

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 23, to Tuesday April 26, 1803.

St. James's, April 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, beg to offer our Congratulations upon the Detection of the late treasonable Conspiracy.

Sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, and of the truly paternal Interest evinced on all Occasions by your Majesty for the Welfare of your People, we have heard with Horror and Indignation of the Attack which was meditated upon your sacred Person.

We could not indeed have believed that the Mind of Man was capable of conceiving so atrocious a Design, had not the Guilt of those Traitors, who have so justly forfeited their Lives, been so fully and clearly proved in the mildest Court of Judicature.

The Names of those desperate and daring Conspirators will be held in eternal Execration, whilst their diabolical Intentions will only serve to increase (if it be possible) the affectionate Regard for your Majesty, which animates every Class and Description of your Subjects.

Done at a General Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, convened by the Lord Lieutenant, and held in the Shire-House at the Castle of Norwich, on Saturday the Sixteenth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and signed at the Request of the said Meeting,

J. Wadehouse, Chairman.

[Presented by Marquis Townshend, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of Perthshire learnt with Astonishment, that, while your Majesty was surrounded by a loyal People, zealously attached by Affection and Gratitude to their Sovereign, and cordially devoted to their happy Constitution, a traitorous wicked Conspiracy had been formed against your Majesty's Life, and against the Government of this Country, by Men equally depraved in their Principles as infatuated in their Conduct. We, united with our Fellow-Subjects of all Ranks and Descriptions in Feeling, grateful to Heaven for preserving a Life so dear and so valuable, and for saving us from a Scene of Blood and temporary Confusion, which might have been produced in the vain Hope of erecting Anarchy and Despotism on the Ruins of that free Constitution which is so justly the Object of our heartfelt Attachment, and of our high Veneration. While we continue to feel, and shall still express, our Gratitude to Almighty God, by whose Blessing the desperate Conspiracy was brought to Light, and the active Exertions employed for its Detection were crowned with Success, we beg to present at your Majesty's Throne our sincere Congratulations, and to assure you, that no dutiful Endeavour on our Part shall be wanting in the Protection of your Majesty's Person, and in the Defence of the British Empire over which you reign, against the Machinations or Attacks of domestic or foreign Foes.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the Fifteenth of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Graham, Prefes.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Atholl.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, the Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, the Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, (assembled at a Meeting convened by the High Sheriff of the said County, at the Guildhall in the Town of Carmarthen,) being conscious of the many invaluable Blessings which we uniformly have derived under your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Government, and knowing and feeling, with infinite Satisfaction, how much your Majesty has always at Heart the Welfare and Happiness of all the Subjects within your Majesty's Dominions, beg Leave to express in the strongest Terms our zealous Attachment, not only to your Majesty individually, but also to that glorious Constitution under which we fortunately enjoy every Blessing, a Constitution which has long since become the Admiration of all Europe, and the Envy of neighbouring Powers, and which we and every true and loyal Briton consider with inestimable Value.

Whilst we contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, we are bound to offer up, with all the Fervour of sincere and pious Devotion, our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for having, at the critical Moment of Danger, brought to Light so horrid a Conspiracy, whereby your Majesty's sacred Person was preserved to us from premeditated Destruction, and our glorious and invaluable Constitution from being overthrown or shaken, a Constitution grounded by such just and wise Laws, as brought the villainous Conspirators to just and condign Punishment for the villainous and execrable Intentions of their horrid Conspiracy.

We deeply lament there should be found in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions Men so totally insensible to the Amiability of your Majesty's Character, to the fatherly Love which your Majesty bears towards your Subjects in general, and of Dispositions so vile, that could even for a Moment harbour the Design, and endeavour to exercise the Means of depriving us, of the best and most virtuous of Sovereigns, and overturn the best and wisest of Constitutions.

Be assured, Sire, that we shall not fail to exert ourselves at all Times to the utmost of our Power in inculcating the Necessity of holding inviolate the sacred Person of your Majesty, and of preserving the Blessings derivable from that peaceable and orderly Demeanour which it is the Duty of all your Majesty's good Subjects to cherish and adopt.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and the Fruition, in the highest Degree, both of temporal and eternal Felicity, are the cordial Wishes of us, who, with the utmost Devotion and Veneration, subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects.

John Jones, for himself, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the said County of Carmarthen, assembled at the said Meeting.

Guild-Hall, Carmarthen,
April 12, 1803.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Interposition of Divine Providence to save this Nation from the Mischiefs of a diabolical and treasonable Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the venerable Constitution of our Country, in Church and State, claims from all Classes of your People Acknowledgments suitable to so signal a Blessing.

We, therefore, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Satisfaction on observing the Sensation which this Event has so justly excited throughout your united Empire. Such Token of loyal Attachment to your Majesty and of fixed Regard for that Establishment of social Order, which has been matured by the Wisdom of Ages within this Realm, meets with our entire Approbation, and our most hearty Concurrence.

We trust, Sire! that neither the Wiles of Sedition at Home, nor the inveterate Malice and frantic Arrogance of any foreign Potentate, will ever avail to abridge the Security of your Throne, or the Welfare of your Dominions.

Guildhall, Southmolton,
2d April 1803.

[Transmitted by Earl Fortescue, and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Palham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Queenborough, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery, and complete Failure, of the detestable and horrid Conspiracy which has been lately formed against your Royal Person and Government.

We assure your Majesty of our firm and affectionate Loyalty, and of our steady Attachment to the Principles on which your illustrious Family was placed on the Throne of these Realms, for the Protection and Preservation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and of our Determination to support your Majesty against every Attempt of domestic Traitors; against every Oppression of any Foreign Power on the Interest, Honor, and Independence of the Nation.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free, loyal, and united People, is our earnest and constant Prayer.

Given under the Corporation-Seal of this Borough the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by J. Prinsep and G. P. Moore, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Town Clerk, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave with Professions of the most profound Respect heartily to congratulate your Majesty on your signal and providential Preservation from the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy which was formed for the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Life, and the Subversion of our free and happy Constitution and Government.

The more we reflect with Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and diabolical Designs against your most sacred Life, endeared to us by the manifold Blessings we have pre-eminently enjoyed above all Nations in the World, during the Reign of a Sovereign, whose Government has been marked with the greatest Mildness, and constantly and uniformly directed to the public Welfare, the more heinous it appears to our View, consequently we want Words to express, with sufficient Energy our Indignation and Abhorrence towards the miserable Authors of so diabolical an Attempt, and are confident in ourselves that the happy and timely Discovery and Defeat thereof has diffused the greatest Joy throughout the Whole of your Majesty's Dominions.

Truly sensible, as well of the great Importance of the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Life to the Welfare of your Majesty's Dominions, and the Security of our glorious Constitution, as of the great and inestimable Benefits which all your Subjects derive under your Majesty's just and mild Government. We rely with Confidence, that the Vigilance of your Majesty's Government which has frustrated the Designs of those wicked and traitorous Conspirators may never cease; and that your Majesty's Life, so providentially protected, a Life so important to our Welfare, may be very long preserved.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most ardent Wishes, that your Majesty's Subjects may be ever loyal and grateful, and ever emulous of gaining your Royal Favour and Protection; that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, and in future be undisturbed by any Conspiracies and Attempts against your Majesty and our glorious Constitution; and that your People may remain undisturbed in those Blessings, which, from your paternal Care and Attention they have hitherto constantly enjoyed.

[Presented by Hamlyn Williams, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Carmarthen.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the High-Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Montgomery, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Failure of the late treasonable Machinations against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Impressed with a lively Sense of your Majesty's amiable Character, and viewing with Admiration both the Stability and Lustre which our matchless Constitution derives from your Majesty's splendid Virtues, we are thankful to that Providence which so signally watches over your Majesty, for preserving to us a Life so justly endeared to every good Briton: And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will not only steadily resent any direct Attack upon your Majesty's venerated Person and Government, but that we will also vigilantly observe, and openly expose, to the Indignation of all true Britons, the insidious Intrigues of any fanatical or desperate Anarchist, who may dare to offer the least indirect Violence to our inestimable Constitution, under which we are duly sensible that all Ranks enjoy that substantial and practical Liberty, which a delusive and sanguinary Philosophy must ever seek in vain, and which, under Divine Providence, hath rendered these happy Realms the Admiration and Envy of the World.

Given under our Common Seal this Fifth Day of April, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Forfar, beg Leave to approach your Throne, joining in the Congratulations of our Fellow-Subjects on the Discovery and Overthrow of the late diabolical Designs of wretched Traitors against your Majesty's precious Life, and for overturning the lawful Government of this Realm.

That Law and Justice was allowed to have free Course in the Punishment of Offences so atrocious, and to prevent their Repetition, we consider as highly proper and expedient.

That your Majesty's Repose may never more be interrupted by the desperate Designs of vile Traitors; that your Majesty may long continue in the Administration of a mild Government; and that your Subjects may long enjoy the Blessings of your Majesty's gentle and auspicious Reign, is our most fervent Wish and Prayer.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, at Forfar, the Seventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

John Watt, Provost.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chief Steward, Recorder, Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, truly sensible, from long and happy Experience, of the many and substantial Blessings we enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's auspicious and equitable Government, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and consequent Prevention of the late truly desperate and atrocious Conspiracy; a Conspiracy which had for its avowed and immediate Objects the Destruction of your Majesty's sacred Life, and the total Subversion of our most excellent and invaluable Constitution. Gratefully acknowledging ourselves to be blessed with the practical Enjoyment of every Degree of Liberty consistent with the Preservation of civil Order and good Government, we cannot reflect but with equal Horror and Surprise on every Attempt to deprive us of these most enviable Blessings, from whatever Source such Dangers may arise, whether from the unprincipled and sanguinary Views of determined Enemies to our happy Constitution, or from the visionary and no less alarming Machinations of deluded and misguided Enthusiasts.

From such, and every other Evil, long may the Blessing of God's Providence preserve your Majesty's sacred Person, and long may your Majesty's truly exemplary and acknowledged Virtues continue to be rewarded by the merited Love and Affections of a prosperous, loyal, and united People.

Thomas Harley, Chief Steward.

[Presented by the Earl of Essex, Recorder, John Lubbock, Esq; and the Honorable Charles Kinnaird, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of your Burgh of Wick, in Common-Council assembled, do humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer up our Tribute of Congratulation to your Majesty upon the timely Discovery of those traitorous Designs which were directed against the Life of our beloved Sovereign.

Our Abhorrence of such wicked and daring Plots can only be equalled by our Gratitude to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life so justly dear and valuable to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects. We hope and trust, that the same protecting Providence will long continue to these Realms those Blessings which they derive from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and that the late lawful Example of the Justice of our Laws will serve to convince the secret Enemies of the State, if any such still exist, that the Fabric of our glorious Constitution is not to be shaken by their wicked and desperate Attempts.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Town-Council, by Will. Mac Lary, Chief Residing Magistrate.
Wick, April 6, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Cardigan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Cardigan, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Throne with the most lively and heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late treacherous Designs against your Royal Person.

We trust that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Projection of so foul a Deed, will, while it warns the Traitor of his Punishment, convince the loyal of the Protection our revered Constitution affords, and essentially secure your Majesty and the United Kingdom, over which the Goodness and Mercy of Providence has placed and preserved you, from such guilty Attempts in future, to disturb the public Tranquillity.

Long may the Almighty guard the Throne of this Realm from the Assaults of Violence, and the insidious Attacks of domestic Treasons; and long may your Majesty, in your Person and Family, enjoy that Quiet and Happiness in governing, which are so intimately interwoven with the dearest Possessions of the free and happy People who obey.

Signed by Order of the Court,

John Bowen, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Chief Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Beaumaris, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious and wicked Conspiracy against your sacred Person and Government. Impressed with a just Sense of Abhorrence against those Persons, whose daring and traitorous Designs have, under Divine Providence, by the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers, been so effectually frustrated.

Fully sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy under your mild Government, and admiring those Virtues which adorn your Majesty's sacred Character, we cannot but offer up our Thanksgivings to the Supreme Director of Events, who has, by his signal Interposition, averted the fatal Calamity which threatened the Security of our public Happiness, and preserved a Life so justly dear to us.

We also beg to assure your Majesty that our Attachment and Loyalty remains firm and undiminished.

And we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in undisturbed Security over a happy, free, and loyal People.

We contemplate with equal Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity; and humbly return Thanks to the Almighty for the Discovery of so diabolical a Plot; and most fervently pray that every traitorous Design against your Majesty's precious Life, and our excellent Constitution, may meet with similar Detection and Punishment; and that your Majesty may long reign beloved and revered by your People as their Father and their Sovereign.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Borough the Twenty-ninth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

beg Leave to join the general Voice of your People, in expressing the Horror we feel at the late daring and wicked Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to assure your Majesty, that the Attempts of abandoned Conspirators, or insidious foreign Enemies, will only tend to strengthen in our Hearts, if possible, that dutiful Affection and Veneration so justly due to the Father of his People, and teach us more truly to appreciate the Blessings of our happy and envied Constitution, under which only true and genuine Freedom can be enjoyed.

And we beg Leave further, most dutifully to assure your Majesty, that whether against foreign Enemies or domestic Traitors, we are at all Times ready to shed our Blood in Defence of your sacred Person and Government; and we humbly trust, that Almighty God will continue to grant that evident and immediate Protection so often afforded to our beloved Sovereign, and that He will be graciously pleased long to avert from your Majesty's faithful People, the greatest Calamity they could feel.

We had fondly hoped, that, when the calm Season of Peace arrived, Disaffection would contemplate with Disgust the Havoc it had made, and, viewing Objects in their natural Proportions and proper Colours, would discern the Beauty, and acknowledge the Excellence, of practical Liberty, regulated by wise and well-executed Laws; and that, by contrasting the certain Security and Happiness of the Subjects of this Realm under your Majesty's wise and merciful Administration of our long-tried and unequalled Constitution, with the Uncertainty of every Thing but Misery under new and experimental Forms of Government, it would learn to appreciate the Value of each, and would relinquish every Scheme which might endanger the former or introduce the latter.

We lament the Disappointment of our pleasing Expectations; and see with mingled Indignation and Horror that domestic Traitors still exist, zealous to destroy the Repose we begin to enjoy, to rob us of a Sovereign who lives but for his People, and to subvert a Constitution which other Nations admire and envy, but which only those who are possessed of it can truly estimate the Value of; Wretches who would banish from these Heaven-favoured Islands Virtue, Order, and social Happiness, and introduce in their Stead Discord, Anarchy, and Murder of the blackest Dye, with every Vice and every Crime which the foulest Imagination could devise, the most depraved Heart delight in, or the most savage Hand perpetrate.

Yet still we hope there are but few such Monsters; and that the late horrible Conspiracy was the expiring Effort of democratic Frenzy, on the providential Frustration of which we now congratulate with your Majesty and our Fellow-Subjects, and join in grateful Thanksgiving to Heaven. And we trust that the God, who presides over Kings and Empires, will continue to protect your sacred Person and illustrious Family;—that the Sceptre will long remain in your Hand;—and that when, in Fulness of Years and Honors, you shall be removed to a better Kingdom, it shall be transmitted from Age to Age, unfulfilled and unimpaired, through a long Line of your illustrious Descendants, Inheritors of your Virtues, and Heirs to your Glory.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common-Seal of said Corporation to be hereunto affixed, the Second Day of April, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

of so enormous a Crime; and to assure your Majesty that it is our most earnest Prayer that Providence will continue long to preserve the Life of a Monarch, whose chief Care has ever been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverkeithing,

The Blessings which your Majesty's faithful Subjects experience under a Constitution so enviable, and a Sovereign so beneficent, cannot fail to inspire them with the highest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment towards your sacred Person and Government.

Under these Impressions we acknowledge with Gratitude, the providential Care of the Supreme Being, in shielding your Majesty in the Hour of Danger, by defeating the Perpetration of a horrid Design that would have overwhelmed the Nation with a Calamity the most awful. And we fervently implore, that the Almighty may continue to you, Majesty his Divine Protection; and that the Blessings now enjoyed by all the Subjects of the Bri-

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, in Common-Hall assembled, entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulations on your providential Escape from the imminent Danger that lately awaited your sacred Life, so justly dear to all your Subjects; and by the intended Attack on which was manifestly designed the total Destruction of our happy Constitution,—a Constitution that is the Pride and Glory of this Country, and the Admiration and Envy of the World; and we offer our most grateful Acknowledgements to Almighty God for this additional Instance of his Divine Goodness, in bringing to Light and defeating one of the most atrocious and traitorous Conspiracies ever projected against your Majesty's Life and Government : And we hope and trust that your Majesty's Life will long be preserved to bless your dutiful and loyal Subjects, to whom your gracious Majesty has, during a long and happy Reign, set the brightest Example of Piety and Virtue.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Chipping Campden, and also of the Inhabitants of the several Hamlets or Tythings of Berrington, Broad Campden, Westington, and Coombe, lying within the Parish of Chipping Campden, in the County of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Parish of Chipping Campden, in the County of Gloucester, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our free Constitution ; gratefully appreciating the many Advantages which have accompanied the Progress of your Majesty's Reign, both in Arts, Wealth, Liberty, and every Species of National Prosperity ; and feeling that your paternal Care has been extended to every Class of your Subjects, humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations upon the Failure of that audacious and most wicked Conspiracy, directed against the sacred Person of your Majesty with an Intention of destroying, from its Foundation, the British Constitution.

Roused by the Love we bear your Majesty, and the Veneration with which we regard our established Form of Government, we are of Opinion that, at this important Conjunction, it is the Duty of every Individual of Honesty and Common Sense to express in the most public and efficacious Manner their utter Abhorrence of those Principles, which alone could engender so monstrous a Purpose ; Principles calculated to infligate to the Perpetration of every Enormity the malignant or misguided Spirits who adopt them, and to eradicate from the human Breast every Sentiment belonging to the Dignity of our Nature.

We reflect with Astonishment upon the miserable Contrivers of this hateful Project, equally contemptible as it is atrocious ; for (aimed at a Life justly endeared to all except themselves and their infamous and most hardened Associates, and against a Form of Government the most excellent in the World) nothing but a Stupidity darkening and confusing, by a most providential Consequence, the Minds of Men which admit the Entertainment of shameful and cruel Designs of Treasons, could have induced them for a Moment to expect its Success, or even to escape Detection before the dreadful Hour of its Explosion : Such a Disposition, however wonderful, having been shewn to exist, must be watched and guarded against in every Quarter of your Majesty's Dominions. And we assure your Majesty that we will oppose to all Enemies of the State, both foreign and domestic, the most energetic Resistance in our Power.

We are thankful, that, by the laudable Vigilance of your Majesty's Administration, this meditated Scene of Riot, Murder, and Plunder has been prevented ; and we earnestly hope that the universal Prayer addressed to the Throne of Grace for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life may be granted to an affectionate and loyal People.

Dated at Chipping Campden the Sixth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Gerard Noel Noel, Esq; Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Rutland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble but loyal Congratulatory Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall, humbly beg Leave, thus publicly to express to your Majesty and the World, our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the late traitorous and atrocious Conspiracies levelled against your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and the envied Constitution of this Kingdom ; and our sincere Thanks to Almighty God for his providential and timely Detection thereof.

That the same Almighty Providence may continue to preserve to us the Blessings of our present Constitution in Church and State under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty, whose Life we hope to see protracted to a late, very late, Period of Time, and of your Royal Race, shall be our constant and ardent Prayer.

And we thus further beg Leave to declare our firm Resolution at all Times, as far as may be in our Power, to defend to the utmost your Majesty's Person against all Enemies public and private, and aid and support your Majesty's uniform Endeavours to preserve inviolate that Constitution, the Blessings of which we have so long enjoyed.

March 28, 1803. Tippet, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Wadehouse, Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations, that by the Interposition of Providence the horrid Plot lately laid against the sacred Life of your Majesty has been detected and frustrated.

Conscious that we have long enjoyed many and eminent Blessings under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we reflect with Abhorrence and Detestation on the Designs of those deluded and abandoned Men against a Life so justly dear to all, and on which the public Prosperity so manifestly depends.

And we earnestly pray, that by the same watchful and kind Providence your Majesty may long be preserved as a common Blessing to your faithful People.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting,
W. Birch, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Mills, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcaldy, in Council assembled, for ourselves, and in the Name of the Community of the Burgh, with grateful Thanks to Almighty God, beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on the providential Discovery, and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Most anxious for the Welfare of our Country, which is so nearly connected with your Majesty's personal Safety, we embrace this Opportunity of renewing our Expressions of sincere Attachment and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government. And it is our earnest Prayer, that that Providence, which has hitherto watched over your valuable Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and preserve to your Majesty's faithful Subjects, a Monarch, whose chief Care has been the Happiness of his People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, this Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Walter Fergus, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York, beg Leave, with due Humility, to approach your Royal Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from one of the most horrid and atrocious Conspiracies that has ever appeared on the Records of human Depravity.

Had not the Fact been incontestably established by the Verdict of an English Jury, it would have been extremely difficult to have reconciled the Mind to a Belief that the Perpetration of so foul a Deed, a Crime which appals us with Horror and Dismay, could possibly have been in the Contemplation of any human Being, much less in that of any of your Majesty's Subjects.

At a Time when Objects of the greatest National Importance must necessarily occupy your Royal Attention, it would ill become us to presume to add more than humbly to assure your Majesty that we will earnestly offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that he may be graciously pleased to continue his superintending Care to protect and guard your Royal Person from every possible Injury; and that your Majesty's Reign may be protracted to a very remote Period of Time, and may, henceforth, prove as uninterruptedly happy to the Monarch as it has been uniformly propitious to the Subjects of the British Empire.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Queensferry, being truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty that the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies, which lately threatened to undermine the Constitution, have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person has been defeated.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened, and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate in Name and by Appointment of the Council, the Common-Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed, at Queensferry, the Nineteenth Day of March Eighteen hundred and three Years.

John Martin.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of the late wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We cannot in Language sufficiently strong express our Horror and Detestation of so atrocious a Design to destroy our free and happy Constitution by an Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Life,—a Life rendered invaluable to us by those Virtues which so eminently adorn your Majesty's public and private Character.

We beg to assure your Majesty that it is our fixed Resolution, as it is our most sacred Duty, to defend and protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and to preserve inviolate that excellent Constitution, under which this Kingdom has attained to so exalted a Degree of Happiness and Prosperity.

Signed at the Request and on Behalf of the Meeting,
J. Rowe, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, Free Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, firmly attached to your Majesty, beg Leave humbly to offer to you our affectionate Congratulations on the timely Discovery of a base Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person.

Under your Majesty's paternal Care and Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, our glorious and free Constitution has remained entire; and it is to the Astonishment of the World that there should have been found Men, calling themselves Subjects, to harbour Designs hostile to your Majesty's Life, which if carried into Effect, would have thrown your Majesty's Dominions into Anarchy and Confusion.

But, we trust, that the wicked Designs of such desperate Men may ever be defeated; and that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved, on which so essentially depends the Safety and Welfare of your People.

[Presented by J. H. Strutt and C. C. Western, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Recorder, and Burgesses, and others the Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford, in the County of Nottingham, do most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the providential Escape of your Majesty's sacred Person from the malicious Designs of desperate and wicked Traitors.

Every Attempt to subvert the Constitution of our happy Country serves to increase the Veneration of good Men for it, by calling forth those latent Excellencies, which prove that it is equally adapted to its own Preservation, and the general Happiness of the People living under its Protection.

Convinced that nothing can tend so much to the Happiness and Welfare of your Majesty's Subjects as a long Continuance of your Majesty's important Life, and the Constitution under which we live, we are led to look with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation on any Attempt that may be wickedly conceived to injure your Majesty's sacred Person, or to subvert our Laws, to the utter Destruction of all social Order.

That your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Affections and Support of a loyal and united People, will ever be the fervent Prayer of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Recorder, and Burgesses, and others the Inhabitants of the Town of East Retford, in the County of Nottingham.

[Presented by Colonel Robert Craufurd and John Frazer, Esqrs; Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Boscunney, and Treveud, in the Parish of Tintagel, in the County of Cornwall, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and venerating the distinguished Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, do humbly presume to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Constitution of this Kingdom; and at the same Time to express our most fervent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that every Effort of an external Enemy or domestic Faction to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of these Realms, or to subvert our glorious Constitution, may (as we are convinced they will) be crushed by the Bravery and Discipline of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and the steady Loyalty and Patriotism of your faithful Subjects.

28th March 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Lovaine.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Cupar, with Pleasure embrace the earliest Opportunity of our being assembled to express to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late atrocious and execrable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Life, and the Constitution of the Kingdom. On this awful and memorable Occasion we strongly feel the Sentiments of Gratitude to Divine Providence, of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of Detestation of the Principles and Deeds of Traitors. We are happy in having it in our Power to assure your Majesty that these Sentiments are felt and cherished among the People committed to our Care. They cordially join with us in our daily Prayers for the Preservation of your precious Life, and for the Stability and Perpetuity of the Constitution.

Signed in the Name, in the Presence, and by the Appointment of the Presbytery of Cupar, this Ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years, by

Sam. Martin, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company and Corporation of Cutlers, within Hallamshire, in the County of York, in their Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's late happy and providential Escape from a traitorous and most wicked Conspiracy of evil-minded Men.

When we consider the many Blessings that we have long experienced under your Majesty's mild and paternal Care, and when we reflect upon the dreadful Consequences which must have happened had the Designs of those desperate Men succeeded, we find ourselves unable, in Terms sufficiently strong, to convey to your Majesty a true Sense of our utter Detestation of their diabolical Attempts; however, under these our Reflections, we have to console ourselves in believing that the abhorred Conspiracy was not the Conspiracy of vast Numbers, but of a very few, and those, with a single Exception, of the lowest Orders of Men. We most fervently thank Almighty God that their Attempts have been frustrated.

As a commercial Body, and in our corporate Capacity, permit us to take this Opportunity to return your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for the anxious Solicitude your Majesty has uniformly evinced in promoting, encouraging, and protecting the Manufactures and Trade of this blessed Empire.

That your Majesty may ever experience the Divine Protection against every Attack of Violence, either of domestic Treason or of a foreign Enemy, and may always possess the Affections of a loyal and happy People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Sealed by the Master, Wardens, Searchers, and Assistants of the Company and Corporation of Cutlers, within Hallamshire, in their Common-Hall, in Sheffield, assembled, this Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Jos. Withers, Master Cutler, Chairman.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Fife, embrace the Opportunity of our meeting together to congratulate your Majesty on the timely Detection of a wicked Conspiracy, formed against your Majesty's Royal Person, and the happy Constitution of these Realms.

Interested, in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, in the Preservation of a Life deservedly dear to us, and in the Maintenance of a Constitution under which we enjoy the most distinguished Advantages, we account it an Instance of providential Interposition, which justly claims our warmest Acknowledgements, that a Conspiracy, aiming at Ends so detestable in their Nature, and so destructive of the public Weal, has been completely defeated, and defeated too without any other Sacrifice of Life than what the Laws of our Country demanded.

While we rejoice in this happy Interposition, it is our earnest Prayer to God, that your Majesty may continue to enjoy the protecting Care of his Providence; and that, under his Protection, you may prolong your Days in your Kingdom, you and your-Children in the Midst of your People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Provincial Synod of Fife, by

Geo. Buish, Moderator.
