From Saturday March 26, to Tuesday March 29, 1803.

St. James's, March 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Heritors, Justices of Peace, Gentlemen, and others of the County of Bute, met at Rothefay the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude to Divine Providence, and to offer your Majesty our most respectful Congratulations on your late happy Escape from the dreadful Machinations of a Set of desperate and deluded Traitors, who aimed at depriving us of the most virtuous Sovereign that ever adorned a Throne; and who, had it been possible for them to carry their atrocious Purposes into Effect, by dissolving a Constitution the most perfect that can be shewn by any Nation or Country under Heaven, would have introduced Anarchy, Massacre, and Ruin in place of that noble Fabric, which assures equal Justice to all Ranks of Society, and has enabled the British Empire to rise to a State of envied Greatness.

From the awful Warning they have now had, we hope the Factious, urged by Ambition, or corrupted by revolutionary Doctrines, will be restrained from meditating such execrable Designs in future; and that they may ever be disappointed in their Attempts to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's illustrious Reign, is our sincere and most ardent Wish.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, Alex. May, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Denbigh, assembled in the Shire-Hall of the County this Nineteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Advertisement from the High Sheriff, most humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Joy and most cordial Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of a most daring and atrocious Conspiracy avowedly entered into for the horrid and unnatural Purpose of taking away the sacred Life of your Majesty, and forcibly overturning the Constituted Authorities of the British Empire, the Sceptre of which, for more than Forty Years, your Majesty has swayed with that exemplary Purity and Mildness so peculiar to your Majesty's august Family, to the Maintenance of Religion and good Order, the due Administration of Justice highly tempered with Mercy, and the Protection of Property and practical Liberty; truly sensible of the Extent and Benefit of these numerous Blessings, exclusively enjoyed by your Majesty's Subjects during the Periods of Anarchy and Devastation in most of the European States, we are the more grateful for your Majesty's providential Escape from the wicked Machinations of those unprincipled Traitors; and we do most humbly implore the Great Disposer of Events effectually to shield the sacred Person and Life of your Majesty from future Dangers; and of his Goodness grant that the Evening of your Majesty's Life may be tranquil and happy.

By Order of the Meeting,

Henry Ellis Bontes, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late most flagitious and traitorous Designs upon the invaluable Life of our truly beloved Sovereign, and the Destruction of that Constitution which has been the Pride and Glory of Britons, and the Envy of surrounding Nations. Inhabitants of a distant Northern District, where nothing but Loyalty and a sacred Veneration for that Constitution, so happily prevails; where Treason dare never rear its Head; and where its Voice is not heard, we could not behold, without Sentiments of the greatest Surprise, Indignation, and Abhorrence, an Attempt to delivoy that Happiness which all have experienced under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. Our Trust and Confidence however is, that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the Projectors of so foul a Dred will convince all Ranks of that Protection which our happy Establishment affords against every Attempt to disturb the public Tranquillity; and the Disaffected, that Treason, or an Attempt to commit it, can never escape without Detection and Punishment.

That your Majesty may long enjoy that Quiet and Happiness, which it has been the Business of your Life to afford all your Subjects, is our most earnest Desire and Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting at Naim, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.
Hugh Rose, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Buckingham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Buckingham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Preservation of your Majesty's Royal Person from the wicked and traitorous Attempts of atrocious and desperate Conspirators, whose Plots were directed to the Destruction of your Royal Person and Government, and the Overthrow of our happy Constitution.

We implore the Almighty to grant his Divine Protection to your Majesty and your illustrious Family; and to continue to us the Blessings of our excellent Constitution unimpaired and uninterrupted by the Machinations of any foreign Enemy, or the traitorous Attempts of domestic Foes.

[Presented by Lord Proby and the Right Honorable Thomas Grenville, Representatives for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Rothefay, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Detection and Failure of the late treasonable and dangerous Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and intended to overturn the Government and Constitution.

Blessed with equal Laws, and such an admirable Form of Government, as has enabled this Kingdom to rank so high among the Nations of Europe, we reflect with Horror on the atrocious and frantic Attempt of those Traitors, who could conceive the Perpetration of an Act of Criminality so great; and our Indignation at their diabolical Machinations is augmented when we reflect on the many amiable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, and the benign Influence of your Majesty's Administration of the great and eminent Powers entrusted to you by our well-regulated and happy Constitution, which has been constantly and uniformly directed to the Welfare of your People, and the Honor of the Kingdom.

May that good Providence, which has heretofore interposed to preserve your Majesty's valuable Life against the Machinations of wicked and deluded Persons, continue to long protect it as a public Blessing, is the ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Rothefay.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Chief Resident Magistrate.

Arch. Moore.

Council-Chamber, Rothefay,
March 11, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING,

The Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Ancient Borough of Inverness.

SIRE,

WITH the warmest Feelings of Gratitude for the Goodness of Providence in bestowing on this Empire the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, we eagerly embrace the Opportunity of joining the united Voice of all your Majesty's loyal and well-disposed Subjects, in offering our sincere and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on the fortunate Discovery and Prevention of the wicked and traitorous Designs of a few desperate and unprincipled Men, the most despicable of your People, against our beloved Sovereign, and the Happiness, Liberty, and Security we are blessed with under his mild and paternal Government.

We earnestly pray Almighty God long to preserve the Life and Health of our King, to shield him with His Protection, and to defend him and our invaluable Constitution from the evil Purposes and Machinations of foreign or domestic Enemy.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council of Inverness.

John Mackintosh, Provost.

Town-Hall, Inverness, March 14, 1803.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence, to express our utter Abhorrence of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our most cordial Congratulations on its providential Detection and Overthrow.

May the awful Punishment which was deservedly inflicted upon its Authors, together with a just Sense of your Majesty's distinguished Virtues, and of the invaluable Privileges which we and our Fellow-Subjects have so long enjoyed, contribute to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and to the future Quiet of the Empire.

Permit us, on this Occasion, to renew our Assurances of affectionate Regard to your illustrious

House, and our unalterable Attachment to the venerable and excellent Constitution of our Country.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it will be our zealous Endeavour, so far as the Influence of our Exhortations and Example may extend, to promote a solicitous Attention to the Safety of your Majesty's Person, a cheerful Submission to legal Authority, and an ardent Concern for the general Interests of Virtue and Religion.

Animated with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, we commend your Majesty to the continued Protection and Favor of Providence, earnestly praying that you may yet, for many Years, wield the Sceptre over a free, united, and flourishing People; and that when, at length, by Divine Appointment, you lay aside an Earthly Crown, you may receive from the King of Kings, that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

[Presented by the Rev. Samuel Palmer.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Corporation, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, beg humbly to address our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, on the Detection and Punishment of the late wicked Conspirators against your Person and Government.

Fully sensible of the real Liberty we enjoy under our most invaluable Constitution, we consider an Attempt to subvert the established Order as a Blow aimed directly against ourselves, our Families, and the whole Body of the People; whilst, at the same Time, we look up with Confidence to a Continuance of every Blessing under your Majesty's truly paternal Government, and in the Preservation of that Life which it is our constant Prayer may be spared for a Length of Years, to the Honor and Welfare of these Kingdoms, and the Happiness and Security of all your Majesty's Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three. Geo. Coles, Mayor.
