St. James's, March 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Limerick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Limerick, deeply and unanimously impressed with a Sense of the great Benefits derived to us, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, from a mild Reign and just Government, under our excellent Constitution, most fervently deprecate every Thing that can endanger the Interruption of such Blessings.

Under these Impressions we beg Leave humbly to declare our unfeigned Joy at the Detection of a Conspiracy so daring and atrocious, as not even to be thought of without Horror, except by those in whom every Sentiment of Religion and Morality is effaced; and we rely on your Majesty's Benignity for accepting this our humble Acknowledgment of the Happiness we enjoy under the auspicious Reign of the best and most gracious of Sovereigns

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common-Seal of said City to be hereunto affixed, the Fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order,

Edward Parker, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, beg Leave to approach the Throne with pious Gratitude and joyful Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of a Conspiracy against the Royal Person and Government, as unwarranted and atrocious as ever disgraced the British Annals.

Having long experienced the paternal Care and sacred Love of Justice which have distinguished your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we must feel extreme Horror and Detestation at any Attempt to deprive us of Advantages so great and inestimable.

Under the special Providence of the Almighty,
the base and malignant Designs of a few desperate Traitors have been completely frustrated: In bringing them to condign Punishment, the Strength, Benignity, and impartial Administration of the Law were never more eminently conspicuous. Happily their wicked Machinations have caused the great Mass of the loyal to rally closer round the Throne; to bind stronger the Links of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to excite additional Veneration for that Constitution, which stands erect amidst the Convulsions of Europe, is the great Bulwark of rational Liberty, and an imperishable Record of political Wisdom.

We humbly entreat you, Sire, to be assured that we are from Affection, Duty, Principle, and Conviction unalterably attached to your Majesty's Person and Government. We devoutly wish that your Majesty's Life be extended to the longest Duration; that Tranquillity, Peace, Happiness, and Glory may invariably attend its Progress; that the Virtues of the Royal Mind may never cease to be acknowledged and revered by a free and loyal People, and their Example remembered and followed by your Majesty's latest Posterity.

Done at the Council Chamber of the City of Cork, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Richard Lane, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and unanimous Address of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Cork.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Cork, humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty our unfeigned Assurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family; and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late atrocious and diabolical Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Life and Government; to the mild and virtuous Influence of which we owe so many inestimable Blessings, and for the Preservation of which we shall ever be found ready zealously to contend against all your Majesty's Enemies.

Deeply sensible of the unceasing and paternal Solicitude of your Majesty for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, inviolably attached to our Constitution which we have had for so many Ages such just Cause to venerate; we view the late nefarious Attempt on both with indignant Detestation; and while we lament the Depravity that produced such enormous Guilt, we rejoice in the reasonable Detection of it, in the sober Triumph of impartial Justice, and in the prompt and due Execution of the Law.

Your Majesty, enthroned in the Hearts of a brave and free People, has nothing to apprehend from open Violence. And may that Providence who has hitherto manifested to your Majesty and the United Kingdom a peculiar Grace and Favour of Protection, be still your Safeguard and Succour; and when, after a long and prosperous Reign, it shall please Him to call you to your high Reward, may your Majesty's august Family continue to rule this great and flourishing Empire with new Accessions of Glory to the latest Posterity.

Signed on Behalf of the Freeholders,

Rob. De La Cour, High Sheriff of the County of Cork.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts full of the sincerest Gratitude to God, and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on the late providential Detection and Overthrow of the Designs of those wicked and insatuated Traitors, who, conspiring with the Enemies of our Constitution and Government, sought the utter Destruction of both without even sparing your Majesty's most sacred and invaluable Life.

Whilst we join in the general Voice of our Fellow-Subjects in declaring our utter Abhorrence of all such traitorous and detestable Proceedings, we cannot but applaud the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Councils in detecting and bringing the Authors of them to exemplary Punishment, which, we trust, through Divine Providence, will be the Means not only of frustrating the present Hopes and Designs of our Enemies, and preventing the future Attempts of those who seek to disturb the Tranquillity of our Country, and to destroy our happy Constitution and Liberties, but of establishing more firmly, if possible, your Majesty's Throne and Government in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and prosperous People.

Permit us, Sire, to add our Prayers to the great Sovereign of the Universe, that a Life so dear to us as that of your Majesty may long be preserved; and that the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy in the wise Administration of our Laws, and the Exercise of our Liberties, may, under the Protection of your Royal House, be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Borough this Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

W. Servant, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of affectionate Regard to your Majesty for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, and sensible of the invaluable Benefits we derive from our excellent Constitution, we beheld with Horror and Detestation the base and nefarious Plan for involving in one common Destruction the Objects of our dearest Interest, the Life of our Gracious Sovereign, and the Stability of our Constitution.

Anxious for the Welfare and Security of our Country, which is most closely connected with your Majesty's personal Safety, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity of renewing our Expressions of sincere Attachment and ardent Affection to your Majesty's Person; and we hope that the People of these Realms, living under your Majesty's parental Care, may long possess the Comforts and Blessings they have hitherto enjoyed.

Signed in Presence of and by the Appointment of the Meeting, James Clerk, Preses. Edinburgh, March 15, 1803.

[Presented by the Honorable R. Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT us, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, to unite with a free and grateful People in the most heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's late signal Escape from a daring and most atrocious Conspiracy, levelled against your Majesty's sacred Life and our invaluable Constitution; and to declare that we view with Horror and Detestation the diabolical Machinations that were lately so wickedly and deliberately planned to overwhelm the whole Nation in Ruin and Destruction.

May the powerful Hand of the Almighty, which has guided your Majesty securely through Circumstances of unparalleled Danger, continue to discover and defeat every hostile Attempt. Nor can we doubt, from our recent Experience of the Divine Goodness, that the same gracious Protection will still be extended to your Majesty's Person and to your Royal Family.

Given under the Common-Seal of the Corporation of New Romney, this Twelfth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns and Neighbourhood of Manchester and Salford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery, and effectual Suppression, of the late horrid Conspiracy, which aimed at the Safety of your Royal Person, threatened the Subversion of our excellent Constitution, and involved in its Consequences the Property and Existence of every Friend of social Order and legal Subordination. Inviolably attached to the revered Liberty and Security of this happy Country, and deeply sensible of the Blessings we have abundantly experienced under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot, without the strongest Sentiments of Abhorrence, contemplate the treasonable Designs and atrocious Purposes of those wretched Men, who would have deprived us of these inestimable Benefits. We acknowledge with grateful Hearts the protecting Hand of that Providence which has hitherto watched over your Majesty, and so signally preserved your invaluable Life in the Hour of Danger.

And we ardently pray that your Majesty may still continue the peculiar Care of Heaven; and that your illustrious Reign may be long extended over a loyal, a free, and united People.

Signed on Behalf of the Inhabitants of Manchester and Salford, and their Neighbourhood, pursuant to the Resolutions of a public Meeting held the Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Sam. Smith, Boroughreeve of Manchester.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Bolton-le-Moors and its Vicinity, anxious to join in the Congratulations of your faithful People upon the Discovery of a late most alarming Conspiracy, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and the Government of this Kingdom; with Expressions of our deep Abhorrence of that Guilt which would destroy the Security of both; and with the liveliest Gratitude to the Almighty for this and other Instances of his gracious Interposition in the Hour of Danger.

When it was the natural Wish of Britons, upon the Close of an arduous Contest, maintained with unfulfilled Glory, to enjoy and to improve the Blessing of Peace, we have Reason to lament that Principles, avowedly hostile to our Welfare and Existence, should still have been entertained, and have ripened into a Design of such atrocious Cruelty and such extensive Ruin. After the Miseries occasioned in other Countries by political Change and Confusion, after their vain Efforts to build a Fabric of Law and Liberty more perfect than ours, we are impressed with Astonishment as well as Indignation in retracing those Schemes of Self-Delusion and Wickedness, which would wade through general Slaughter to accomplish them. But we are particularly penetrated with Horror to hear of Men unaffected by the paternal Cares and mild Virtues of their Sovereign, unconvinced by the independent Patriotism of our public Councils, and boldly provoking the reluctant Severity of National Justice. While we feel for the Fate of such infatuated Beings, we cannot but turn with heartfelt Thankfulness to the Zeal and Assiduity of those who have seasonably prevented their nefarious Purpose; and we contemplate, with an Exultation only experienced by your Majesty's Subjects, the Candour, the Equity, and the Mercy of a British Judicature.

That the King of Kings, and the Almighty Disposer of Events, may thus frustrate every impious Attempt upon your Majesty's Safety, and the Safety of your august Family; that the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution may continue unimpaired and uncorrupted; that Loyalty, Liberty, and Virtue may ever inspire our united Endeavours to promote the Prosperity of this Kingdom, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Inhabitants of Bolton-le-Moors and its Vicinity.

Signed in Behalf of the Inhabitants of the said Town of Bolton and its Vicinity, by John Pilkington, Boroughreeve, Chairman.

[Presented by John Blackburn, Esq; and Colonel Stanley, Members for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers, of the City of Bristol.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, hasten to express our unfeigned Joy on the timely Detection and Discomfiture of the traitorous Designs of those deluded Men, who dared to conspire against the most sacred Person of your Majesty, and the revered Constitution over which you preside.

The Principles of false Liberty, in which this foul Conspiracy originated, we hold in the utmost Detestation; convinced that if ever they should prevail in these Kingdoms, they would bring with them the certain Overthrow of all Ranks and Distinctions, and of all social Order and good Government.

From these dreadful Evils may the Wisdom, Vigilance, and Energy of your Majesty's Councils still preserve us: And may that Divine Providence, which has never forsaken our beloved Sovereign in the Hour of Danger, continue to watch over his Safety, and extend to a yet distant Period his mild and auspicious Reign over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate People.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Charles Bragge and Evan Baillie, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Town of Stirling, beg Leave to offer your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the Discovery and Disappointment of the late nefarious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Constitution of these Kingdoms.

While we view such Attempts with the utmost Horror and Indignation, we desire to offer our warmest Gratitude to that benign Providence which, in the whole Course of your Majesty's eventful Reign, has been pleased to interpose so often in Behalf of your Majesty and the Nation, and amidst a Sea of Troubles has placed us in a State of Peace and Security, the Envy and Admiration of Mankind.

We embrace with great Satisfaction the present Opportunity of repeating our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our earnest Wishes that your Majesty may be long preserved for a Blessing to these Lands.

Signed in our Names, and by our Appointment, at the Town-House of Stirling, this Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years, John Glas, Provost.

[Presented by the Honorable Captain Cochrane, of the Royal Navy, Member for the said Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Youghall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town of Youghall, impressed with the purest and most unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late desperate Attempt on your Majesty's Life: And to assure your Majesty, that, though great and extensive as has so justly been the Joy through every Part of the United Empire on the happy Detection and Punishment of such diabolical Treason, in no Part of your Dominions has it been felt with Sentiments of more zealous and ardent Loyalty than by your Majesty's Subjects of this Town.

Whilst we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Detestation of so horrid a Conspiracy, which and for its Object the Subversion of our happy Constitution by the Destruction of a Life so inseparably connected with it, and so deservedly dear to your Subjects, we cannot too thankfully express our Gratitude to the Divine Mercy for this signal Interference in frustrating so diabolical a Machination; and we pray to the Almighty that your Majesty's Life may be long and happy, and that you may long continue to live in the Hearts and Affections of a People deeply sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and virtuous Reign.

Signed, by Order,

William Jenkins, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and other Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and other Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most loyal and unfeigned Congratulations, that, through the merciful Protection of Divine Providence, your Majesty's invaluable Life has been preserved from the execrable Designs of the late traitorous Conspirators.

Whilst the Recollection of their meditated Attempts fills our Minds with Detestation and Abhorrence, we feel astonished that one Heart so hard, or one Hand so daring, could be found in your Majesty's Dominions, as to aim at the Life of a Sovereign, no less endeared to his Subjects by his Piety and paternal Solicitude for their Welfare, than by his zealous Regard for their Liberties and National Honor, yet we trust that the same Almighty Hand, which has been heretofore so visibly and often extended to the Protection of good and godly Kings, will long preserve to us your Majesty in undiminished Health and Prosperity.

Signed, on Behalf of the Meeting,

Edward Tucker Steward, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Limerick, at Lent Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Limerick, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with those Sentiments of Veneration which we always feel, but which, in consequence of the dreadful Conspiracy lately formed in England against your sacred Person, we cannot now refrain from expressing.

Convinced, as we are, of the Blessings of your mild and liberal Reign, we consider the Happiness of your Subjects connected with your Preservation; and while we now zealously congratulate your Majesty on your happy Escape, we are sensible that we substantially congratulate every Member of your Dominions.

In gratefully acknowledging the numerous Benefits conferred on this County by your Majesty's paternal Care, we humbly hope it may not be improper to specify as one, the Nobleman whom you have in your Wisdom selected for the immediate Government of this Part of your United Empire, the salutary Effects of whose Councils have been generally felt, but most particularly in this County.

Bolton Waller, Sheriff.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Clare, assembled at Ennis, at Spring Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Clare, impressed with the most firm, zealous, and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and conscious that the same is the universal Sentiment of this loyal County, embrace the earliest Opportunity of offering to your Majesty our most humble and heartfelt Congratulation on the providential Detection and Defeat of the late wicked Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and our happy Constitution.

And we further beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready to devote our Lives and Properties to the Defence of your Majesty's most sacred Person, so deservedly dear to us, and to the Support of that Constitution under which we enjoy such unexampled Blessings.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal, dutiful, and affectionate Subjects, the Commander in Chief, the Bailiff, and the Jurats, and Officers of the Royal Court, and the Dean and Clergy of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, as well in their own Names, as in Behalf of the other Inhabitants of your said Island, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty their most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late most atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, formed by a nefarious Band of daring and execrable Traitors; by the Detection of which detestable Plot, your Majesty's precious Life and your Government have been preserved. Impressed with the liveliest Joy, we offer our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God for that Divine Interposition in preserving a Life and Government so justly dear all your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

Animated by the warmest Zeal and the most lively Sense of the Blessings we enjoy, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, under your Majesty's gracious and benign Government, we ardently pray the Almighty to guard your Majesty from every Danger, and that your Majesty may long, very long continue the Blessing of your faithful People, is also the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and most affectionate Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals, and Professors of the University of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most respectful and cordial Congratulations upon the Discovery and Conviction of a small Body of desperate Men, whose treasonable Machinations were directed against your Majesty's sacred Person.

In the Detection of this detestable Conspiracy we contemplate a striking Display of the Wisdom and Justice of Divine Providence, which brings secret Wickedness to Light, and often employs the extreme Folly of those who conduct Schemes pregnant with extensive Mischief as the Instrument of rescuing Society from the Effects of their Malice. We bless the Ruler of Nations for this fresh Instance of his Favour to the British Empire: And we unite with all Orders of our Fellow-Subjects in the most fervent Wishes and Prayers that the Protection of Heaven may continue to guard the Life of a Sovereign who is endeared to a free People by maintaining a sacred Regard to their Rights, and by exhibiting in his exalted Station a bright Example of every Virtue.

Melville, Chancellor.

John Trotter, Rector.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Melville.]

To the KING,

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Vice-Chancellor, Principal, and Professors of your University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, humbly approach your Throne to express our Joy in your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. While we abhor the atrocious Wickedness of the Plot, we feel great Satisfaction in reflecting that it was confined to a few worthless and desperate Individuals, and that the great Body of the Nation, recollecting the Protection which the Constitution afforded them during a late Period of unexampled Turbulence and Faction, are at present, if possible, more firmly attached to it than at any former Period of our History. Deeply sensible that your Majesty, during a long and auspicious Reign, has ever been the Friend of rational Liberty, and the Patron of Religion and Learning, it is our most earnest Prayer that a Life so inestimable to the Country may be long preserved for the Advancement of its dearest Interests.

Done in Senate this Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three; and signed in our Name and by our Appointment, by Arch. Davidson, Vice-Chancellor.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Masters of your Royal College of Eton, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of the late wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

We cannot sufficiently express our Horror and Indignation at such a nefarious Attempt; the ultimate View of which was the utter Subversion of our excellent Constitution, both civil and religious; a Constitution which your Majesty, on the most conscientious Principles, and with invincible Firmness, has always maintained inviolate both in Church and State.

We therefore think it our Duty to assure your Majesty, that we will exert the utmost Diligence and Attention in the Instruction of the Youth committed to our Care, that they may imbibe the purest Principles not only of Religion, Virtue, and Learning, but also of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, being early taught to fear God and to honor the King.

May the Almighty Disposer of Events, the Hope and Strength of all good Kings, vouchsafe still to preserve, in Mercy to this Nation, your Majesty's invaluable Life; and grant that, undisturbed by any more such traitorous Machinations, your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, obeyed, honored, and beloved by a loyal, united, and affectionate People.

[Presented by the Provost and Dr. George Heath.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty our Expression of the strong Sense of Indignation and Abhorrence with which we regard the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government; and of the grateful Acknowledgments we owe to Divine Providence, which in this, as in all similar Attempts, has so conspicuously interposed to guard your Majesty's sacred Person from Violence and Treachery, and preserve to us and our Fellow-Subjects the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's truly paternal Government, and the salutary Influence of your Royal Virtues.

While we feel the deepest Horror and Astonishment at finding any of your Majesty's Subjects so depraved as to enter into so base a Conspiracy against such a Sovereign, and endeavour to plunge their Country into all the Miseries of Anarchy and Rebellion in the midst of general Prosperity, and the full Enjoyment of civil and religious Freedom, we yet feel some Consolation on reflecting that such Treason could find no Abettors except among Men of the most worthless Character, and callous to every Feeling of Humanity, while your Majesty's other Subjects, united in Affection to your Royal Person, and Loyalty to your Government, exhibit a decisive Proof how firmly fixed is that Throne which is reared on the Basis of Virtue, and how powerfully those Kings are guarded who reign in the Hearts of a free People.

Permit us, Sir, to add, that, as Members of an University honored by your Majesty's uniform Protection and paternal Regard, we cannot but feel peculiar Anxiety for your Majesty's Safety and Happiness; and fervently implore that Supreme Being, who controuls the Issues of all Events, to bless your Majesty with the long Continuance of a glorious Reign over an united and grateful People, and transmit your Virtues, with your Crown, to your Royal Posterity, and thus insure the permanent Happiness of your extended Dominions.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Seal to be hereunto affixed, this Eighteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity, Dublin, commonly called Christ Church, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the late gracious Interference of Providence for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government from the desperate Designs of Traitors to the Peace and Welfare of their Country. We acknowledge with Gratitude this signal Mark of Divine Favour in the present Instance, at a Time when the general Appearance of Content and Satisfaction might have induced a fatal Security, when it was the common Belief that frequent Defeats had crushed the Hopes of the disaffected, and useful Lessons had not been wanting to teach them the Wisdom of a peaceful Acquiescence under a Form of Government mild enough to engage the Affection of the Good, and strong enough to enforce the Submission of the wicked.

We confidently hope that the many excellent Qualities which distinguish your Majesty's Reign will secure to your Majesty the same powerful Defence which has hitherto disappointed the evil Designs of external and domestic Enemies; and that all such perverse Spirits as cannot love those Virtues which endear your Majesty to every honest Heart in these Dominions, may at least learn to fear the Vengeance of that Almighty Protector, who, in Mercy to their Subjects, establishes and supports the Thrones of good and gracious Sovereigns.

George Lewis Kildare, Dean.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant Justices, Capital Burgesses, and Burgesses of the Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to offer our dutiful Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the traitorous Designs of wicked and disloyal Men.

Regarding with just Abhorrence and Indignation the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government, we contemplate with heartfelt Gratitude the Dispensation of his Providence whose gracious Interposition has averted a Blow so fatal to the Interests and Happiness of your Majesty's Dominions, and preserved our Country from the Horrors of sanguinary and tumultuous Violence.

We sincerely lament that there should have been found amongst any Description of your Majesty's Subjects, Men, whose depraved and licentious Principles could urge them to gratify the Malignity of their Hearts by attempting to subvert the most perfect System of rational Liberty which ever stood recorded in the Annals of Human Wisdom; but we rejoice in the certain Assurance that the great Body of the People of this United Kingdom remain unshaken in their Attachment to the Person of their Sovereign, and justly appreciate the Blessings which they enjoy under the Laws and Constitution of their Ancestors.

Among the greatest of these Blessings we esteem the peculiar Excellence of our juridical Constitution, wherein a mild and impartial Administration of criminal Justice, alike conducive to the Protection of Innocence, and the Preservation of civil Liberty, is happily combined with that Vigour and Energy which alone can ensure the Stability of public Happiness by the Suppression and Punishment of Disloyalty and Treason.

Deeply sensible that our constitutional Privileges are inseparably interwoven with the Security of your Majesty's Government, we avail ourselves of the present Opportunity to renew our Protestations of dutiful Allegiance; and we trust that, in declaring our steadfast Resolution upon all Occasions, with our Lives and Property, to defend your Majesty's sacred Person, your Crown and Dignity, we express the universal Sentiment of your loyal and affectionate People.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's House, the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.
