To which he was introduced by the Earl of Morton Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 12, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, humbly request that you will be pleased to accept our strongest Assurances of our faithful and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government, and our warmest Congratulations on the providential Discovery of the late treasonable Conspiracy, which has so justly called for the Vengeance of the Law, and for the Indignation and Abhorrence of all your liege Subjects.

We trust that the same Protection which has been afforded in this Instance to your Majesty, and to our Country, will be graciously dispensed by the Ruler of the Universe, if ever a like Attempt shall be made for the Destruction of our best and dearest Interests; and that, in spite of all our Enemies, you will long live to enjoy the Gratification of seeing your Empire prosperous, and your People in general loyal and happy.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Borough of Haddington, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Presence, with the most heartfelt Congratulations upon the late providential Escape from the imminent Danger which so lately threatened your Royal Person from the desperate Attempts of Traitors.

Feeling as we do in common with your Majesty's other Subjects the distinguished and peculiar Privileges we enjoy as a Nation and as Individuals, it was with the utmost Indignation that we viewed the late atrocious Conspiracy, which aimed at nothing less than to deprive us of these Blessings, which aimed a Blow at the Life of a Sovereign so justly dear to us all, and, in fine, which threatened to reduce us from the highest State of political Happiness to the opposite Extreme of Anarchy, Confusion, and Distress.

With these Sentiments impressed upon our Hearts, we feel it our bounden Duty to offer to your Majesty this our unfeigned Tribute of loyal Congratulation; and we feel grateful to those Ministers by whose Vigilance and Activity so daring an Enterprize was crushed before it reached Maturity.

Finally, we trust that the late awful Warning, (which the Fate of the wretched and misguided Men who took a Part in that Conspiracy afforded,) may have the salutary Effect of teaching the lower Orders the dreadful Consequences of such Violations of the Law; and that their truest Interest consists in supporting a Constitution and Government which so completely protects them in the Enjoyment of their civil and religious Privileges.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Town-Council, in Common-Council, assembled, by Wm. Cunningham, Provost.

[Presented by the Honorable Colonel Maitland.]
