

cesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, beg Leave most fervently to join in the general Congratulation on the Detection and Defeat of the late treasonable and flagitious Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Impressed with a just and grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's benign and auspicious Reign, and animated with the warmest Sentiments of personal Attachment towards your Majesty, from the Contemplation of those Virtues, which, whilst they shed Lustre round the Throne, adorn the Path of private Life, and hold forth a bright Example for Imitation, we cannot but regard with proportionate and indignant Abhorrence all Designs and Attempts whatever, tending to endanger these inestimable Benefits; and we ardently pray that the same Almighty Power, who rules the Fate of Empires, and holds in his Hands the Destinies of Men, may long preserve and uphold your Majesty against all your Enemies, and thereby secure the Continuance of the Happiness, Prosperity, and Glory, of a free, loyal, and united People.

[Presented by James Caldwell, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Westmorland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, beg Leave to offer our very sincere Congratulatory to your Majesty on your late providential Deliverance from the wicked Conspiracies of traitorous and evil minded Men.

Fully satisfied that we live under the best Constitution this Day existing on the Earth, and under which all Ranks enjoy equal Liberty, and the Protection of equal Laws, administered by the best of Kings, we are truly sensible that we cannot be sufficiently thankful to Almighty God for the manifold Blessings we enjoy; and we most fervently pray that your Majesty may long reign over a People happily united in their Attachment to your Majesty's august Person, Family, and Government, and zealous to support and preserve unimpaired the most excellent Constitution of their Kingdoms.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Burgh the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Tho. Hurd, Mayor.

[Presented by Richard Howard, Esq; the Recorder of the said Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulatory upon your happy Preservation from the late horrid Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our invaluable Constitution.

Deeply impressed with the Sense of your Majesty's just and mild Government, and attached to your Royal Person by our Veneration for he many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, and afford a bright Example to your Subjects; we acknowledge with the utmost Gratitude the merciful Interposition of that Providence which has been so signally manifested on the present as on preceding Occasions, and it will be our fervent Prayer to Almighty God, that he will continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty's Life, so justly dear to all your Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and under the Hands of us the Inhabitants, the Ninth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Thomas Godfrey, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln; and also the Inhabitants of Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stamford, and the Inhabitants of the said Borough, and of the Parish of Saint Martin's, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Sentiments of Congratulatory on the providential Discovery and Defeat of a most wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our estimable Constitution.

Truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild, unceasing, and paternal Government, we cannot but feel the greatest Abhorrence of those nefarious Designs, which, by depriving us of a revered and beloved Sovereign, and destroying our Government, would have plunged a prosperous and happy People into Misery.

That Providence, which has hitherto so signally preserved your Majesty, may shield and guard you from all wicked and desperate Men, and long continue your Majesty on the Throne of this Kingdom, is our most sincere and earnest Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town-Hall of the said Borough, the Twelfth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Harper, Mayor.

[Presented by General Leland and Lieutenant-General Bertie, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]
