

Government, and the Existence of our most invaluable Constitution, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most hearty Congratulations on the Discovery thereof, and timely Punishment of its wicked and contemptible Authors.

We beg Leave, Sire, to express our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Family and Government; and we sincerely pray to the Almighty that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, attended with neither Alarm or Danger; and we trust our Conduct will, at all Times, prove our Zeal in the Support of the Laws and Constitution of our Country against all traitorous Conspiracies, and all foreign and domestic Enemies.

Signed at the Castle in Oakham, on Monday the Eighteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three, at the Request of the Meeting, by the Chairman.

Carbery.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Carbery, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the Discovery of the detestable Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

Justly appreciating the Value of a mild and wise Administration of the Laws under which we live, we reflect with Surprise and Horror on the Machinations of a desperate Band of Traitors; and we trust the late most just and necessary Example will demonstrate, that they who seek their present Advantage in the Subversion of social Order, will meet the Destruction they merit. The Principles which actuated the atrocious Rebels we detest and execrate; the Vigilance and Energy of those by whom their diabolical Designs were prevented we admire and applaud; and we thank the merciful Ruler of the Universe that he has extended his protecting Arm over this highly-favoured Isle, by preserving a Life, for the Safety of which our Interest, our Duty, and our Gratitude bind us continually to pray.

[Presented by Sir Robert Williams Vaughan, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, assembled at Lent Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the wicked and daring Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Our Abhorrence of the Intention can only be equalled by our Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Detection of a Plot calculated to destroy the Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the Constitution and Government of the Realm.

We trust that the exemplary and just Punishment inflicted on the Traitors will prevent the Repetition of such atrocious Designs; and that the Vigilance and Energy of your Majesty's Government, aided by the Loyalty of your Subjects, will defeat every Attack upon our glorious and invaluable Constitution.

Signed by Order and on Behalf of the County,
Pat. Dundas, Sheriff.

[Presented by Viscount Clements, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Anglesey, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's Preservation by a providential Detection and Disappointment of a detestable Conspiracy which was formed for the Destruction of a beloved Sovereign, and to overthrow the Constitution and Government of the Realm.

While we reflect with Horror and Amazement on the atrocious and wicked Designs of those Traitors, whose Hearts could propose the Perpetration of a Crime of such Enormity, we cannot but offer our Thanksgivings to the Supreme Director of Events, who has, by his Interposition, protected your Majesty against the assassinating Hand of the Conspirators.

Feeling the benign Influence of your Majesty's Government uniformly directed to the Welfare of your People, and admiring those estimable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's sacred Character, we are confident that the Spirit of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and the Constitution continues firm and unaltered.

We hope that the Example of those, whose Lives have been so justly forfeited to the Vengeance of the Law, may be the Means of checking those flagitious Principles, which are subversive of all social Order and legitimate Authority.

We who, in this favoured Nation, know not their baneful Effects, and who enjoy the Blessings of a Constitution and Laws best calculated for the Happiness of a People, must see with painful Concern an Attempt to deprive us of those Privileges, and to introduce amongst us a System of Anarchy and Confusion.

Fortunately, for your Majesty's Subjects, the Designs of wicked Men have, by the Vigilance of Government, been frustrated; and we rely with Confidence that the same Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your gracious Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and to preserve to your Subjects a Monarch, who, we pray, may long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

W. B. Hughes, Sheriff.

[Presented by William Bulkeley Hughes, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs, Dur-