From Tuesday March 22, to Saturday March 26, 1803.

St. James's, March 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Limerick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Limerick, deeply and unanimously impressed with a Sense of the great Benefits derived to us, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, from a mild Reign and just Government, under our excellent Constitution, most fervently deprecate every Thing that can endanger the Interruption of such Blessings.

Under these Impressions we beg Leave humbly to declare our unfeigned Joy at the Detection of a Conspiracy so daring and atrocious, as not even to be thought of without Horror, except by those in whom every Sentiment of Religion and Morality is effaced; and we rely on your Majesty's Benignity for accepting this our humble Acknowledgment of the Happiness we enjoy under the auspicious Reign of the best and most gracious of Sovereigns

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common-Seal of said City to be hereunto affixed, the Fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

By Order,

Edward Parker, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, beg Leave to approach the Throne with pious Gratitude and joyful Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of a Conspiracy against the Royal Person and Government, as unwarranted and atrocious as ever disgraced the British Annals.

Having long experienced the paternal Care and sacred Love of Justice which have distinguished your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we must feel extreme Horror and Detestation at any Attempt to deprive us of Advantages so great and inestimable.

Under the special Providence of the Almighty, the base and malignant Designs of a few desperate Traitors have been completely frustrated: In bringing them to condign Punishment, the Strength, Benignity, and impartial Administration of the Law were never more eminently conspicuous. Happily their wicked Machinations have caused the great Mass of the loyal to rally closer round the Throne; to bind stronger the Links of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to excite additional Veneration for that Constitution, which stands erect amidst the Convulsions of Europe, is the great Bulwark of rational Liberty, and an imperishable Record of political Wisdom.

We humbly entreat you, Sire, to be assured that we are from Affection, Duty, Principle, and Conviction unalterably attached to your Majesty's Person and Government. We devoutly wish that your Majesty's Life be extended to the longest Duration; that Tranquillity, Peace, Happiness, and Glory may invariably attend its Progress; that the Virtues of the Royal Mind may never cease to be acknowledged and revered by a free and loyal People, and their Example remembered and followed by your Majesty's latest Posterity.

Done at the Council Chamber of the City of Cork, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Richard Lane, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and unanimous Address of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Cork.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Cork, humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty our unfeigned Assurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Person
