

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 2, to Tuesday April 5, 1803.

St. James's, March 30, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the atrocious Designs of the late Traitors against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we derive from our excellent Constitution, and the constant Attention of your Majesty towards the Happiness and Welfare of your People, we view with Horror and Detestation the Wickedness of the late Attempt; and pray most cordially that the same infinite Power, which has hitherto preserved your Majesty from every open and secret Enemy, may still continue to defend your Majesty during the Remainder of a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Signed by the Order and on Behalf of the Meeting,
J. P. Hungerford, Chairman.

[Presented by George Anthony Leigh Keck, Esq; and Sir Edmund Cradock Hartopp, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, deeply sensible of the unparalleled Felicity we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and full of the most zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Joy that a traitorous and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person has been detected and frustrated. We rely that the just and necessary Punishment of the principal Actors in that wicked and frantic Combination will have a salutary Influence upon the future Conduct of such misguided Persons as may have been seduced from their Duty and Loyalty to the best of Princes. We devoutly pray that your Majesty's invaluable Life may continue to be guarded and protected as heretofore by the Interposition of an overruling Providence; and we beg Permission to offer our most earnest Assurance, that we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend to the uttermost your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government against all Attacks, either from the Malice of domestic Traitors, or from the Ambition of foreign Enemies.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by our Prefes, at Kirkcudbright, this Eighteenth Day of March, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three.

Alex. Gordon.

[Presented by Patrick Heron, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Stewartry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Landholders of the County of Stirling, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of the warmest and sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from, and on the providential Discovery and Disappointment of the late daring and atrocious Designs of Traitors against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the faithful Guardians of our happy and envied Constitution.

Unalterably attached to that Constitution, and sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, we return our unfeigned Thanks to the Great Disposer of all Events for frustrating and bringing to nought, the nefarious Schemes of those Conspirators against your Majesty's Person and Government; and our earnest Prayer to the Almighty God is, that he may long preserve your Majesty in Health and Prosperity to rule over a free, an united, and happy People.

We embrace this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that in the Event of your Majesty's being compelled to have again Recourse to Arms, that we are