

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 5, to Saturday April 9, 1803.

St. James's, April 6, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter's at Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, High Constable, and Burgesses Assistants of your ancient City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and, in Conjunction with the common Voice of the Nation, collectively and individually, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Discovery of a Conspiracy against your sacred Person, equally wild and desperate as wicked and malignant.

In the Preservation of your Majesty's Life we feel the Security of our Religion, our Laws, and Constitution; and we are persuaded that none but those who wish to abolish all the Restraints of Law and Religion, can have been implicated in Crimes so atrocious and insatuated; in short, the Madness of a few cannot have any other Effect than to testify the general and spontaneous Loyalty of the Nation, and to prove that there is but one Wish that your Majesty's Reign may be prolonged, under Providence, for the Happiness of your People, and that your august Family may perpetuate the Blessings all enjoy under a mild Government, by following the Steps, and imitating the Virtues and Example, of your Majesty as long as the British Empire shall endure.

[Presented by the Dean of Westminster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of your ancient City of Saint Andrews, in Council assembled, beg Leave, most humbly to approach the Throne, with the Expression of our sincere and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We desire to join your Majesty's other loyal and affectionate Subjects, in unfeigned Congratulation on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the premeditated Machinations of wicked and abandoned Traitors; and we, with grateful Hearts, return our sincere Thanks to that Providence which has in this, as in former Instances, watched over the sacred Person of the illustrious Protector of our glorious and unrivalled Constitution. That the same Almighty Arm may continue to shield, and long preserve your Majesty as a Blessing to a free, happy, and grateful People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name, and in Presence of the Council, by Kellie, Provost.
Saint Andrews, March 25, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Kincardine, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, (convened in a Meeting called by the Right Honorable the Earl of Kintore, Lord Lieutenant of the County, for the Purpose,) beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble and most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Escape from the wicked and desperate Designs of most abandoned and traitorous Assassins. We heard with Astonishment, Horror, and Indignation of the Existence of such a Plot, and returned our Thanks to that Providence, which, most happily for the Peace and Tranquillity of your United Kingdom, watched over and protected your sacred Person.

Deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, our most ardent Prayer is, that your Majesty may long reign over us, happy in the domestic Comforts of your Royal House, and in the Affections of a grateful and united People, secure from the Attacks of secret Enemies at