

has always at Heart the Welfare and Happiness of all the Subjects within your Majesty's Dominions, beg Leave to express in the strongest Terms our zealous Attachment, not only to your Majesty individually, but also to that glorious Constitution under which we fortunately enjoy every Blessing, a Constitution which has long since become the Admiration of all Europe, and the Envy of neighbouring Powers, and which we and every true and loyal Briton consider with inestimable Value.

Whilst we contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, we are bound to offer up, with all the Fervour of sincere and pious Devotion, our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for having, at the critical Moment of Danger, brought to Light so horrid a Conspiracy, whereby your Majesty's sacred Person was preserved to us from premeditated Destruction, and our glorious and invaluable Constitution from being overthrown or shaken, a Constitution grounded by such just and wise Laws, as brought the villainous Conspirators to just and condign Punishment for the villainous and execrable Intentions of their horrid Conspiracy.

We deeply lament there should be found in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions Men so totally insensible to the Amiability of your Majesty's Character, to the fatherly Love which your Majesty bears towards your Subjects in general, and of Dispositions so vile, that could even for a Moment harbour the Design, and endeavour to exercise the Means of depriving us, of the best and most virtuous of Sovereigns, and overturn the best and wisest of Constitutions.

Be assured, Sire, that we shall not fail to exert ourselves at all Times to the utmost of our Power in inculcating the Necessity of holding inviolate the sacred Person of your Majesty, and of preserving the Blessings derivable from that peaceable and orderly Demeanour which it is the Duty of all your Majesty's good Subjects to cherish and adopt.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and the Fruition, in the highest Degree, both of temporal and eternal Felicity, are the cordial Wishes of us, who, with the utmost Devotion and Veneration, subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects.

John Jones, for himself, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the said County of Carmarthen, assembled at the said Meeting.

Guild-Hall, Carmarthen,
April 12, 1803.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Interposition of Divine Providence to save this Nation from the Mischiefs of a diabolical and treasonable Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the venerable Constitution of our Country, in Church and State, claims from all Classes of your People Acknowledgments suitable to so signal a Blessing.

We, therefore, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Satisfaction on observing the Sensation which this Event has so justly excited throughout your united Empire. Such Token of loyal Attachment to your Majesty and of fixed Regard for that Establishment of social Order, which has been matured by the Wisdom of Ages within this Realm, meets with our entire Approbation, and our most hearty Concurrence.

We trust, Sire! that neither the Wiles of Sedition at Home, nor the inveterate Malice and frantic Arrogance of any foreign Potentate, will ever avail to abridge the Security of your Throne, or the Welfare of your Dominions.

Guildhall, Southmolton,
2d April 1803.

[Transmitted by Earl Fortescue, and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Palham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Quenborough, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery, and complete Failure, of the detestable and horrid Conspiracy which has been lately formed against your Royal Person and Government.

We assure your Majesty of our firm and affectionate Loyalty, and of our steady Attachment to the Principles on which your illustrious Family was placed on the Throne of these Realms, for the Protection and Preservation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and of our Determination to support your Majesty against every Attempt of domestic Traitors; against every Oppression of any Foreign Power on the Interest, Honor, and Independence of the Nation.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free, loyal, and united People, is our earnest and constant Prayer.

Given under the Corporation-Seal of this Borough the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by J. Prinsep and G. P. Moore, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Town Clerk, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave with Professions of the most profound Respect heartily to congratulate your Majesty on your signal and providential Preservation from the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy which was formed for the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Life, and the Subversion of our free and happy Constitution and Government.
