From Tuesday April 26, to Saturday April 30, 1803.

St. James's, April 28, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh, convened by the High-Sheriff, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the fortunate and timely Discovery of the late dangerous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we hold in due Abhorrence the Machinations of the Traitors concerned in so diabolical a Plot; and that we are too conscious of the inestimable Benefits which we enjoy under the Firmness and Mildness of your Majesty's auspicious Reign not to be ready upon every Occasion to step forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person, and the Constitution of our Country.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Carlow, convened by the High Sheriff by public Advertisement.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Carlow, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the utmost Horror and Detestation at the traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulation upon your providential Escape from the desperate Designs of the most atrocious Traitors; and we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall be at all Times ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, the Preservation of the Succession in your Majesty's illustrious House, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution.

Jas. Herring, High Sheriff County Carlow.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Galway, assembled pursuant to public Notice.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE assure your Majesty of our deep Regret at discovering that a traitorous Conspiracy existed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the Liberties of your People.

Whilst we regret that any Treason was found to exist in Subjects living under the freest and happiest Government in the World, we cannot but find some Consolation in reflecting that the unnatural Conspiracy was confined, with one degenerate Exception, to the lowest Classes of Society.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects are anxious on this Occasion to declare their Determination to defend, by the Sacrifice of whatever is most dear to us, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and to transmit to Posterity unimpaired the Blessings of the British Constitution.

John Strogon and Mich. Dillon, Sheriffs.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Queensferry, being truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, that the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies, which lately threatened to undermine the Constitution, have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person, has been defeated.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened; and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate, in Name and by Appointment of the Council, the Common-Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed, at Queensferry, the Nineteenth Day of March, Eighteen hundred and three Years.

John Martin.

[Presented by Sir John Henderson, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Counsellors of your ancient Borough of Inverkeithing, assembled in Common-Council, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majesty our humble but heartfelt Congratulations upon the late Failure and Detection of a wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; to express our Indignation and Horror of the wicked Machinations of those Traitors, whose Hearts could conceive the Perpetration of so enormous a Crime; and to assure your Majesty that it is our most earnest Prayer, that Providence will continue long to preserve the Life of a Monarch whose chief Care has ever been the Happiness and Welfare of his People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverkeithing, by John Elder, First Baillie.

[Presented by Sir John Henderson, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Culrois, beg Permission to approach the Throne with this humble Tribute of our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the late providential Preservation of your Royal Person, and of a Life so justly dear to the People over whom you reign.

[Presented by Sir John Henderson, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Donegal, assembled by public Requisition from the High-Sheriff on the first Day of the Assizes, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the desperate and wicked Designs of a few unprincipled Traitors.

We feel impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Divine Providence for bringing to Light so horrid a Conspiracy, at a Time when a fatal Security might have arisen from the strong Sentiments of Veneration and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, which warm the Hearts of all good Men; and when it might be presumed that recent Examples would have convinced the deluded few that your Majesty's Throne was too firmly fixed on the Basis of the Affections of your Subjects to be shaken by secret Conspiracy, or open Rebellion.

We trust with Confidence that the Virtues which have distinguished your Majesty's Reign will continue to secure the Protection of the Almighty; and, in the present Crisis of public Affairs, should it be necessary to have Recourse to Arms, we are ready to come forward, and use every possible Exertion to support the Honor and Dignity of your Throne, and the Peace and Security of the Empire.

William Todd, High-Sheriff of the County of Donegal.

Lifford, April 14, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the Queen's County, beg Leave to approach the Throne with sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late most atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

When we contemplate the Detection of this detestable Plot, we are impressed with the warmest Gratitude to the Almighty for his Interposition in continuing to guard the Life of a Sovereign so justly dear to all his Subjects; we embrace with Eagerness this Opportunity of renewing our Proclamations of dutiful Allegiance; and we trust that in declaring our steadfast Resolution to defend, with our Lives and Properties, your Majesty's sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity, we express the universal Sentiment of this loyal County.

Wm. Pigot, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

The humble and unanimous Address of the Nobility, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt and sincere Congratulations on the timely and providential Discovery of those traitorous Designs, which had for their Object the Destruction of your Royal Person, and with it the Overthrow of every Thing valuable to every Description of your People.

Our Abhorrence of these Designs can only be equalled by our Gratitude to that protecting Power, who, in Mercy to this Kingdom, has so signally preserved your Majesty's valuable Life, that it may diffuse amongst your Subjects those Blessings, which, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, it has long been our peculiar Happiness to enjoy.

We earnestly supplicate and entreat the great Disposer of all Events that your Majesty may be long preserved from every Danger, and may long continue to reign over a loyal, affectionate, and grateful People.

Thomas Going, High-Sheriff, for Self and County.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Lanark, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Escape from the Designs of wicked Men, and on the fortunate Discovery of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your most sacred Person and Government. Enjoying the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, we cannot but reflect with Astonishment on the Wickedness of the Traitors, and join in our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God for preserving your Majesty and your Government from their nefarious Designs: And our earnest Wish and Prayer is, that your Majesty's valuable Life may long be preserved for a Blessing to your People, and that our free and happy Constitution may remain unviolated.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this Seventh Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall, do humbly presume to offer our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Failure of a most wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; fully sensible of the many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, affectionately attached to you by the long Experience of your paternal Attention towards us, and firmly convinced of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, our fervent Wishes are, that Divine Providence may continue to strengthen you against all your Enemies, and that you may long reign in the Hearts of your People.

Wm. Clode, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiff, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, in the County of Devon.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Plympton Earle, in the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to unite in the general Sentiments of Abhorrence and Detestation expressed by your Majesty's faithful People at the late atrocious Attempts of wicked and designing Men to subvert our glorious Constitution, rendered still more happy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government. And we sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the providential Detection of those deluded Men, and fully concur in the ample Punishment which the Justice of their Country has inflicted on them.

Feeling, as we do, in Conjunction with all Ranks of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the invaluable Blessings which we at present enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's Government, we most earnestly pray for the long Continuance of it, and for the Health and Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person; and that neither the base Attempts of restless Traitors at Home, nor the Machinations of foreign Enemies, may operate to disturb that Tranquillity which happily has been so lately re-established in your Majesty's Dominions.

Jonathan Elford, Mayor.

[Presented by the Earl of Mount Edgcombe, Recorder of the said Borough.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Kilmarnock, for themselves, and in Name of the Community thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Council, and Community of Kilmarnock, deem it our indispensable Duty at this Time to approach the Throne, and to offer our warmest and most heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, which are deservedly dear to every Briton.

Convinced of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benign Government, and of the invaluable Benefits resulting from our happy Constitution, we could not but learn with Horror that flagitious Designs had been formed against either. We rejoice that these were frustrated, and the Life of our most gracious Sovereign, and the Constitution of our Country, thereby preserved.

That your Majesty may long be continued to preside and rule over a happy, loyal, and affectionate People, is the sincere Prayer of this Community.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of Council, by William Gregory and T. Greensields.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, met at Stirling this Day, embrace the earliest Opportunity humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery and Discomfiture of the late detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred and valuable Life, and the Existence of our happy and much-envied Constitution in Church and State.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the paternal Interest your Majesty has constantly felt for the Privileges and Happiness of your People, we cannot reflect without Horror on the recent Workings of Disloyalty and Treason; and we praise the God whom we serve for the Detection of such Wickedness, and offer to your Majesty our solemn Assurance that it will be our unceasing Care to infill, by every Mean in our Power, into the Minds of the People under our Charge the Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, and a dutiful Submission to your Majesty's Government.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may ever keep your Majesty under his sacred Protection, and defend you from all domestic and foreign Foes; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all your Majesty's Royal Family; that the Blessings which this Nation, and the Territories therewith connected, now enjoy under your Majesty's Government, may be continued through many Generations yet to come under the Government of a Race of Protestant Princes descended from your Majesty, are the most earnest and sincere Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, met in Stirling this Twentieth Day of April Eighteen hundred and three Years.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Rob. Clafon, Moderator.
[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively; for Payment of said the Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to “ Great Britain ; and for permitting, from and “ after the passing thereof, until the said First Day

 “ of July One thousand eight hundred and three,
 “ the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Bri“ tain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt “ into Great Britain from Ireland :” And whereas His Majesty’s said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last has been further continued until the Thirtieth Day of this instant April :

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer,
 His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoes, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirty-first Day of May next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James’s, Thursday, April 28, 1803.
