

Divine Goodness the horrible Effects of those detestable Machinations have been happily prevented; and we feel ourselves called upon to acknowledge, with the utmost Gratitude, the Power of that Omnipotent Being, who has so seasonably crushed so foul a Conspiracy, which had for its Object the Downfall of our happy Constitution, and with it the Destruction of all Comfort and Security among every Class of Society.

We most earnestly renew our Expressions of Regard and Loyalty towards your Majesty's august Person and Family, and implore a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a loyal, peaceable, and happy People.

[Presented by Sir John St. Aubyn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Wolverhampton.

May it please your Majesty,

OUR Loyalty has always stimulated us to address your Majesty when any Attempts by foreign or domestic Enemies have attacked your Royal Person, your Family, or the Constitution of this Country, so intimately interwoven with the Welfare of the Brunswick Line that they must exist or perish together.

Animated by the most cordial Affection, we now beg Permission to present an Address on your Majesty's late happy Deliverance; and we return our grateful Thanks to that superintending Providence which protected your Royal Person from the traitorous Attempts of desperate and infatuated Assassins, and frustrated the atrocious Conspiracies against our invaluable Constitution.

At this momentous Crisis, when the Existence of our Country is at Stake, we beseech your Majesty to confide in our Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and in our determined Resolution to live or die free or unconquered Britons.

Geo. Molineux, Chairman.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th of March 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament; intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of

"Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight Hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March inclusive, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland."

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoes, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirtieth Day of April next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said
