A PROCLAMATION. GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Patrick Earl of Dumfries was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased, in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his Room, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Sixteenth Day of June next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Room of the said Patrick Earl of Dumfries, deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And we strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross, at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least, before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election:

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, May 9, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freholders of the County of Tyrone, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the providential Discovery of the late Treason, designed against your sacred Person, and the happy Constitution of this Realm.

Actuated by every Consideration which ought to influence the Mind of Man, in a State where Blessings so great and distinguished are enjoyed, as we possess under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we shall always be ready, with our most active Services, to oppose any Attempt which may be made against your Royal Person and Government; and we trust in Almighty God, that he may still continue to baffle and defeat all the Machinations of desperate Traitors, who would sacrifice to their private Ambition the Peace, good Order, and public Tranquillity of the happiest Nation on Earth.

George Perry, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the High Sheriff, Magistrates, and Freholders of the King's County.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of the King's County, impressed with the most zealous Gratitude towards Almighty God for his omnipotent Protection at all Times vouchsafed to your Majesty's most sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity, most humbly and most devoutly congratulate your Majesty on the providential Discovery and Suppression of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's most inestimable Life, and unparagoned Government; and being determined to deprecate and resist all such disgraceful and sacrilegious Plots and Attempts, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our increased Attachment and Allegiance to your Majesty's august Family and Succession, and thus publicly to renew our Offers of Mi-
