St. James's, April 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, duly for the Purpose convened by the Mayor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against the Life of our beloved Sovereign. We acknowledge with the most unfeigned Gratitude, the signal Interposition of Divine Providence under which the Conspirators were timely arrested, and their Treasons most happily frustrated. And we sincerely hope that the Punishment so justly inflicted on the Traitors may secure our beloved Monarch from future Danger, and preserve to your Subjects the inestimable Blessings of our happy Constitution.

Deeply sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and viewing with Abhorrence the Attempts of Domestic Traitors against your sacred Person, and with Indignation the insidious Machinations of foreign Powers against your Majesty's Dominions; we cheerfully offer our Lives and Fortunes in Support and Defence of our revered King and Constitution against the malignant Efforts of Domestic or foreign Enemies.

Done under the Common Seal of the City of Kilkenny, this Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Enery. Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Failure of the late malignant and Traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

We contemplate with Pride those Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Reign; and we admire that Firmness of Mind which has supported our inestimable Constitution; a Constitution which we love and adore, and which has hitherto secured Happiness and Independence to your Empire.

We consider every Design against your Majesty's Person as exciting from the Hearts of your loyal Subjects renewals of Affection, Gratitude, and Veneration; and we rejoice that the late Examples of wicked and misguided Traitors afford an awful Picture of the Inflexible Justice of the Country.

We most earnestly pray for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a free and loyal People.

In Testimony of the above we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

F. Perkins, Mayor.

[Presented by Captain Barlow, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by Captain Stratton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere and lively Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Attached as we are, to your Majesty, by Inclination as well as Duty, living as we do, in the Enjoyment of every Right, under your Majesty's benign Influence and our invaluable Constitution, we view with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the wicked Attempts that have been made to destroy our Government and our Happiness, and to introduce in their Place, Anarchy, and Revolution.

Whilst we pray, for a long Continuance of your Majesty's mild and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Affection and Loyalty can only receive additional Strength from every Attempt that may be made against your Royal Person.

[Presented by the Earl of Warwick.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the City of Elgin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Community of the City of Elgin, in Common-Council assembled, humbly offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the late providential Discovery and Defeat of the horrid Plot and Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and all the constituted Authorities of the Kingdom.

Feeling the Blessings we derive from your Majesty's guardian Care of our civil and religious Liberties, and of the Constitution so well calculated to secure them, and united by every Tie that can bind a grateful and affectionate People, we were deeply penetrated with Horror at the atrocious Plan, tending to overwhelm our dearest Interests, the Life of our most gracious Sovereign, and the Stability of our Constitution.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruits of those domestic Virtues which you have cultivated with so much pious Care; that the bright Example of them may long and successfully operate on the Hearts and Conduct of your Majesty's grateful and affectionate Subjects; and that those princely Virtues which have raised to so exalted a Height the Power, Prosperity, and Renown of Great Britain, may long continue to display themselves triumphantly at the Head of a great Nation, and a glorious Constitution, in the Maintenance of true Religion, Liberty, and social Order, is, in the utmost Fervor of our Hearts, the Prayer we offer up for your Majesty to the Author of all Good.

Signed, in Presence of, and by Appointment of the Council,
Jos. King, Provost.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, Representative in Parliament for the Boroughs of Elgin, Banff, &c.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the Detection of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Authority.

While we express our Regret and Astonishment that any of your Majesty's Subjects could be guilty of harbouring treasonable Designs, we rejoice that those who have suffered the just Punishment of the Law, should, with one Exception, have belonged to the lowest Classes of Society, and that their Crimes may reasonably be imputed to wild and delusive Expectations operating on Minds incapable of estimating the Blessings of your just and paternal Government.

We trust that the Event of this, and of all other Attempts directed against your Majesty will produce a suitable Impression on the Enemies of our Constitution, and convince them that the Divine Providence will always signally interpose in the Preservation of a Life so intimately connected with the Happiness of a great People.

Given under the Seal of the said City, the Twenty-fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.
R. Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Viscount Lothian.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the sincerest Congratulation for the Detection and Failure of the dreadful Conspiracy that so lately threatened your sacred Person.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that there is no Part of your Majesty's Dominions more sensible of the Blessings of your Reign, or more zealously actuated by Loyalty than your Subjects of the County of Limerick; and that in Proportion to those Feelings is the Horror with which we are impressed by any Attempt upon your Majesty's Life, and the Energy with which we will arm ourselves to resist any Attack upon your Majesty's Government. And we further beg Leave to take this Opportunity of declaring, that should the wise and benevolent Disposition of your Majesty's Councils towards Peace be frustrated, we will stake all that is most dear to us for the Security of your Majesty's Territories, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution.

Bolton Waller, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon your late providential Escape from the traitorous Machinations of the Enemies of your sacred Person and our happy Constitution, which we view with the utmost Horror and Detestation; and to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be zealous and active in our Exertions for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, your illustrious Family, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Congratulations, for the Discomfiture of the Machinations of wicked and presumptuous Traitors, who, from the Depravity of their Nature, rejecting Blessings within their Power, had formed visionary Plans of the Deepest die; and our Abhorrence of them is the greater, as their Attempts were directed against the Life of a Sovereign, whose shining Virtues render him the Idol of his People, and give Lustre to the Enjoyment of the happy Constitution under which we live; and, fully sensible of such high Advantages, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready to stand forward against all Traitorous Innovations, under whatever delusive Form they may be attempted, being clearly convinced that our glorious Constitution approaches as near to Perfection as any human Institution can admit, thereby endearing to its Support all wise and virtuous Men.

Tho. Burrows, High Sheriff.

Firmly attached to your Majesty, and deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity to join the general Voice of the Nation in our Prayers to the Almighty, that he may long preserve your Majesty for the Happiness of your People, and for the Defence of our glorious and free Constitution against foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors.

Signed in Presence of the Meeting, and by their Appointment.

We have viewed with Abhorrence and Indignation the guilty Attempts of desperate and abandoned Traitors, and we earnestly hope, that the Punishment so justly incurred by the Perpetrators of such enormous Crimes, may, by its Example, secure the august Person of your Majesty from future Danger, and ensure the undisturbed Tranquillity of your United Kingdom.

Long, Sire, may you reign, blessed in the Enjoyment of your domestic Comfort, happy in the Affections of an united People, and protected by the Agis of Divine Omnipotence from the insidious Attacks of secret Enemies, and the open Assaults of hostile Violence.

We cannot be sufficiently thankful to God, that, out of his Mercy to this Nation, he has interposed to preserve your Majesty's invaluable Life. And that it may be long continued for the Good of all your People is our most fervent Wish.

Dumbarton, April 8, 1803. Elphinstone, Preses.

And we embrace this Opportunity to renew the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and to your illustrious House, our Readiness at all Times to defend, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's invaluable Life against the Attempts of secret or avowed Enemies, and our firm Determination to exert ourselves at all Times to bring to light, and to defeat any traitorous Attempt to disturb the public Tranquillity, or to excite Sedition amongst your Majesty's Subjects.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the County of Wicklow, at a Meeting held in Wicklow, April Fifth, One thousand eight hundred and three.

William Heighington, Sheriff of the County of Wicklow.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the sincerest Sentiments of Congratulation on the Detection and Failure of the late horrible Conspiracy against the Person and Government of your sacred Majesty.

We deplore the dangerous and treasonable Spirit which actuated those worthless and guilty Individuals; and contemplate with unbounded Gratitude the signal Interposition of an all-gracious Providence, so often manifested in the Preservation of a Life endeared to the Subjects of this Realm by your Majesty's public and private Virtues.

We have a just and proper Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under the mild and paternal Government of your Majesty: We know the Superiority of our glorious Constitution; and we hereby declare our firm Resolution to resist to the utmost of our Ability all treasonable, all hostile Attempts, whether domestic or foreign, that may be made by wicked Men or ambitious Governments against the Person of your Majesty, and the Safety of your Dominions.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in perfect Health and undisturbed Security over this free, loyal, and happy Nation.

Henry Grosfild Lewis, High Sheriff.

[Presented by D. S. Dugdale, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Galway, assembled pursuant to public Notice.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot view in silent Abhorrence the late unnatural Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the Liberties of your People. We are grateful for the signal Interposition of Divine Providence which has defeated a Purpose so atrocious, and preserved our beloved Sovereign, and the Tranquillity of the Empire.

We deplore that any Subjects living under the freest and happiest Government in the World, could be lost to Gratitude and their Allegiance so far, as to conspire against a Life rendered dear by its virtuous Influence, and sacred by our ancient Laws.

Your faithful Subjects are firmly persuaded that their Liberties are identified with the Safety, Honour, and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown; and we acknowledge with Gratitude the manifold Benefits which we have received during your auspicious Reign. Sensible of the Blessings of external Peace and internal Security, we view unawed, but not without Regret, those recent Appearances which menace Interruption of public Tranquillity. We assure your Majesty, however, that should the Aggression of any other Power renew those Troubles which we deprecate, we are ready to defend, by every generous Exertion of Loyalty, your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Honor of the British Constitution.

N. Blake, High Sheriff of the County of Galway.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the wicked Designs of Blood-thirsty Conspirators. Truly sensible of the Blessings we have long enjoyed under your mild Government, we solemnly pledge ourselves to hazard every Thing that is dear to us in the Support of it, as well against foreign as domestic Enemies. And whilst many other States tamely submit to the galling Yoke, we will convince the haughty Ruler of a Great Nation, that Britons never will be Slaves.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Meeting.

Geo. Bowen, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Milford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, in a general Meeting assembled.

Highly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, our Hearts are unfeignedly thankful for the Defeat of the diabolical Designs of those Conspirators against your Majesty's Person and Government, who were so justly brought to condign Punishment: And it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may be long preserved to rule over a free and happy People.

We embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that, if Recourse to Arms is again necessary, we will be ready to come forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty, and of our excellent Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Machinations of Treason; and with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Almighty we acknowledge this among the many signal Instances of his Divine Interposition, and that a timely Detection of the Conspiracy was permitted to prevent the awful Consequences, which the Completion of such a Scheme must inevitably have produced; and we sincerely hope that the same Almighty Power, which has hitherto protected your Majesty's invaluable Life, will continue to guard and preserve it; that you may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a loyal, free, and happy People.

On Behalf of the County,

Shafto Crafter, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Presented by the Honorable Charles Grey, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Carnarvon, assembled at the Grand Jury Room in the Town of Carnarvon, on Monday the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our dutiful and heartfelt Congratulations on the recent Detection and Defeat of the nefarious and treasonable Designs upon your Majesty's Life.

In this Instance, as in others peculiarly affecting the well-being of these Realms, we recognise the Interposition of a merciful and just Providence watching over the Life of a beloved Sovereign, the Safeguard of our civil and religious Liberties, and of all the political Happiness, which, as a Nation, we so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government: At the same Time we cannot help experiencing the deepest Regret and Astonishment in reflecting there have been found among the Subjects of a Prince, who deserves their warmest Affections, Persons capable of engaging in a Plot so strange and unnatural; and such as only could have been engendered in the most depraved Mind, and fostered only in a callous Heart. But still we feel a grateful Conviction of our own Security in the mild but effective Operation of those Laws, which guard equally the Frame of our happy Constitution, and the Lives and Liberties of all your Majesty's Subjects.

G. Ll. Wardle, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, convened by the High-Sheriff on Wednesday the Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, holding in Abhorrence and extreme Detestation every Attempt which could endanger the Life of our beloved and revered Sovereign, beg Leave humbly to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from a late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, intended against your Royal Person and Government. To your Majesty's transcendent Virtues we attribute that, under your auspicious Reign, we have for a Series of Years enjoyed every Blessing which could be expected, while Wildness and Anarchy prevailed in neighbouring Nations; and we still entertain a confident Hope that the same Almighty Power, which has been your Majesty's Shield and Defence from former traitorous Machinations, will continue his gracious Protection, and preserve to us, for Years to come, a Life of inestimable Value to your Majesty's faithful and grateful People.

Henry Archer, High-Sheriff of the County of Wexford.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, have heard with Horror and Indignation of the atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person; and therefore humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most earnest Assurances of the firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, deeply impressed with a true Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, and your Majesty's parental Care; and with Hearts filled with Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's providential Escape.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, freed from the wicked Designs of your Majesty's foreign and domestic Enemies, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, convened at Hamilton this Seventh Day of April, One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Belhaven.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Preservation from the late detestable Conspiracy, which was formed to destroy the sacred Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the revered Constitution and Government of this Realm.

We rely with Confidence, as it is our fervent Prayer, that the same Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your precious Life, will continue to guard your Majesty against all Assaults foreign or domestic, and long preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch, whose chief Care has ever been the Welfare and Happiness of his People.

Signed in our Name, and by Appointment, in a General Meeting of the said County, held at Banff this Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, by

Geo. Abercromby, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Sir William Grant, Master of the Rolls, and Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Derby, deeply abhorring and execrating the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the Detection of that most mischievous and atrocious Design, and on the happy Preservation of your Majesty. Truly sensible, as we are, of your Majesty's ever watchful Attention to the Security of your People, the Security of your Majesty must always be our dearest Concern. With Hearts filled with Gratitude, Reverence, and affectionate Attachment, we humbly beg Leave to offer our most earnest Wishes for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Life.

Signed by the Order, and in the Name of a General County Meeting, held at Derby, the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Robert Wilmot, Sheriff.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, the Right Honorable Lord G. H. Cavendish, and Edward M. Mundy, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of the late atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. We offer our sincere Thanks to that Almighty Providence which has in this, as well as in former Instances, guarded and protected your Majesty's sacred Life from the Attempts of Traitors; and we cannot but lament, that in these Dominions there could exist Principles capable of giving Birth to a Crime of such Enormity, and Persons capable of putting it into Execution. While in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, we feel highly sensible of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and beneficent Government, our Duty and our Interest equally concur in teaching us, that the Prosperity of this great and important Country, and even the Existence of our Manufactures and Commerce are peculiarly involved in the Support of our invaluable Constitution. We heartily pray, that the Divine Providence may continue to watch over your Majesty's Life, and preserve it for many Years from the Violence of open Enemies or the Attempts of secret Conspirators, for the Happiness of your faithful and affectionate People.

In the Name of the Meeting,

Isaac Blackburne, Sheriff.

Preston, March 31, 1803.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Caithness, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Sensible, as we are, how closely united the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects is with the Preservation of your most valuable Life, we cannot view without Abhorrence the detestable and traitorous Plans that were laid by a few daring and desperate Persons to make an Attempt on it, or think of the happy Discovery of that Plot, by which a Life so valuable to all your Majesty's Subjects was preserved, without returning the Supreme Director of all Things our most fervent Thanks for the Discovery and final Discomfiture of it.

We trust that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Projectors of so black a Deed will deter others from Attempts of the same Kind: That the Solemnity and Impartiality of their Trial will convince the whole World of the Happiness enjoyed by all Ranks under your Ma-

Jeſty's juſt and mild Government, where even the fouleſt Traitor meets a fair Trial, and where Punishment only follows Conviction.

While we thus approach the Throne with our humble Congratulations for the happy Failure of ſo dreadful a Conſpiracy, which only our remote Situation prevented being ſooner conveyed to your Maſteſty, we hope that we may be permitted to add to them our unalterable Attachment to your Maſteſty's Perſon and Government, and our Determination to ſupport both with our Lives and Fortunes, ſhould the Enemies of our Country provoke a Renewal of Hoſtilities.

Signed in Prefence and by Appointment of a General Meeting at Thurſo, the Firſt Day of April One thouſand eight hundred and three Years, by Caitheſs, Prefes.

[Preſented by Sir John Sinclair, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply for the County of Ayr.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply for the Shire of Ayr, aſſembled here this Day by public Adverſement for that Purpoſe, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence, owing to which the late foul and treacherous Conſpiracy againſt your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon has been timely diſcovered and happily fruſtrated.

Inviolably attached to our excellent Conſtitution, and deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Maſteſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, we could not, without indignant Horror, ſee an Attempt made to deprive us of theſe inelſtimable Benefits; an Attempt in which the deſperate and unprincipled, as well as the deluded, Traitors have perished; and we confidently truſt that ſuch ſhall be the End of every ſimilar Treason, convinced that your Maſteſty reigns in the Hearts of a free and united People.

We earneſtly pray to Almighty God that your Maſteſty may long continue to reign over us; and that we may long enjoy the Bleſſings we have experienced under the paternal Care of our preſent beloved Sovereign.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the Twenty-fifth of March One thouſand eight hundred and three.

Ad. Fergusſon, Prefes.

[Preſented by the Earl of Eglinton.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Kerry.

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to offer to your Maſteſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your late happy Eſcape from the deſperate and wicked Conſpiracy aimed againſt your ſacred Perſon; and, at the ſame Time, to expreſs our heartfelt Satisfaction, that thoſe wicked Men engaged in that atrocious Deſign, have been brought to condign Punishment, and made a ſalutary Example.

We humbly hope, that this Tribute of our Loyalty will be received with Favour by your Maſteſty, as coming from a Quarter untainted by Rebellion, and which, whiſt Inſurrection and Outrage prevailed in other Parts, maintained its Allegiance inviolate.

Juſtly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Maſteſty's benignant Government, it is our ſervent Prayer, that the ſame Providence, which hath already ſo often interpoſed to preſerve ſo valuable a Life, may continue to defend it, granting you a long and prosperous Reign over a grateful and a united People.

William Meredith, Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Earl of Glandore.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, at a Meeting held this Twenty-firſt Day of March One thouſand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to offer at this Period our ſincere Congratulations to your Maſteſty on the Diſcovery of the late treaſonable and traitorous Conſpiracy, which, by the Interpoſition of Divine Providence, hath been ſo fortunately and timely prevented, as to render the dreadful and dire Machinations of evil-diſpoſed and wicked Men of no Effect, and thereby has not only ſecured to us that moſt valuable Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, your Maſteſty's ſacred Life, but alſo the Lives and Properties of your Maſteſty's faithful Subjects, and our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, which hath ſo nobly withſtood the Convulſion that had threatened the Peace and Tranquillity of the whole World.

We alſo beg Leave to expreſs our firm Loyalty and Zeal for your Maſteſty's Perſon and Government; and to aſſure your Maſteſty that this your loyal County will, whenever the Situation of public Affairs require it, with the utmoſt Ardour in our Power, defend the Honor and Dignity of the Crown, and the Interests and Security of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all Enemies, whether foreign or domeſtic.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Maſteſty with heartfelt Sincerity and Satisfaction on the Diſcovery, and, we hope, total Extinction of the late treaſonable and wicked Conſpiracy, intended to overthrow and destroy our excellent and revered Government and Constitution by a deliberate and atrocious Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Deeply impressed with the great Happiness we enjoy under the paternal Government of your Majesty, in the impartial Protection of our Persons and Properties, and the Exercise of true Liberty, we cannot sufficiently express our Indignation and Abhorrence of the traitorous Machinations of the late insatuated and wicked Conspirators; and we feel a renewed, and, if possible, an additional Impulse for the Preservation of your Majesty's inestimable Life.

We consider the late Attempt as one of the last Heads of that Hydra of Faction and Anarchy which has menaced civil Society in these portentous Times; and trust that, under Divine Providence, and by the united Vigilance and Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers and loyal Subjects, your Majesty may long live to reign in the Hearts of a free People, and preserve the Independence, Honor, Prosperity, and Peace of the United Kingdom against all treasonable or ambitious Projects both of domestic and foreign Enemies.
