

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 26, to Saturday April 30, 1803.

St. James's, April 28, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Armagh, convened by the High-Sheriff, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the fortunate and timely Discovery of the late dangerous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we hold in due Abhorrence the Machinations of the Traitors concerned in so diabolical a Plot; and that we are too conscious of the inestimable Benefits which we enjoy under the Firmness and Mildness of your Majesty's auspicious Reign not to be ready upon every Occasion to step forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person, and the Constitution of our Country.

John Moore, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Carlow, convened by the High Sheriff by public Advertisement.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Carlow, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the utmost Horror and Detestation at the traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulation upon your providential Escape from the desperate Designs of the most atrocious Traitors; and we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall be at all Times ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, the Preservation of the Succession in your Majesty's illustrious House, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution.

Jas. Herring, High Sheriff County Carlow.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Galway, assembled pursuant to public Notice.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE assure your Majesty of our deep Regret at discovering that a traitorous Conspiracy existed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the Liberties of your People.

Whilst we regret that any Treason was found to exist in Subjects living under the freest and happiest Government in the World, we cannot but find some Consolation in reflecting that the unnatural Conspiracy was confined, with one degenerate Exception, to the lowest Classes of Society.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects are anxious on this Occasion to declare their Determination to defend, by the Sacrifice of whatever is most dear to us, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and to transmit to Posterity unimpaired the Blessings of the British Constitution.

John Strogon and Mich. Dillon, Sheriffs.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Queensferry, being truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, that the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies, which lately threatened to undermine the Constitution, have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person, has been defeated.
