

Majesty's just and mild Government, where even the foulest Traitor meets a fair Trial, and where Punishment only follows Conviction.

While we thus approach the Throne with our humble Congratulations for the happy Failure of so dreadful a Conspiracy, which only our remote Situation prevented being sooner conveyed to your Majesty, we hope that we may be permitted to add to them our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Determination to support both with our Lives and Fortunes, should the Enemies of our Country provoke a Renewal of Hostilities.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of a General Meeting at Thurso, the First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years, by Caithefs, Preses.

[Presented by Sir John Sinclair, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply for the County of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply for the Shire of Ayr, assembled here this Day by public Advertisement for that Purpose, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the signal Interposition of Divine Providence, owing to which the late foul and treacherous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person has been timely discovered and happily frustrated.

Inviolably attached to our excellent Constitution, and deeply impressed with a Sense of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we could not, without indignant Horror, see an Attempt made to deprive us of these inestimable Benefits; an Attempt in which the desperate and unprincipled, as well as the deluded, Traitors have perished; and we confidently trust that such shall be the End of every similar Treason, convinced that your Majesty reigns in the Hearts of a free and united People.

We earnestly pray to Almighty God that your Majesty may long continue to reign over us; and that we may long enjoy the Blessings we have experienced under the paternal Care of our present beloved Sovereign.

Signed by our Preses, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the Twenty-fifth of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Ad. Fergusson, Preses.

[Presented by the Earl of Eglinton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Kerry.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon your late happy Escape from the desperate and wicked Conspiracy aimed against your sacred Person; and, at the same Time, to express our heartfelt Satisfaction, that those wicked Men engaged in that atrocious Design, have been brought to condign Punishment, and made a salutary Example.

We humbly hope, that this Tribute of our Loyalty will be received with Favour by your Majesty, as coming from a Quarter untainted by Rebellion, and which, whilst Insurrection and Outrage prevailed in other Parts, maintained its Allegiance inviolate.

Justly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benignant Government, it is our fervent Prayer, that the same Providence, which hath already so often interposed to preserve so valuable a Life, may continue to defend it, granting you a long and prosperous Reign over a grateful and a united People.

William Meredith, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Earl of Glandore.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, at a Meeting held this Twenty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to offer at this Period our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Discovery of the late treasonable and traitorous Conspiracy, which, by the Interposition of Divine Providence, hath been so fortunately and timely prevented, as to render the dreadful and dire Machinations of evil-disposed and wicked Men of no Effect, and thereby has not only secured to us that most valuable Blessing to these Kingdoms, your Majesty's sacred Life, but also the Lives and Properties of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and our excellent Constitution in Church and State, which hath so nobly withstood the Convulsion that had threatened the Peace and Tranquillity of the whole World.

We also beg Leave to express our firm Loyalty and Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty that this your loyal County will, whenever the Situation of public Affairs require it, with the utmost Ardour in our Power, defend the Honor and Dignity of the Crown, and the Interests and Security of these Kingdoms, against all Enemies, whether foreign or domestic.

And we most humbly implore that your Majesty's Reign may continue long and prosperous, as it has hitherto been to these Kingdoms, under the mild and temperate Administration of those Laws, which have proved the Guardian of our Prosperity, and the Protection of the civil Rights and Liberties of a free, happy, and independent People.

Signed Owen Molyneux Wynne, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir Thomas Mostyn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty with heartfelt Sincerity and Satisfaction on the Discovery, and, we hope, total Extinction of the late treasonable and wicked Conspiracy, intended to