From Tuesday April 5, to Saturday April 9, 1803.

St. James's, April 6, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter's at Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, High Constable, and Burgesses Assistants of your ancient City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and, in Conjunction with the common Voice of the Nation, collectively and individually, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Discovery of a Conspiracy against your sacred Person, equally wild and desperate as wicked and malignant.

In the Preservation of your Majesty's Life we feel the Security of our Religion, our Laws, and Constitution; and we are persuaded that none but those who wish to abolish all the Restraints of Law and Religion, can have been implicated in Crimes so atrocious and insatuated; in short, the Madness of a few cannot have any other Effect than to testify the general and spontaneous Loyalty of the Nation, and to prove that there is but one Wish that your Majesty's Reign may be prolonged, under Providence, for the Happiness of your People, and that your august Family may perpetuate the Blessings all enjoy under a mild Government, by following the Steps, and imitating the Virtues and Example, of your Majesty as long as the British Empire shall endure.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of your ancient City of Saint Andrews, in Council assembled, beg Leave, most humbly to approach the Throne, with the Expression of our sincere and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We desire to join your Majesty's other loyal and affectionate Subjects, in unfeigned Congratulation on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the premeditated Machinations of wicked and abandoned Traitors; and we, with grateful Hearts, return our sincere Thanks to that Providence which has in this, as in former Instances, watched over the sacred Person of the illustrious Protector of our glorious and unrivalled Constitution. That the same Almighty Arm may continue to shield, and long preserve your Majesty as a Blessing to a free, happy, and grateful People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name, and in Presence of the Council, by Kellie, Provost.
Saint Andrews, March 25, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Kincardine, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, (convened in a Meeting called by the Right Honorable the Earl of Kintore, Lord Lieutenant of the County, for the Purpose,) beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble and most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the wicked and desperate Designs of most abandoned and traitorous Assassins. We heard with Astonishment, Horror, and Indignation of the Existence of such a Plot, and returned our Thanks to that Providence, which, most happily for the Peace and Tranquillity of your United Kingdom, watched over and protected your sacred Person.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, our most ardent Prayer is, that your Majesty may long reign over us, happy in the domestic Comforts of your Royal House, and in the Affections of a grateful and united People, secure from the Attacks of secret Enemies at Home, and the more open Assaults of foreign Foes.

Signed at Stonehaven, Head Burgh of said County, by our Appointment in our Name and Presence, by Alexander Burnett, of Strachan, Esq; Sheriff Depute of the County, our Prefes, this Thirty-first Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three. Al. Burnett, Prefes.

[Transmitted by Sir John Stuart, Bart. and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The dutiful and loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

REMOTE in Situation from the Seat of your Government, in our Hearts we are ever near your Majesty. The Influence of your mild and paternal Rule has reached us your distant but grateful Subjects; and we acknowledge, with Thankfulness to Divine Providence, the Blessings we have enjoyed under your virtuous and exemplary Reign.

With inexpressible Horror and Indignation we learn that a Traitor's Blow has been meditated at our Sovereign's Life, but that Almighty Care, which guards your People, has preserved that Life so essential to their Happiness, and to the best Interests of this Empire.

Accept, Sire, the Love and Loyalty of your faithful Highlanders. Rely on their Attachment to your Person, to your Family, and to our glorious Constitution. And may the King of Kings long preserve your Life and protract your Reign: May it please your Majesty, your faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Alexander Macdonell, of Glengarry, Esq; Prefes of our General Meeting held at Inverness this Eleventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

A. Macdonell, Prefes.

[Presented by Charles Grant, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Majesty's Island of Man.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Island of Man, beg Leave to approach your Throne with a Tender of our warmest Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late treasonable Conspiracy, which menaced equal Outrage against your Majesty and our happy Constitution.

May the ignominious Forfeit these Miscreants have paid to the violated Laws of their Country, be an awful Lesson to deter others from the like atrocious Attempts; and should any Partisans of Anarchy and Innovation still remain, may the Almighty incline their Hearts to weigh with due Consideration the civil Liberty they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign; that, having learnt to appreciate its Worth, and your Majesty's Virtues, they may be led to look up with Reverence and Affection to the Father of his People, and direct their Enthusiasm to the Support of a Constitution not to be paralleled in the Annals of the World.

May the same good Providence, which has hitherto guarded your Majesty, still continue to protect your Majesty from the Danger of secret Conspiracy and open Violence; and may your Majesty long reign over a flourishing, happy, and loyal People.

Alex. Shaw, Lieut. Governor.

17th March 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Guild-Stewards and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild Stewards and Burgeses of the Borough of Calne aforesaid, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty on the Detection and (we hope) total Extinction of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, aimed at the Subversion of our Government, and the Destruction of our excellent and revered Constitution, by a deliberate and diabolical Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Providence and the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers have combined to defeat this nefarious Enterprize; and we trust that the just and exemplary Punishment inflicted on the Ringleaders of it will effectually operate to prevent any future Attempts of so atrocious a Nature; and that your Majesty will continue long, very long, to reign over your free and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the same Borough, the Twenty-third Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Henry Petty.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Shoreham, in the County of Suffex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Shoreham, most humbly beg Leave to present our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late daring and wicked Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Life and Government, as well as to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the diabolical Motives which actuated those desperate Traitors. Inspired with Reverence for those Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Royal Character, and impressed with a due Sense of the many and great Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's just and mild Government, we are particularly solicitous to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our inviolable Attachment; and we make it our most earnest Prayer to that Almighty Power (whose Mercies we so lately experienced) that he will continue to guard and protect your Majesty's sacred Life; that whenever the traitorous Arm may be raised against it his Goodness may arrest the murderous Weapon from the Assassin's Hand, and turn the meditated Mischief on himself.

At the Request of every Householder within this Borough.

(Signed) George Tate, High Constable of the Borough of New Shoreham.

March 26, 1803.

[Presented by Sir Cecil Bishopp, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Provost, Burgesses, Commons, and Freemen of the Corporation of Bandon, (of early and approved Loyalty,) humbly presume to offer to your Majesty the unfeigned Assurance of our heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Defeat of the late treasonable Designs against the Life of a Monarch endeared to his People by every Tie of Duty, Gratitude, and Affection.

Penetrated with a deep Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, we cannot contemplate without Horror and Indignation, the atrocious and execrable Project of domestic Conspirators, conspired to overthrow, in the Person of your sacred Majesty, the Bulwark of our glorious Constitution in Church and State, and to involve in utter Ruin our Laws and Liberties, and every Thing that is dear to a free and happy People.

We trust that the Fate of those desperate Conspirators, whose unnatural Depravity has justly drawn upon them the Vengeance of the insulted Law, may tend to check effectually the pernicious Principles which have so long disturbed the Repose of the World; and wherever they have prevailed, have been marked with Anarchy and Wretchedness.

That your Majesty's Reign may continue long and prosperous, uninterrupted by the Machinations of internal Enemies, and secure against the Assaults of foreign Foes; and that the Sceptre of the United Kingdom may be transmitted through your Majesty's illustrious Family, with undiminished Lustre, to latest Posterity, is our fervent Prayer, as it is, no Doubt, the ardent Wish of all your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects throughout the British Empire.

Sampson Fervois, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Montrose.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Montrose, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere Congratulations on your fortunate Escape from the late traitorous Designs against your Majesty's Royal Person.

Impressed with the warmest Attachment to the present happy Constitution, we cannot view but with Abhorrence the Attempts of disaffected or misguided Men to disturb the Tranquillity and Happiness of the Kingdom. While we consider the Stability of the Government as depending in a great Measure upon the Security of your Majesty's Royal Person, we reflect upon the Discovery of the late treasonable Conspiracy with Gratitude to Providence for its seasonable Interposition to protect your Majesty, and to prolong the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Reign.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment this Seventeenth Day of March, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three.

James Lyall, Provost.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Burgh of Air, in Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to offer your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon the providential Escape which your Majesty has made from the late atrocious Attempt formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and Conspiracy against your Government.

On a retrospective View of the Whole of your august and auspicious Reign, our Hearts overflow with Gratitude in contemplating the Goodness of Divine Providence in watching over a Life so valuable to this Nation, and protecting it alike from the Hands of foreign Enemies, and the secret Machinations of domestic Foes.

That your Majesty may long be preserved to diffuse through every Corner of your United Kingdom the Blessings we have so long and so happily enjoyed (the Envy and the Admiration of the World) under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, is our anxious and fervent Prayer.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment this Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three

George Charles, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the providential Delivery of your sacred Person from a treasonable and most barbarous Conspiracy.

We lament that, after the many dreadful Effects of revolutionary Systems, so severely experienced in other Kingdoms, there should still be found in this happy Empire of Great Britain the Aidors and Abettors of such wild and wicked Insatiation, endeavouring by Plots and Contrivances too horrible to be defined, to deprive our highly-favoured Country of its inestimable Government, and to involve us and our Families in one undistinguished Scene of Blood, Slaughter, and Desolation.

Yet we, with the Rest of your Majesty's liege Subjects, are thankful for the Blessings which we enjoy under an excellent Sovereign, and an excellent Constitution; and feeling, as we do, the Benefits of a Government active, vigilant, and upright, and of Laws sound, just, and merciful, equally protecting and restraining the lowest and the highest Individual; it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may long sway the Imperial Sceptre of these Realms with undiminished Happiness to yourself, and with all the Comforts of real and substantial Liberty to your faithful Subjects.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

H. W. Coulthurst, D. D. Chairman.

Halifax, March 19, 1803.

[Presented by the Honorable Henry Lascelles.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Portsea.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Portsea, humbly approach your Royal Presence with our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late traitorous Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

Sensible how intimately our Happiness is connected with your Majesty's Dignity and personal Safety, we cannot see any Attempt against your Royal Person without feeling the utmost Abhorrence.

With these Sentiments, therefore, we devoutly pray, that the Almighty will long preserve a Life so deservedly dear to us, that we may further continue to feel the Mildness of your Majesty's Government.

At the same Time we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ever ready with our Lives and Fortunes to protect your Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity; and to support and maintain the Succession of your Majesty's illustrious House on the Throne of these Realms in the full Exercise of those Powers which the Wisdom of our Ancestors established, and made one of the great Outlines of our glorious Constitution,—a Constitution which we are convinced by Experience it is equally your Majesty's Will to preserve unimpaired.

[Presented by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. and William Chute, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Folkestone, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Folkestone, deeply impressed by a due Sense of the Divine Goodness to us and to all your faithful Subjects, displayed in its Protection of your Majesty's most sacred Person from the recent wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, humbly presume to offer our Expressions of unfeigned Abhorrence and Detestation of a Design equally and desperately criminal in its Means and in its End.

We trust that the awful Sentence of the Law, under which its depraved Contrivers have suffered, together with the Duty and Loyalty of an affectionate and united Nation, will effectually deter others from engaging in such guilty Courses, by proving to them that their Attempts are not only criminal but impracticable, and can only recoil in Ruin on themselves, instead of reaching a Sovereign enthroned in the Hearts of his People; and a Constitution revered by them as their patrimonial Inheritance of Liberty, and farther endeared by having enabled them, as a firm and tried Anchor, to ride in Safety through the Storms in which so great a Part of Europe has been shipwrecked.

We beg to assure your Majesty that it is no less our Wish than we conceive it to be our Duty, to exert our utmost Vigilance in the Prevention and Detection of any treasonable or seditious Designs against your Majesty's Person, or the Constitution of the Country, being convinced that all we hold dear, our Liberties, our Properties, and Lives depend on their Preservation.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Viscount Folkestone.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Shrewsbury, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our fervent Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late treasonable Designs against your Majesty's Person and Government.

Attached to your Majesty by the strongest Ties of Affection and Respect, and by a lively Sense of the Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we are unable to express, in Terms adequate to our Feelings, the Indignation and Horror excited by those Machinations, so wickedly conceived and so deliberately planned for the Purpose of destroying your Majesty's sacred Life, and introducing into our happy Country a wild Scene of Anarchy, Bloodshed, and Confusion.

We entertain too just a Value for the Benefits derived from our venerable and excellent Constitution, and for that Establishment of wise, equal, and salutary Laws by which we are governed, not to feel in its full Force the intimate Connection that subsists between the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the Preservation of all those Interests on which the Prosperity of our Empire, and the Enjoyment of our internal Peace and Felicity, so essentially depend.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, while we gratefully acknowledge the signal Protection vouchsafed to your Majesty by Divine Providence, and the vigilant Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers in detecting and bringing to Light this foul Conspiracy, our Minds rest in full Assurance that the same unremitting Watchfulness, supported by the vigorous Attachment of your Majesty's loyal Subjects throughout the Kingdom, will effectually shield your Majesty's Person and Government against all Attempts, whether of secret or open Enemies, and maintain unimpaired that System of genuine Liberty, Security, and Happiness by which we are distinguished above all other Nations upon Earth.

(At the unanimous Request of a Meeting holden on the Twenty-third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.)

[Presented by Sir William Pulteney, Bart. and the Honorable William Hill, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Port of Rye.

WE, your Majesty's most humble and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave, with the highest Respect, to approach your Royal Person with our united Address of Congratulation on your late happy Escape from the most traitorous Designs of wicked and desperate Men.

We reflect with Horror, that such a Degree of Vice and Malignity should have existed in the human Mind, but with Admiration on the Constitutional Mildness and Clemency of the Laws by which these base Offenders have been convicted.

Your Majesty's Mercy and Goodness so conspicuously shewn in permitting that Part of the Sentence of the Law to be executed which was indispensible with common Justice, claims our Esteem and Admiration.

By your Majesty's great Example we are taught to place our Confidence on the Supreme Being, the Guardian of Virtue who, in his infinite Mercy, has so frequently turned aside those Hands that would have taken away your Majesty's Life, in the Hope, that consequent Confusion might aid their further traitorous Machinations for the Ruin of our Country.

For this most providential Interposition we offer up our Thanksgivings to Heaven with our fervent Prayers, that its omniscient and all-powerful Protection may be continued to your Majesty and to every Branch of your Royal House; and permit us humbly to assure your Majesty of our most dutiful and faithful Attachment, Respect, and Regard for your Royal Person and Government.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkebury and T. Davis Lamb, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, in the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, humbly approach your Majesty with our cordial Congratulations on the timely Detection of the late treasonable and traitorous Designs against your sacred Person, and the Constitution of this Realm.

We are impressed with a due Sense of this fresh Mark of the Continuation of the Divine Favor; we thankfully acknowledge God's Goodness in setting over and preserving to us a Prince, endowed with such affectionate Sentiments of Government and just Principles of Religion; a Prince, by a virtuous and holy Life commanding our Veneration, as Christians; by Moderation, Justice, and Equity, our Allegiance, as Subjects.

We observe, with no ordinary Degree of Pleasure, the heartfelt Joy, which, on Occasion of your Majesty's Safety in this, as in former Instances, pervades all Ranks of Men in your Dominions; we pray ardently that these Kingdoms may long enjoy the various Blessings which, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government are bestowed on them; that your Majesty may live long in perfect Health, in the Exercise of all those amiable Dispositions and laudable Acts which constitute a patriot King. And we are unanimous and earnest in our Wish, that when it shall please the Divine Being to call your Majesty, full of Years, and rich in good Works, unto himself, a Prince of your august House may, to the latest Posterity, sit upon your Throne, and, copying after your good Example, reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Chas. Wallaston, Thos. Hodges, Bailiffs.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Clive, of the late 110th Regiment.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Ship Owners, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland and its Neighbourhood.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the sincere Congratulations of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Ship Owners, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland and its Neighbourhood, upon your Majesty's providential Preservation from the late treasonable Conspiracy. With Gratitude we adore the Goodness of God so signally manifested to this Kingdom in the Discovery and Defeat of the dark Designs of the atrocious Traitors. Happy in the Security and Freedom we experience under your Majesty's paternal Reign, we view with Abhorrence every Attempt of factious Men to propagate Opinions tending to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, and to subvert our excellent Constitution, the Admiration of surrounding Nations. It is our Determination to resist all such Attempts, and to recommend, both by our Influence and Example, Respect to the Laws, and Submission to public Authority.

Firmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Family, we humbly approach the Throne, offering with unfeigned Loyalty, our utmost Endeavours to co-operate with your Majesty's unvarying Solitude for the Welfare of your People. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, at this momentous Crisis, heartily concur with the Executive Government in such Measures as may be necessary for the Support of the Dignity of the Crown, and for the Security and Independence of the United Kingdom; and as our best Security, under Divine Providence, for the uninterrupted Possession of the invaluable Blessings Englishmen enjoy, we fervently unite in praying to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty may long wear the Crown which your Virtues, public and private, so exenariarily adorn, and continue to reign in the Hearts of an affectionate and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Members of the Freemen and Gentlemen's Society of the City of Durham.

Most gracious and august Sire,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, impressed with a strong Sense of the inestimable Blessings daily showered upon us by the Almighty through the Dispensation of your Majesty's paternal Care; and of that Almighty's dispensing Providence, by whose wonderful Workings the whole Nation is filled with Joy for your happy Deliverance from the Hand of the Assassin, and from the Snares of the Wicked, beg Leave to approach your Throne in the Fulness of mingled Joy and Gratitude; at the same Time we feel ourselves utterly unable, by the Power of Language, to express our Feelings of Joy upon the eventful Occasion which threatened the Life of your Majesty, and the Subversion of our happy Constitution: And it is with equal Zeal we present ourselves before your Majesty with loyal Assurance, that, should the present Negotiations carrying on between this Country and France be ultimately unavailing, and War should in Consequence ensue, that we will with our Lives, and every Thing we possess, most cheerfully come forward in Support of your Majesty's Person and Government, being well assured that upon the Existence of the one, and the Preservation of the other, depend every earthly Blessing we enjoy or can hope to enjoy in this World.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Deliverance from the late meditated Assassination of cruel and desperate Traitors. The timely Discovery of this most detestable Conspiracy, which had for its avowed Object the Subversion of the State, to be effected by an immediate Attack upon your Majesty's Royal Person, impresses our Minds with the deepest Gratitude to Divine Providence for the gracious Preservation of a Life so dear to us all, and so intimately connected with the Welfare of this United Kingdom. We most earnestly hope and trust that the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers, and the zealous Attachment of the People in general to your Majesty's Person and Government, will at all Times be found active to detect the Projects of those who shall attempt to raise the Banners of Treason and Infidelity upon the Ruin of the civil and religious Constitution of our Country: And we humbly assure your Majesty that we will make it our constant Care to watch over and to defend to the utmost of our Power those invaluable Blessings, which th's Nation hath so long enjoyed under the mild and excellent Government of your Majesty's illustrious Family, and by which it has hitherto been enabled to defy the Malice, and confound the Devices, of all its Enemies.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Brethren of the Corporation of the Master Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-House in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with sincere and affectionate Congratulations on the happy Discovery and Disappointment of a late wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against the Life of your sacred Majesty, and for the Subversion of our mild and equitable Laws, and inestimable Constitution.

Blessed, as we are, in the benign and auspicious Government of your Majesty, and experiencing the Happiness, Safety, and Content arising from the present political Establishment in this Realm, we are heartily thankful to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the Preservation of your sacred Person, by the well-timed Detection of this and all such malignant and infernal Designs against your Majesty's Life and Reign. And we hope the Examples of just Punishment inflicted on the Contrivers, Instigators, and Abettors of the late intended Mischief to your Majesty and this Kingdom, and the particular Protection of Divine Providence exemplified in this Instance; will for ever deter, or as fortunately avert, others from conspiring against, or accomplishing any Interruption to, the Peace and Security of your Majesty's Life and Government, or the Welfare of the Royal Family.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Patrick, Dublin, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Preservation from the late daring Conspiracy formed against your sacred Life, and the Constitution of this Realm.

Convinced that the Tranquillity, the Properties, the Liberties, religious and civil, and the general Happiness of the People, are all inseparably connected with the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and the Stability of the Monarchy, we gratefully acknowledge the timely Detection of that atrocious Design as an additional Instance and Proof of the Protection vouchsafed by a good Providence to the People of this United Kingdom.

These Sentiments are as strongly impressed on our Hearts as on those of your Majesty's Subjects who have the Happiness of being placed nearer to your sacred Person; and we fail not to join with them in fervent Prayer to the King of Kings for the long Continuance of a Life so justly dear to all your Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen.

MAY it please your Majesty graciously to accept the heartfelt Congratulations of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, on the Detection of an atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person, and the Constitution of this Country.

Filled with Indignation and Horror, that, in a Nation like Britain, blessed with a Government free and lenient beyond any other on Earth, there should have been found Men capable of so daring and flagitious an Attempt. We are at the same Time deeply impressed with Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that their infamous Endeavours have been frustrated.

It shall be our constant Study to instil into the rising Generation, along with a Love of Learning, the congenial Love of social Order, and those Principles of well-regulated Freedom, which have made the British Constitution the Envy of all other Nations.

That a gracious Providence may continue to watch over your sacred Person, and that, under the Protection of the Almighty, your Majesty may be long preserved as the Guardian of our happy Constitution, and a Pattern of Virtue to a free, grateful, and loyal People, are our sincere and fervent Prayers.

We join with our Fellow-Subjects in expressing our strongest Horror of this Treason, and in offering up to the Supreme Disposer of all Events our sincerest Thanks for that gracious Providence, which, on this recent and on preceding Occasions, has interposed to avert the Danger which threatened your Majesty's sacred Person, and to frustrate the wicked Design against that excellent Form of Government under which your Majesty's Subjects have the Happiness to live.

[Presented by the Chancellor, the Right Honorable Lord Auckland.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence, to express our utter Abhorrence of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our most cordial Congratulations on its providential Detection and Overthrow.

May the awful Punishment, which was deservedly inflicted upon its Authors, together with a just Sense of your Majesty's distinguished Virtues, and of the invaluable Privileges which we and our Fellow-Subjects have so long enjoyed, contribute to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and to the future Quiet of the Empire.

Permit us, on this Occasion, to renew our Assurances of affectionate Regard to your illustrious House, and our unalterable Attachment to the venerable and excellent Constitution of our Country.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it will be our zealous Endeavour, so far as the Influence of our Exhortations and Example may extend, to promote a solicitous Attention to the Safety of your Majesty's Person, a cheerful Submission to legal Authority, and an ardent Concern for the general Interests of Virtue and Religion.

Animated with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, we commend your Majesty to the continued Protection and Favour of Providence, earnestly praying that you may yet, for many Years, wield the Sceptre over a free, united, and flourishing People; and that when, at length, by Divine Appointment, you lay aside an earthly Crown, you may receive from the King of Kings, that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

[Presented by the Reverend Mr. Palmer, accompanied by Dr. Rees, Dr. Rippon, and Sixteen other Ministers.]

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this fresh Instance of your Attachment to My Person and Government. The providential Deliverance which has been afforded to Me and My People from a most desperate and wicked Design to destroy our free and happy Constitution, cannot fail to animate our united Exertions in its Support, and to strengthen our Determination to transmit so great and invaluable a Blessing unimpaired to our Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Burgh of Dumfries, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach the Throne, offering our sincere Congratulations for the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Royal Person and Government.

Convinced, as we are, of the Happiness we enjoy, as well as of the Happiness and Security enjoyed throughout the Whole of the United Kingdom under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we are unable, in Terms adequate to our Feelings, to express our Detestation of Designs so wickedly planned for the Destruction of your august Person, and of every Thing dear to your affectionate Subjects. We beg Leave, however, to assure your Majesty of our sincere and firm Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government; of our Determination to support and defend them; and of our Gratitude to Almighty God for protecting from the Blow of the Traitors a gracious Sovereign, whose Life is so essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of this Empire at large: And we pray your Majesty may be long preserved to wield the Sceptre over a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, in Council assembled, at Dumfries, this Eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three. Gabriel Richardson, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burghesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bideford, in the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy.

We are thankful to the Almighty, and confide ourselves as highly favoured by Providence, for having defeated the Attempts of wicked and ill-designing Persons intended against your Majesty's sacred Life, and to overthrow the envied Constitution of this Kingdom.

Sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we will upon all Occasions be ready to exert our utmost Endeavours in Defence of our excellent Constitution, and your Majesty's most sacred Person, against the Attempts of all foreign and domestic Enemies.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon the Failure of the late traitorous and detestable Conspiracy, a Conspiracy of which the Malignity and Wickedness are scarcely to be paralleled in History.

The Virtues by which your Majesty, through the Course of a long and auspicious Reign, has adorned and upheld the ancient and inestimable Constitution of your Kingdom, have made your Person the general Object of Attack from every Enemy of the Peace, Happiness, and Independence of this Country.

The same Conduct, however, which has exposed your Majesty to the Hostility of every Traitor, has doubly endeared you to the Hearts of your Subjects; and in Addition to the natural Feelings of Loyalty and Duty, has excited those of Affection, Gratitude, and Veneration.

Permit us further to reiterate to your Majesty those Assurances which, even in the Moment of Peace, we thought it our indispensable Duty to offer, that, should the restless and inordinate Ambition of our late Enemy induce him to persist in any Encroachment upon the Honor, the Independence, or just Rights of your Majesty's United Kingdom, we will be neither lulled by Artifice, nor intimidated by Power, from supporting your Majesty in repelling every Attack with the same Zeal, Energy, and Constancy which were so eminently displayed by your Majesty's Subjects in the Course of the late just and necessary War; and that there are no Sacrifices, however painful, which may be necessary for that Purpose, to which we shall not look forward with Firmness and Alacrity.

Signed in pursuance of an unanimous Resolution of the County Meeting,

John Winder, High Sheriff for the County.
