the virulent Malignity of corrupted Hearts.

May the supreme Protection ever avert the Dangers of your sacred Person, and reveal, for just Judgment, the secret Sources of concerted Evils. Long may your Majesty thus safely rejoice in the Happiness of that Land, whose Sovereign's Ambition is the Welfare of his People, who conciliates their Affections by the Piety of Example, and reposes his Confidence in the Strength of Salvation.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City, the Twenty-eighth Day of February, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, for ourselves, and in Name of the Community of the City, with grateful Thanks to Almighty God, beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the providential Discovery of the Designs of the late Traitors against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government. While we lament that Persons should be found, who, after experiencing the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, and contemplating the Virtues of your private Character, are capable of harbouring a Thought against your sacred Life, it must be a Source of real Satisfaction to your Majesty to reflect, that such Designs are never entertained but by Men of desperate and abandoned Characters:

and we hope that the late most just and necessary Examples will secure your Majesty from all secret Conspiracies; and that your Majesty's Virtues, and the Firmness of your Government, will ever prove insuperable Obstacles to their Success.

We further beg Leave to return our grateful Thanks to your Majesty for that Decision of Mind, which induced your Majesty to waive the Gratification of your own-merciful Disposition for the Safety and Happiness of your People.

Against the open Attacks of your Enemies foreign and domestic, we pledge ourselves and our Fellow-Citizens, in common with the Rest of your faithful People, to defend your Person and Family with our Lives and Fortunes.

Signed in Name, and in Presence of the Council, and by their Appointment, the Ninth Day of March, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three.

Niel Macvicar, Provost.

[Presented by the Lord Advocate of Scotland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled, impressed with the deepest Gratitude to the Great Disposer of Events, and with Thankfulness to the watchful Care of your Majesty's Ministers, humbly beg Leave to be amongst the first of our Fellow-Subjects in congratulating your Majesty upon your late providential Escape from those wicked and traitorous Plots so lately devised against your sacred Person, (and a Life of such Moment to the Peace and Repose of Europe, and to the best and dearest Interests of the British Empire,) as also for the Subversion of our Constitution, which is the Pride and Boast of Britons, and the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Believe, Royal Sir, that you have not any Subjects more loyal and attached to you than the Ci