St. James's, March 24, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Heritors, Justices of Peace, Gentlemen, and others of the County of Bute, met at Rothefay the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude to Divine Providence, and to offer your Majesty our most respectful Congratulations on your late happy Escape from the dreadful Machinations of a Set of desperate and deluded Traitors, who aimed at depriving us of the most virtuous Sovereign that ever adorned a Throne; and who, had it been possible for them to carry their atrocious Purposes into Effect, by dissolving a Constitution the most perfect that can be shewn by any Nation or Country under Heaven, would have introduced Anarchy, Massacre, and Ruin in place of that noble Fabric, which assures equal Justice to all Ranks of Society, and has enabled the British Empire to rise to a State of envied Greatness.

From the awful Warning they have now had, we hope the Factious, urged by Ambition, or corrupted by revolutionary Doctrines, will be restrained from meditating such execrable Designs in future; and that they may ever be disappointed in their Attempts to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's illustrious Reign, is our sincere and most ardent Wish.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, Alex. May, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's very faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Denbigh, assembled in the Shire-Hall of the County this Nineteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Advertisement from the High Sheriff, most humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Joy and most cordial Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of a most daring and atrocious Conspiracy avowedly entered into for the horrid and unnatural Purpose of taking away the sacred Life of your Majesty, and forcibly overturning the Constituted Authorities of the British Empire, the Sceptre of which, for more than Forty Years, your Majesty has swayed with that exemplary Purity and Mildness so peculiar to your Majesty's august Family, to the Maintenance of Religion and good Order, the due Administration of Justice highly tempered with Mercy, and the Protection of Property and practical Liberty; truly sensible of the Extent and Benefit of these numerous Blessings, exclusively enjoyed by your Majesty's Subjects during the Periods of Anarchy and Devastation in most of the European States, we are the more grateful for your Majesty's providential Escape from the wicked Machinations of those unprincipled Traitors; and we do most humbly implore the Great Disposer of Events effectually to shield the sacred Person and Life of your Majesty from future Dangers; and of his Goodness grant that the Evening of your Majesty's Life may be tranquil and happy.

By Order of the Meeting,

Henry Ellis Bontes, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late most flagitious and traitorous Designs upon the invaluable Life of our truly beloved Sovereign, and the Destruction of that Constitution which has been the Pride and Glory of Britons, and the Envy of surrounding Nations. Inhabitants of a distant Northern District, where nothing but Loyalty and a sacred Veneration for that Constitution, so happily prevails; where Treason dare never rear its Head; and where its Voice is not heard, we could not behold, without Sentiments of the greatest Surprise, Indignation, and Abhorrence, an Attempt to
