St. James's, April 6, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, (convened by the High Sheriff,) beg Leave to approach your Majesty with most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of the United Kingdom. Permit us to add our Assurances, that to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government our Attachment remains firm and invariable; and that it is our earnest Prayer, that the same Providence that has hitherto shielded your sacred Person, and preserved our happy Constitution and Laws, may continue thus to bless and unite this Kingdom to the latest Posterity.

Hans Hamilton, Sheriff of the County of Dublin.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, at Lent Assizes, March 28, 1803.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Monaghan, beg Leave, with Sentiments alive to the most ardent Feelings of Loyalty, Attachment, and Zeal, to approach your Throne, and to entreat Permission, to mingle our most heartfelt Congratulations at the Overthrow of the late Machinations of Treason and Sedition, which, however wild in Theory, have nevertheless been averted by that Divine Providence which appears at all Times the vigilant Guardian of the best of Kings, whose beneficent Reign over a grateful People, we pray may long continue to be happy and prosperous.

John Johnston, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to present, with profound Respect, our unanimous and warm Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of a late nefarious and desperate Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Life, and against the British Constitution as by Law established.

Deeply impressed with Affection for a Sovereign who guards with paternal Solitude the Rights, the Liberties, and the Happiness of his People, and inspired with Veneration for our invaluable Constitution, we reflect on this traitorous Attempt with Indignation and Horror; and we pledge to your Majesty invariable Perseverance in our Efforts to inculcate, both by our Instructions and Example, on the Minds of the Youth under our Care those Principles of Loyalty and Patriotism which may produce in them steadfast Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government; and may, by the Providence of God, contribute to promote and maintain all those public Blessings which have, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, so conspicuously distinguished the British Empire.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Senatus Academicus.

George Baird, Principal.
College of Edinburgh, March 29, 1803.
