St. James's, April 15, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Brecon, assembled in their Shire-Hall, at Brecon, this first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of your County of Brecon, with grateful Hearts for the many Blessings which we, in common with our Fellow Subjects of the United Kingdom have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal Government, presume humbly to approach the Throne.

Permit us, Sire, in the unadorned Language of Sincerity and Truth, to express our firm Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and to the excellent Constitution established in these Realms.

Accept our warmest Congratulations upon the providential Discovery of that malignant and atrocious Conspiracy which has dared to raise its bloody Arm against your sacred Life, and threatened to deprive the Nation of its best and dearest Support.

Ever may Treason be thus detected and defeated.

Long may the Divine Providence continue to your People the Blessings of so good a Government, and so good a King; and may the House of Hanover never fail to supply a just and worthy Successor to fill that Throne which we now see so happily filled by your Majesty.

Signed at the Request of the Meeting,
Edward Kendall, Sheriff.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord Lieutenant, and the Right Honorable Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with Sentiments of the most inviolable Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family; and to express, in common with your Majesty's loyal Subjects of this Part of the United Kingdom, our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of the late traitorous Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and Royal House.

However mad the Design, pityful the Characters concerned, and impracticable the atrocious Purpose, yet we cannot but feel grateful to that Providential Power which interposed in rescuing from their wicked Designs, a Life so justly dear to, and so essentially connected with the Interest and Happiness of every Description of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

At this important Crisis, when our Country and Constitution seem to be menaced by foreign Foes, we feel ourselves called upon to assure your Majesty of our most firm Determination and decided Resolution, to support, at the Hazard of all that we hold dear, your Majesty's sacred Life, our glorious Constitution, and the Dignity and Independence of the British Empire, against all Attacks of foreign or domestic Foes.

Will. Bayly, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Town Clerk, and Burgeses of the Borough of Brecon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Town Clerk, and Burgeses of the Borough of Brecon, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late daring and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person, and of the treasonable Attempts of evil-minded Persons against the Existence of that envied Constitution, and of that mild and equitable Government which your Majesty's paternal Care, under Divine Providence, has so effectually secured.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a loyal and united People conscious of the Blessings
