St. James's, March 30, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the atrocious Designs of the late Traitors against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we derive from our excellent Constitution, and the constant Attention of your Majesty towards the Happiness and Welfare of your People, we view with Horror and Detestation the Wickedness of the late Attempt; and pray most cordially that the same infinite Power, which has hitherto preserved your Majesty from every open and secret Enemy, may still continue to defend your Majesty during the Remainder of a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Signed by the Order and on Behalf of the Meeting,
J. P. Hungerford, Chairman.

[Presented by George Anthony Leigh Keck, Esq; and Sir Edmund Cradock Hartopp, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, deeply sensible of the unparalleled Felicity we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and full of the most zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Joy that a traitorous and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person has been detected and frustrated. We rely that the just and necessary Punishment of the principal Actors in that wicked and frantic Combination will have a salutary Influence upon the future Conduct of such misguided Persons as may have been seduced from their Duty and Loyalty to the best of Princes. We devoutly pray that your Majesty's invaluable Life may continue to be guarded and protected as heretofore by the Interposition of an overruling Providence; and we beg Permission to offer our most earnest Assurance, that we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend to the uttermost your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government against all Attacks, either from the Malice of domestic Traitors, or from the Ambition of foreign Enemies.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by our Prefes, at Kirkcudbright, this Eighteenth Day of March, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three.

Alex. Gordon.

[Presented by Patrick Heron, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Stewartry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Landholders of the County of Stirling, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of the warmest and sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from, and on the providential Discovery and Disappointment of the late daring and atrocious Designs of Traitors against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the faithful Guardians of our happy and envied Constitution.

Unalterably attached to that Constitution, and sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, we return our unfeigned Thanks to the Great Disposer of all Events for frustrating and bringing to nought, the nefarious Schemes of those Conspirators against your Majesty's Person and Government; and our earnest Prayer to the Almighty God is, that he may long preserve your Majesty in Health and Prosperity to rule over a free, an united, and happy People.

We embrace this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that in the Event of your Majesty's being compelled to have again Recourse to Arms, that we are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to stand forward in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, and of our excellent Constitution.

Subscribed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Sir William Bruce, of Stenhouse, Baronet, Convener of the County, at Stirling, this Eighteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

W. Bruce, Preses.

[Presented by Captain Edgingstone.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The most humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most earnest and heartfelt Congratulations on the Deliverance of your Majesty's Royal Person from the unprincipled Attempts of a daring Band of Traitors.

In returning our Thanks to the Divine Providence for the Safety of your Majesty, we offer up the same Thanks for our own; as the Interest, the Welfare, and the Prosperity of your Majesty are closely implicated with those of all your Majesty's Subjects.

That your Majesty may long reign the paternal Monarch of a free and loyal People, ever zealous to defend your Person and Government from all evil Designs of domestic or foreign Enemies, is, and always will be, the warmest Wish of our Hearts.

Given under the Common Seal, in the Guildhall of the said Town, the Sixteenth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Thomas Evance, Esq; the Recorder, accompanied by Mr. F. Searle, Senior Bailiff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital and other Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Escape from the late traitorous Conspiracy against your sacred Person. We have often had Occasion to remark that the uninterrupted Continuance of Blessings lowers them in the Estimation of the Possessor; and possibly, if no Attempt had been made against your Majesty's Life, we might not have appreciated so correctly the Value of that National Blessing. We have long been impressed with a serious Conviction that the Divine Providence does, in a peculiar Manner, exert itself for your Majesty's Protection, and we have now a fresh Cause for Gratitude to Heaven, and a new Proof in Confirmation of our former Opinion.

We sincerely lament with your Majesty the probable Interruption of that Harmony, which has subsisted only for so short a Time, between this Nation and its Continental Neighbours; but if the gigantic Ambition of an individual will impel us, however reluctantly, to the Contest, though we may wish to regard him as a Friend, we are not afraid to meet him as an Enemy. The Objects for which we contend are such as may well rouse all the Ardour of Britons; a Constitution, the Envy of surrounding Nations, and at the Head of it a patriot King. Much as we may wish for Peace, and greatly as we may deprecate the Horrors of War, yet we are not afraid to commit our Cause to that Supreme Being, who has so often, and so visibly, interposed in your Majesty's Behalf. We are perfectly aware, Sir, that Addresses of this Nature are frequently considered as containing more of Compliment than of Truth, we beg Leave, however, to assure your Majesty that we transmit on the present Occasion the genuine Effusion of our Hearts.

Given under the Common-Seal of the Borough of Stafford the Fifteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Honorable E. Monckton and R. B. Sheridan, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cardiff, and the Bailiffs, Portreeves, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Contributory Boroughs of Cowbridge, Swansea, Aberavon, Neath, Kenfig, Lougher, and Llantrissant, in the County of Glamorgan, humbly request Permission to approach the Throne with the most dutiful Respect, and to express the same Sentiments as are universally felt throughout your Dominions on the timely Discovery of the wicked and traitorous Designs lately concerted against your sacred Person. With heartfelt Gratitude, likewise, we offer up our unfeigned Thanks to Providence for this timely Interposition in preserving to us the Guardian of our Holy Religion, and the Bulwark of our happy Constitution; praying, at the same Time, that we may long enjoy under your Auspices a Continuance of that uninterrupted Felicity which has so eminently distinguished your Majesty's happy Reign.

[Presented by the High Sheriff of the County of Glamorgan.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Prevention of the late traitorous and wicked Designs of evil-disposed Men, conspiring against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our glorious and invaluable Constitution in Church and State.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our utter Abhorrence of the detestable Machinations, so deliberately projected, to overturn the established Laws of these Kingdoms, and with there-the Happiness and Welfare of your Majesty's Subjects.

We also beg your Majesty to accept a Declaration of our continued and unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and our Wishes for your Majesty's long and happy Reign in the Hearts of your People.

[Presented by the Right Honorable John Smyth and Michael Beyer, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, at the Guildhall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, do humbly solicit your Majesty to accept our most lively and heartfelt Congratulations on the Protection with which it has pleased Almighty God to shield your Royal Person and Government from the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracies.

Whilst we reflect with indignant Horror upon so foul and atrocious an Attempt to rob Religion of its brightest Ornament, and Virtue of its most elevated Example, our Hearts glow with pious Gratitude for the signal Interposition of Providence in averting a Blow which might have given such a Shock to the Empire as to endanger its Independence, and shake its Security; but which has happily been the Means of calling into Action the patriotic and generous Enthusiasm of a free People, in whose Hearts your Majesty sits enthroned.

Participating in the general Joy, it is our most ardent Prayer, that neither secret Conspiracy nor open Violence may ever abridge a Reign, distinguished by so mild and salutary an Exercise of Power as to have left no other Sentiments in the Breast of every honest Briton than those of Love, Respect, Gratitude, and pure Attachment for your Royal Person and Government.

Signed at the Request of the Meeting.

John Evans, Matthew Fleming, Bailiffs.
March 23, 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most lively and heartfelt Congratulations for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Grateful to Providence for the Protection of your Majesty, and sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we cannot, in Terms sufficiently expressive of our Feelings, declare our Abhorrence and Detestation of those diabolical and wicked Plans, which were intended to involve your Majesty's personal Safety, and our most excellent Constitution, in one common Ruin.

We trust that the firm, just, and decided Punishment of those desperate and deluded Wretches will effectually deter and prevent any guilty Attempts in future, to disturb the public Tranquillity.

May the Almighty guard the Throne of this Realm from every Enemy foreign and domestic; and may your Majesty's Reign be long, happy, and prosperous.

[Presented by George Barclay, Esq; and Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Alderman, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, in the Counties of Berks and Wilts, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, after offering up our unfeigned Thanks to the Great Disposer of all Events, beg Leave most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Deliverance of yourself and People from the direful Effects meditated by the late most wicked, traitorous, and execrable Plot and Conspiracy against the sacred Person of your Majesty, and the happy Constitution of this Country.

We beg also to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and earnestly hope that the All-merciful God will long continue to preserve and defend the Life of our beloved Sovereign from all secret Conspiracy and open Violence, and that the Imperial Crown may flourish in your Majesty's Family to the latest Posterity.

Signed by Order, and in the Name of the Meeting.

25th March 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Braybrooks, High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with our most hearty and unfeigned Congratulations on the Escape your Majesty and this whole Nation have lately had from a Conspiracy of the most horrid and atrocious Nature, levelled equally against the sacred Life of your Majesty and the Happiness of your People. Deeply sensible of the invaluable Blessings we and all your Subjects enjoy under your Majesty's watchful Care or our civil and religious Liberties, we shall never cease to pray for the Preservation of your sacred Person.

The Punishment which has been most justly inflicted upon the desperate and wicked Persons who were concerned in the late detestable Conspiracy, will, we are persuaded, be an useful Warning; though we trust there can be very few, living under the mild, just, and equal Government of your Majestly, who are capable of harbouring for an Instant a Thought of engaging in a Design as hopeless as it was wicked.

May the Almighty grant to your Majesty a Continuance of Health, and of every earthly Blessing.

Given under our Common-Seal at Christchurch, this Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable George Rose, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Corporation of the Borough of Richmond, in the County of York, in Common-Hall assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Richmond aforesaid, unite with the utmost Zeal in the general Testimony of Congratulation, and of Thankfulness to Divine Providence for the happy Deliverance of your Majesty's Royal Person, and our happy Constitution from the horrid Conspiracy which the Wisdom and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers have so lately brought to Destruction.

That your Majesty may long continue to witness the Triumph of your affectionate Subjects over our Enemies Abroad, and the discontented few in these Kingdoms who are insensible to the Blessings we enjoy under the best of Princes, and the mildest of Governments, and that by the Firmness and Unanimity of all who retain their proper Sense of Attachment we may ultimately obtain and preserve the Blessings of permanent and honorable Peace, is our sincere Prayer.

Given under our Corporate Seal, at Richmond aforesaid, the Nineteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Fras. Winn, Mayor.

We supplicate the Supreme Being to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign; to pour down every Blessing on your Royal House; and to continue the Crown of these Realms to your illustrious Family unto the latest Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bridgnorth, humbly beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Escape from that horrible Conspiracy, which was planned against your sacred Person and the venerable Constitution under which we live.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of the truest Loyalty to your Majesty, and fully sensible of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under the best Government upon Earth, we reflect with Horror and Astonishment upon those diabolical Designs which have been so seasonably discovered, and so properly punished. Whilst we readily join our Fellow-Subjects in declaring the most unshaken Attachment to your Majesty, and the greatest Abhorrence of all Attempts to disturb the public Peace; we cannot but express our Hope that the late Detection and Punishment of Treason will convince the Disorderly that Evil-minded Men are carefully watched, and have nothing to expect but the Severity of the Law.

Most thankful to the Almighty for his merciful Protection of us and our King, we earnestly pray that the Divine Shield may be ever extended over your Majesty, your Royal House, and this highly favoured Country.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Chepping Wycombe, in the Guildhall assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Discovery and Frustration of a late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy against your sacred Person and Family, and the established Government of the Country; and it is with the deepest Concern we behold any of your Majesty's Subjects so deluded as to engage in the Machinations of artful and designing Men.

Thankful to the Divine Providence for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, we are ready upon all Occasions to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person and Family, and in Support of our excellent and invaluable Constitution. And we do most ardently pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a free, happy, and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Recorder, Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Town-Clerk, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Recorder, Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Town-Clerk, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, humbly beg Permission to approach your Majesty with our sincere and dutiful Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Filled with Indignation at the daring and desperate Plan to overwhelm our beloved Constitution, we cannot sufficiently admire the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, under the Divine Providence, in timely defeating the diabolical Designs of wicked and misguided Traitors.

May the same good and gracious Providence continue to guard and protect your Majesty from all treasonable Machinations, and long preserve to your Majesty and your august Family every Blessing and Happiness.

[Presented by John Calcraft, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled, impressed with the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Sentiments of heartfelt Congratulation on the providential Discovery of a most wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your sacred Person, your illustrious House, and the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of this Country.

We are truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government; and are fully convinced that our religious and political Establishment, the Happiness of the United Kingdom, the Preservation of our glorious Constitution, and all our nearest and dearest Interests, both national and individual, are inseparably connected with your Majesty's personal Safety; viewing, therefore, the late diabolical Machinations of wicked and bloody-minded Men, we cannot be sufficiently grateful to that Providence, whose gracious Interposition averted the dreadful Calamity.

May the protecting Arm of Almighty Power be still, as in the late and former Instances, extended over your august Person; may you long sway the Imperial Sceptre; long reign over the Persons and in the Hearts of your faithful and loyal Subjects; and to Length of Days may the Great Disposer of Events grant you an Extent of Happiness adequate to our Wishes.

May Religion, Morality, and a sincere Attachment to yourself and Family, continually flourish and increase amongst us; may intestine Divisions and party Rage be for ever extinguished; and may domestic Harmony and public Peace bless your Majesty's Empire in all its Connections.

Given under the Seal of the Borough of Lancaster this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Marquis of Douglas and John Dent, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to express our unanimous Abhorrence of the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. We sincerely rejoice, that, by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers under the Divine Providence, these traitorous Designs have been effectually frustrated; and we humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations.

At the same Time we earnestly desire to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Royal Person and to our most excellent Constitution, which hath for Ages been the Envy of surrounding Nations, and which we shall at all Times be ready to maintain and preserve, both against domestic Foes and foreign Enemies.

Signed in pursuance of a Resolution made at a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, held in the Town Hall in Devizes, on Wednesday the Twenty-third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Advertisement from the High Sheriff.

Thos. Henry Hele Phipps, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Free Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with the most lively Sense of the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, and sympathizing in those generous Sentiments of Patriotism, which are inseparable from our Characters as Englishmen, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Free Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most sincere and ardent Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the atrocious and sanguinary Attempts of a desperate Faction. We view their dark Designs with Horror and Detestation. Intigated by those fallacious Systems, which set all Religion and Morals at Defiance, and are calculated to sap the most solid Foundations of political Happiness, their shameful Plans were directed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and against the Constitution of this United Kingdom, which are equally endeared to us by every pure Sentiment of Nature and Gratitude.

May the Almighty Protector of Kings and Empires long continue your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and preserve the venerable Fabric of our Constitution undisturbed by the unprincipled Ambition of foreign Enemies, or the insidious Designs of domestic Traitors!

In Testimony whereof we, the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, and Free Burgesses, have put our Common Seal, and we the said Inhabitants have set our Hands, this Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Robert Thornton and John Denison, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Tavistock, impressed with every Sentiment of Detestation and Horror at any Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Person, crave Permission to offer your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the recent Escape of your Majesty from a heinous and diabolical Conspiracy.

Fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we view with inexpressible Concern the Existence of any Principles which may have a Tendency to deprive us of those Privileges, or to make Inroads on our happy Constitution; and these Considerations strongly demand from us, as a Duty, our imploring a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life.

We earnestly hope that the same overruling Providence, which hath hitherto averted the Shaft of the Assassin, will mercifully continue its Care over your Royal Person, your Life, and Health; and that every Blessing Heaven can bestow be showered down on your Majesty to the latest Period of Existence.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the French and Dutch Churches in London, established by King Edward the Sixth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the French and Dutch Churches in London, established by King Edward the Sixth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, with the most heartfelt Congratulation on the Providential Deliverance from the malignant Designs of the late traitorous Conspiracy aimed against your sacred Life, and intended to subvert our invaluable Constitution.

We reflect, with equal Indignation and Horror, on an Attempt of such an atrocious Nature, and return our most fervent Thanks to the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe in the Detection of so foul a Treason.

May the God of All Mercies continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person in Health, long Life, and Prosperity.

May the choicest Blessings attend your Royal Family and Government; and may our Churches (the oldest foreign Protestant in this Kingdom,) continue to enjoy your Majesty's most powerful and gracious Protection.

[Presented by the Reverend John Werninck, Daniel Meilan, Esq; John Finney, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, most humbly crave your gracious Acceptance of our sincere Congratulations on the timely Detection and subsequent Suppression of a Conspiracy, wearing Features of such peculiar and transcendent Deformity, as scarcely to be paralleled in the Annals of History.

With the highest Indignation and Abhorrence do we observe, that this foul Conspiracy had for its Object, the Destruction of a Sovereign, justly endeared to a loyal People by every public and domestic Virtue, of his august Family, and of a Constitution formed by the Wisdom of Ages, and productive of Welfare and Security to every Rank and Order of Society.

To these Sentiments of Detestation, which pervade the breasts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Island, are added those of Astonishment, that Men should have been found of such enormous Depravity, so inimical to their Country's best Interests and their own, so lost to every Sense of Religion and Morality as to attempt by the most atrocious Treason, to substitute, in the Room of inestimable Blessings, all the desolating Horrors of Anarchy and Carnage.

Gratitude, however cordial, Praises, however fervent, can never sufficiently acknowledge the Mercies of Providence, so visibly manifested on the late perilous Occasion, in the Preservation of a Life, on which depends the Happiness of Millions.

That the Almighty Ruler of the World may continue his watchful Care over your Majesty and your Royal House, is a Prayer put up with an Earnestness suited to the Importance of the Favor implored by this Portion of your Dominions, small indeed in its Extent of Territory, but not so in the Extent of its Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person.

By Order of the States,

John De Vaulle, Gref.

Jersey, 19th March 1803.

[Presented by Marquis Townshend the Governor, and Sir John Dumaresq, the Chief Magistrate of the said Island.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury at the Assizes for your County of Norfolk, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late traitorous Conspiracy, aimed at the Destruction of our Government and happy Constitution, by a deliberate and atrocious Design against the sacred Life and Person of your Majesty.

We congratulate your Majesty and the Country on the Detection of so nefarious a Plot; and that the Contrivers of it have been subjected to a just and exemplary Punishment. May their Example prevent the Repetition of so malignant and diabolical an Attempt: And may your Majesty live long, very long, the Sovereign and Father of a loyal, free, and affectionate People.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the said Act, was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, That, from the First Day of January then next, until the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or should load or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain any of the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, unless Proof shall first be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Articles so to be exported as aforesaid were not of British Growth, Produce, or Manufacture; But it was His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that nothing contained in the said Order should extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation or carrying out of such and so much of any of the said Articles as should be necessary to be carried in any Ship or Vessel, on its Voyage out and Home, for the Sustainance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Master, Mariners, Passengers, and others on board such Ship or Vessel, or for the Use and Sustainance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals on board such Ship or Vessel; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or other Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Service; or for the necessary victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Forces, Forts, or Garrisons; nor to prohibit, at any Time, the Exportation of such and so much of any of the said Articles as might be necessary for the Supply of the British Forts, Castles, or Factories in Africa, or of British Ships trading upon that Coast, which have usually been supplied with the same from Great Britain; nor to prohibit the Exportation by the East India Company, or any Agent employed by them, of any of the said Articles for the necessary Supply of their Garrisons at St. Helena, Bombay, and Bencoolen, or for the necessary Use of the Ships belonging to the said Company; nor to prohibit the Exportation of any of the said Articles to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; or to any of His Majesty's Colonies, Islands, or Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Town or Port of Gibraltar, for the necessary Use of the Inhabitants of the same respectively: Provided that the Merchant Exporter, in each Case, should first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they were entered Outwards before the Entry of the same should be made, and should give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, in treble the Value of the said Articles, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they were so entered out, and for the Purposes specified and none other; such Bond not to be cancelled or delivered up until Proof should be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as should be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles had been all duly landed at the Places for which they were so entered Outwards:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Order should continue in Force for some Time longer, His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and pursuant to the Powers given by the above-recited Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of this instant March, and until the Thirtieth Day of June next, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with Intent to export from any Port or Place of Great Britain, any Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, or any Bacon, Butter, Onions, or Pulse of any Sort, or any Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, save and except the Exceptions contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, allowing the Exportation of the several Articles mentioned, for the Purposes mentioned in the said Order, under the Provisions, Rules, and Regulations therein contained:

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
