By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION. GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Patrick Earl of Dumfries was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased, in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his Room, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Sixteenth Day of June next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Room of the said Patrick Earl of Dumfries, deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And we strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross, at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least, before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election:

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, May 9, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freholders of the County of Tyrone, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the providential Discovery of the late Treason, designed against your sacred Person, and the happy Constitution of this Realm.

Actuated by every Consideration which ought to influence the Mind of Man, in a State where Blessings so great and distinguished are enjoyed, as we possess under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we shall always be ready, with our most active Services, to oppose any Attempt which may be made against your Royal Person and Government; and we trust in Almighty God, that he may still continue to baffle and defeat all the Machinations of desperate Traitors, who would sacrifice to their private Ambition the Peace, good Order, and public Tranquillity of the happiest Nation on Earth.

George Perry, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the High Sheriff, Magistrates, and Freholders of the King's County.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of the King's County, impressed with the most zealous Gratitude towards Almighty God for his omnipotent Protection at all Times vouchsafed to your Majesty's most sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity, most humbly and most devoutly congratulate your Majesty on the providential Discovery and Suppression of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's most inestimable Life, and unparagoned Government; and being determined to deprecate and resist all such disgraceful and sacrilegious Plots and Attempts, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our increased Attachment and Allegiance to your Majesty's august Family and Succession, and thus publicly to renew our Offers of Military Service for your Support and Defence whenever required.

Viewing, with the most encouraged Satisfaction, the vigilant Superintendance and active Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers at the present Crisis, we are more firmly than ever convinced of our well-placed Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom and Discernment; and though happy and industrious to cultivate the Blessings of Peace, should your Majesty feel the Necessity of proclaiming it, War is then also our Duty, and we shall as such embrace it with Cheerfulness and Vigour: and whenever the Ambition or Restlessness of your Enemies shall disappoint your Endeavours of maintaining Peace, we shall be ready to co-operate with your Majesty's Forces against all your Foes; and should the Olive be again removed, we trust it may be replaced by new Trophies of Honor and Renown to commemorate to the latest Posterity your Majesty's most glorious Reign, which may God long continue with Health and Prosperity, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

Jackson Wray Atkinson, High-Sheriff.

Birr, April 29, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Antrim, convened by the High-Sheriff on the Twenty-second Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the atrocious Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and against your Government.

When we review the whole Period of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we are led to adore the Goodness of Divine Providence in watching over the Life of a King, who, amongst so many crowned Heads, enjoys, almost alone, the high Honor of ruling over a free Nation; a King, who makes his Power consist in being beloved, and his Glory in being just.

We unite in a fervent Prayer, that your Majesty's invaluable Life may be long preserved to diffuse through every Part of your Dominions the Blessings of your mild and paternal Government. We have the Honor to be, with that profound Respect which is due to the most exemplary Virtue, as well as to the highest Rank, your Majesty's most humble and dutiful Subjects.

Signed in the Name and at the Request of the Meeting.

Edw. Jones Agnew, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff and Grand Jury assembled at this Assizes, together with the Noblemen, Clergy, Magistrates, and Freeholders of the County of Down, cannot think of separating without offering our warmest and unfeigned Assurances of unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We approach the Throne to express these Sentiments with unusual Anxiety, when we reflect what Calamity might have overwhelmed the Empire had we not, most gratefully, to acknowledge that Divine Goodness which has providentially aided the Zeal and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers in detecting and frustrating the wicked and daring Plots of a few abandoned Traitors, who, not satisfied with forming Machinations for the Subversion of our free Constitution, possessed Hearts depraved enough to harbour Designs against your sacred Person. We rejoice that such vile Wretches have been brought to condign Punishment as much as we have to lament that any Individuals, born to the Privileges of British Subjects, could be so far lost to all Sense of the many Blessings derived from your Majesty's paternal Goodness, and the Protection experienced under such a Government, as to be capable of engaging in these execrable Deeds. Our Voices unite with the great and general Body of your Majesty's good and faithful Subjects in offering Congratulations on your happy Escape; and in fervently beseeching the Disposer of all human Events to watch over, and to protect, a Life, in the Safety and Preservation of which the whole Community is so deeply interested.

Matth. Foule, High-Sheriff of the County of Down.

Downpatrick, April 14, 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late treasonable Conspiracy, directed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the happy Constitution under which we live. We learn with Abhorrence and Astonishment that a Project so wicked and desperate had been entertained by Persons living under the mild and equal Laws which these Countries have to boast; and we are led, by the Detection of such nefarious Designs, to reflect on the Value of those Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign. We most earnestly beseech that Providence, which has hitherto shielded your Majesty's invaluable Life, to vouchsafe to your Majesty a long Continuance of Health and Prosperity; and to us a Continuance of that Security which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government.

John Joseph Henry, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty King GEORGE the Third.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, (at a Meeting convened by the High Sheriff,) humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Respect.

We have heard with Astonishment, that Men have been found (Natives of this happy Island,) who, lost to themselves, and forgetful of the Duty and Gratitude they owed to a beneficent King, and a mild and constitutional Government, have dared to conspire in foul Rebellion to murder the one, and overturn the other.

Our Abhorrence of the Fact can only be exceeded by our Astonishment at it.—These Traitors have met with the due Reward of their Crimes.

We have therefore to return our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, for his Interposition in Favor of a People whom he has taught to appreciate justly the Blessings of a free and legitimate Government.

We have to express to your Majesty our grateful Sense of your Care and Solitude for the Safety and Welfare of your Subjects, and for the Vigilance of your Government in discovering and bringing to Light these secret Acts of Atrocity, and the Punishment attendant on them.

We further beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our utmost Services against every Enemy open or concealed, foreign or domestic, whenever it shall appear necessary for your Majesty to require them.

[Presented by John Lloyd, Esq; of Mavus, High-Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Belfast, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Joy upon your late Escape from the treasonable Designs of your Enemies against your sacred Person, and our happy Constitution: We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that our Persons and Fortunes shall at all Times be in Readiness to be brought forward for the Support of your Majesty, your illustrious Family, and the Constitution. Donegall
