DECLARATION.

HIS MAJESTY'S earnest Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace having failed of Success, He entertains the fullest Confidence that He shall receive the same Support from His Parliament, and that the same Zeal and Spirit will be manifested by His People, which He has experienced on every Occasion when the Honor of His Crown has been attacked, or the essential Interests of His Dominions have been endangered.

During the whole Course of the Negotiations which led to the Preliminary and Definitive Treaties of Peace between His Majesty and the French Republic, it was His Majesty's sincere Desire, not only to put an End to the Hostilities which subsisted between the Two Countries, but to adopt such Measures, and to concur in such Propositions, as might most effectually contribute to consolidate the general Tranquillity of Europe. The same Motives by which His Majesty was actuated during the Negotiations for Peace, have since invariably governed His Conduct. As soon as the Treaty of Amiens was concluded, His Majesty's Courts were open to the People of France for every Purpose of legal Redress; all Sequestrations were taken off their Property; all Prohibitions on their Trade, which had been imposed during the War, were removed, and they were placed, in every Respect, on the same Footing with Regard to Commerce and Intercourse, as the Inhabitants of any other State in Amity with His Majesty, with which there existed no Treaty of Commerce.

To a System of Conduct thus open, liberal, and friendly, the Proceedings of the French Government afford the most striking Contrast. The Prohibitions which had been placed on the Commerce of His Majesty's Subjects during the War have been enforced with increased Strictness and Severity; Violence has been offered in several Instances to their Vessels and their Property; and, in no Case, has Justice been afforded to those who may have been aggrieved in consequence of such Acts, nor has any satisfactory Answer been given to the repeated Representations made by His Majesty's Ministers or Ambassador at Paris. Under such Circumstances, when His Majesty's Subjects were not suffered to enjoy the common Advantages of Peace within the Territories of the French Republic, and the Countries dependent upon it, the French Government had Recourse to the extraordinary Measure of sending over to this Country a Number of Persons for the professed Purpose of residing in the most considerable Sea-Port Towns of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Character of Commercial Agents or Consuls. These Persons could have no Pretensions to be acknowledged in that Character, as the Right of being so acknowledged, as well as all the Privileges attached to such a Situation, could only be derived from a Commercial Treaty, and as no Treaty of that Description was in Existence between His Majesty and the French Republic.

There was consequently too much Reason to suppose, that the real Object of their Mission was by no Means of a Commercial Nature; and this Suspicion was confirmed, not only by the Circumstance that some of them were Military Men, but by the actual Discovery that several of them were furnished with Instructions to obtain the Soundings of the Harbours, and to procure Military Surveys of the Places where it was intended they should reside. His Majesty felt it to be His Duty to prevent their Departure to their respective Places of Destination, and represented to the French Government the Necessity of withdrawing them; and it cannot be denied that the Circumstances under which they were sent, and the Instructions which were given to them, ought to be considered as decisive Indications of the Dispositions and Intentions of the Government by whom they were employed.

The Conduct of the French Government, with respect to the Commercial Intercourse between the Two Countries, must therefore be considered as ill suited to a State of Peace, and their Proceedings in their more general Political Relations, as well as in those which immediately concern His Majesty's Dominions, appear to have been altogether inconsistent with every Principle of Good-faith, Moderation, and Justice. His Majesty had entertained Hopes, in consequence of the repeated Assurances and Professions of the French Government, that they might have been induced to adopt a System of Policy which, if it had not inspired other Powers with Confidence, might at least have allayed their Jealousies. If the French Government had really appeared to be actuated by a due Attention to such a System, if their Dispositions had proved to be essentially pacific, Allowances would have been made for the Situation in which a new Government must be placed after so dreadful and extensive a Convulsion as that which has been produced by the French Revolution. But His Majesty has unfortunately had too much Reason to observe, and to lament, that the System of Violence, Aggression, and Aggrandisement, which characterised the Proceedings of the different Governments of France during the War, has been continued with as little Disguise since its Termination. They have continued to keep a French Army in Holland against the Will and in Defence of the Remonstrances of the Batavian Government, and in Repugnance of the Letter of Three Solemn Treaties. They have, in a Period of Peace, invaded the Territory, and violated the Independence of the Swiss Nation, in Defence of the Treaty of Lunewille, which had stipulated the Independence of their Territory, and the Right of the Inhabitants to chuse their own Form of Government. They have annexed to the Dominions of France, Piedmont, Parma, and Placentia, and the Island of Elba, without allotting any Provision to the King of Sardinia, whom they have despoiled of the most valuable Part of his Territory, though they were bound, by a solemn Engagement to the Emperor of Russia, to attend to his Interests and to provide for his Establishment. It may, indeed, with Truth be asserted, that the Period which has elapsed since the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, has been marked with one continued Series of Aggression, Violence, and Insult on the Part of the French Government.

In the Month of October last, His Majesty was induced, in consequence of the earnest Solicitation of the Swiss Nation, to make an Effort, by a Representation to the French Government, to avert the Evils which were then impending over that Country. This Representation was couched in the most temperate Terms; and Measures were taken by His Majesty for ascertaining, under the Circumstances which then existed, the real Situation and Wishes of the Swiss Cantons, as well as the Sentiments of the other Cabinets of Europe. His Majesty learned, however, with the utmost Regret, that no Disposition to counteract these repeated Infractions of Treaties and Acts of Violence was manifested by any of the Powers most immediately interested in preventing them; and His Majesty therefore felt that, with respect to these Objects, His single Efforts could not be expected to produce any considerable Advantage to those in whose Favor they might be exerted.

It was about this Time that the French Government first distinctly advanced the Principle, that His Majesty had no Right to complain of the Conduct, or to interfere with the Proceedings of France, on any Point which did not form a Part of the Stipulations of the Treaty of Amiens. That Treaty was unquestionably founded upon the same Principle as every other antecedent Treaty or Convention, on the Assumption of the State of Possession and of Engagements subsisting at the Time of its Conclusion; and if that State of Possession and of Engagements is materially affected by the voluntary Act of any of the Parties, so as to prejudice the Condition on which the other Party has entered into the Contract, the Change so made may be considered as operating virtually as a Breach of the Treaty itself, and as giving the Party aggrieved a Right to demand Satisfaction or Compensation for any substantial Difference which such Acts may have effected in their relative Situations; but whatever may be the Principle on which the Treaty is to be considered as founded, there is indisputably a General Law of Nations, which, though liable to be limited, explained, or restrained by Conventional Law, is antecedent to it, and is that Law or Rule of Conduct to which all Sovereigns and States have been accustomed to appeal, where Conventional Law is admitted to have been silent. The Treaty of Amiens, and every other Treaty, in providing for the Objects to which it is particularly directed, does not therefore assume or imply an Indifference to all other Objects which are not specified in its Stipulations; much less does it adjudge them to be of a Nature to be left to the Will and Caprice of the Violent and the Powerful. The Justice of the Cause alone is a sufficient Ground to warrant the Interposition of any of the Powers of Europe in the Differences which may arise between other States; and the Application and Extent of that just Interposition is to be determined solely by Considerations of Prudence. These Principles can admit of no Dispute; but if the new and extraordinary Pretension advanced by the French Government to exclude His Majesty from any Right to interfere with respect to the Concerns of other Powers, unless they made a specific Part of the Stipulations of the Treaty of Amiens, was that which it was possible to maintain, those Powers would have a Right, at least, to claim the Benefit of this Principle in every Case of Difference between the Two Countries. The Indignation of all Europe must surely then be excited by the Declarations of the French Government, that, in the Event of Hostilities, these very Powers, who were no Parties to the Treaty of Amiens, and who were not allowed to derive any Advantage from the Remonstrances of His Majesty in their Behalf, are nevertheless to be made the Victims of a War which is alleged to arise out of the same Treaty, and are to be sacrificed in a Contest which they not only have not occasioned, but which they have had no Means whatever of preventing.

His Majesty judged it most expedient, under the Circumstances which then affected Europe, to abstain from a Recurrence to Hostilities on Account of the Views of Ambition and Acts of Aggression manifested by France on the Continent; yet an Experience of the Character and Dispositions of the French Government could not fail to impress His Majesty with a Sense of the Necessity of increased Vigilance in guarding the Rights and Dignity of His Crown, and in protecting the Interests of His People.

Whilst His Majesty was actuated by these Sentiments, He was called upon by the French Government to evacuate the Island of Malta. His Majesty had manifested, from the Moment of the Signature of the Definitive Treaty, an anxious Disposition to carry into full Effect the Stipulations of the Treaty of Amiens relative to that Island. As soon as he was informed that an Election of a Grand Master had taken place, under the Auspices of the Emperor of Russia, and that it had been agreed by the different Priorities assembled at St. Peterburgh to acknowledge the Person whom the Court of Rome should select out of those who had been named by them to be Grand Master of the Order of St. John, His Majesty proposed to the French Government, for the Purpose of avoiding any Difficulties which might arise in the Execution of the Arrangement, to acknowledge that Election to be valid: And when, in the Month of August, the French Government applied to His Majesty to permit the Neapolitan Troops to be sent to the Island of Malta, as a preliminary Measure for preventing any unnecessary Delay, His Majesty consented without Hesitation to this Proposal, and gave Directions for the Admission of the Neapolitan Troops into the Island. His Majesty had thus shewn His Disposition not only to throw no Obstacle in the Way of the Execution of the Treaty, but, on the contrary, to facilitate the Execution of it by every Means in His Power. His Majesty cannot, however, admit, that at any Period since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Amiens the French Government have had a Right to call upon Him, in Conformity to the Stipulations of that Treaty, to withdraw His Forces from the Island of Malta. At the Time when this Demand was made by the French Government, several of the most important Stipulations of the Arrangement respecting Malta remained unexecuted: The Election of a Grand Master had not been carried into Effect. The Tenth Article had stipulated that the Independence of the Island should be placed under the Guarantee and Protection of Great Britain, France, Austria, Russia, Spain, and Prussia. The Emperor of Germany had acceded to the Guarantee, but only on Condition of a like Accession on the Part of the other Powers specified in the Article. The Emperor of Russia had refused his Accession, except on the Condition that the Maltese Language should be abrogated; and the King of Prussia had given no Answer whatever to the Application which had been made to him to accede to the Arrangement. But the fundamental Principle, upon the Existence of which depended the Execution of the other Parts of the Article, had been defeated by the Changes which had taken place in the Constitution of the Order since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Peace. It was to the Order of St. John of Jerusalem that His Majesty was, by the First Stipulation of the Tenth Article, bound to restore the Island of Malta. The Order is defined to consist of those Languages which were in Existence at the Time of the Conclusion of the Treaty: The Three French Languages having been abolished, and a Maltese Language added to the Institution. The Order consisted, therefore at that Time of the following Languages, viz. the Languages of Arragon, Castile, Germany, Bavaria, and Russia. Since the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, the Languages of Arragon and Castile have been separated from the Order by Spain, a Part of the Italian Language has been abolished by the Annexation of Piedmont and Parma to France. There is strong Reason to believe that it has been in Contemplation to sequester the Property of the Bavarian Language, and the Intention has been avowed of keeping the Russian Languages within the Dominions of the Emperor.

Under these Circumstances the Order of St. John cannot now be considered as that Body to which, according to the Stipulations of the Treaty, the Island was to be restored; and the Funds indispensable necessary for its Support, and for the Maintenance of the Independence of the Island, have been nearly, if not wholly, sequestered. Even if this had arisen from Circumstances which it was not in the Power of any of the Contracting Parties to the Treaty to controul, His Majesty would nevertheless have had a Right to defer the Evacuation of the Island by His Forces until such Time as an equivalent Arrangement had been concluded for the Preservation of the Independence of the Order and of the Island. But if these Changes have taken place in consequence of any Acts of the other Parties to the Treaty; if the French Government shall appear to have proceeded upon a System of rendering the Order, whose Independence they had stipulated, incapable of maintaining that Independence, His Majesty's Right to continue in the Occupation of the Island, under such Circumstances, will hardly be contested. It is indisputable that the Revenues of the Two Spanish Languages have been withdrawn from the Order by His Catholic Majesty; a Part of the Italian Language has, in Fact, been abolished by France, through the unjust Annexation of Piedmont, and Parma, and Placentia to the French Territory. The Elector of Bavaria has been instigated by the French Government to sequester the Property of the Order within his Territories; and it is certain that they have not only sanctioned but encouraged the Idea of the Propriety of separating the Russian Languages from the Remainder of the Order.

As the Conduct of the Governments of France and Spain have, therefore, in some Instances directly, and in others indirectly, contributed to the Changes which have taken place in the Order, and thus destroyed its Means of supporting its Independence, it is to those Governments, and not to His Majesty, that the Non-execution of the Tenth Article of the Treaty of Amiens must be ascribed.

Such would be the just Conclusion if the Tenth Article of that Treaty were considered as an Arrangement by itself. It must be observed, however, that this Article forms a Part only of a Treaty of Peace, the Whole of which is connected together, and the Stipulations of which must, upon a Principle common to all Treaties, be construed as having a Reference to each other.

His Majesty was induced, by the Treaty of Peace, to consent to abandon and to restore to the Order of St. John the Island of Malta on Condition of its Independence and Neutrality. But a further Condition, which must necessarily be supposed to have had considerable Influence with His Majesty in inducing Him to make so important a Concession, was the Acquiescence of the French Government in an Arrangement for the Security of the Levant, by the Eighth and Ninth Articles in the Treaty stipulating the Integrity of the Turkish Empire, and the Independence of the Ionian Islands. His Majesty has, however, since learnt, that the French Government have entertained Views hostile to both these Objects; and that they have even suggested the Idea of a Partition of the Turkish Empire. These Views must now be manifest to all the World, from the official Publication of the Report of Colonel Sebastiani; from the Conduct of that Officer, and of the other French Agents in Egypt, Syria, and the Ionian Islands, and from the distinct Admission of the First Consul himself, in his Communication with Lord Whitworth. His Majesty was, therefore, warranted in considering it to be the Determination of the French Government to violate those Articles of the Treaty of Peace, which stipulated for the Integrity and Independence of the Turkish Empire, and of the Ionian Islands, and consequently He would not have been justified in evacuating the Island of Malta, without receiving some other Security, which might equally provide for these important Objects. His Majesty accordingly feels that He has an incontestable Claim, in consequence of the Conduct of France since the Treaty of Peace, and with Reference to the Objects which made Part of the Stipulations of that Treaty, to refuse, under the present Circumstances, to relinquish the Possession of the Island of Malta.

Yet, notwithstanding this Right so clear and so unquestionable, the Alternative presented by the French Government to His Majesty, in Language the most peremptory and menacing, was the Evacuation of Malta, or the Renewal of War.

If the Views of Ambition and Aggrandizement, which have thus been manifested by the French Government since the Conclusion of the Treaty of Peace, have in so very particular a Manner attracted the Attention of His Majesty, it has been equally impossible for Him not to feel, and not to notice, the repeated Indignities which have been offered by that Government to His Crown and to His People.

The Report of Colonel Sebastiani contains the most unwarrantable Insinuations and Charges against His Majesty's Government, against the Officer who commanded His Forces in Egypt, and against the British Army in that Quarter. This Paper cannot be considered as the Publication of a private Individual; it has been avowed, and indeed bears Evidence upon the Face of it, that it is the official Report of an accredited Agent, published by the Authority of the Government to which it was addressed, who thereby have given it their express Sanction.

This Report had been published a very short Time when another Indignity was offered to this Country, in the Communication of the First Consul of France to the Legislative Body. In this Communication he presumes to affirm, in the Character of Chief Magistrate of that Country, "That Great Britain cannot singly contend against the Power of France," an Assertion as unfounded as it is indecent, disproved by the Events of many Wars, and by none more than by those of the War which has been recently concluded. Such an Assertion, advanced in the most solemn official Act of a Government, and thereby meant to be avowed to all the Powers of Europe, can be considered in no other Light than as a Defiance publicly offered to His Majesty, and to a brave and powerful People, who are both willing and able to defend His just Rights, and those of their Country, against every Insult and Aggression.

The Conduct of the First Consul to His Majesty's Ambassador at his Audience, in Presence of the Ministers of most of the Sovereigns and States of Europe, furnishes another Instance of Provocation on the Part of the French Government, which it would be improper not to notice on the present Occasion, and the subsequent Explanation of this Transaction may be considered as having the Effect of aggravating instead of palliating the Affront.

At the very Time when His Majesty was demanding Satisfaction and Explanation on, some of the Points abovementioned, the French Minister at Hamburgh endeavoured to obtain the Insertion, in a Hamburgh Paper, of a most gross and opprobrious Libel against His Majesty; and when Difficulties were made respecting the Insertion of it, he availed himself of his official Character of Minister of the French Republic to require the Publication of it, by Order of his Government, in the Gazette of the Senate of that Town. With this Requisition, so made, the Senate of Hamburgh were induced to comply; and thus has the Independence of that Town been violated, and a free State made the Instrument, by the Menace of the French Government, of propagating throughout Europe, upon their Authority, the most offensive and unfounded Calumnies against His Majesty and His Government. His Majesty might add to this List of Indignities the Requisition which the French Government have repeatedly urged, that the Laws and Constitution of His Country should be changed relative to the Liberty of the Press. His Majesty might likewise add the Calls which the French Government have on several Occasions made upon Him to violate the Laws of Hospitality with respect to Persons who had found an Asylum within His Dominions, and against whose Conduct no Charge whatever has at any Time been substantiated. It is impossible to reflect on these different Proceedings, and the Course which the French Government have thought proper to adopt respecting them, without the thorough Conviction that they are not the Effect of Accident; but that they form a Part of a System which has been adopted for the Purpose of degrading, vilifying, and insulting His Majesty and His Government.

Under all these Insults and Provocations, His Majesty, not without a due Sense of His Dignity, has proceeded with every Degree of Temper and Moderation to obtain Satisfaction and Redress, while He has neglected no Means, consistent with his Honor and the Safety of His Dominions, to induce the Government of France to concede to Him what is, in his Judgment, absolutely necessary for the future Tranquillity of Europe. His Efforts in this Respect have proved abortive, and He has therefore judged it necessary to order His Ambassador to leave Paris. In having Recourse to this Proceeding it has been His Majesty's Object to put an End to the fruitless Discussions, which have too long subsisted between the Two Governments, and to close a Period of Suspense peculiarly injurious to the Subjects of His Majesty.

But though the Provocations which His Majesty has received might entitle Him to larger Claims than those which He has advanced, yet anxious to prevent Calamities which might thus be extended to every Part of Europe, He is still willing, as far as is consistent with His own Honour, and the Interests of His People, to afford every Facility to any just and honorable Arrangement, by which such Evils may be averted. He has, therefore, no Difficulty in declaring to all Europe, that notwithstanding all the Changes which have taken Place since the Treaty of Peace, notwithstanding the Extension of the Power of France, in Repugnance to that Treaty, and to the Spirit of Peace itself, His Majesty will not avail Himself of these Circumstances, to demand in Compensation all that He is entitled to require, but will be ready to concur, even now, in an Ar-arrangement by which Satisfaction shall be given to Him, for the Indignities which have been offered to His Crown and to His People, and substantial Security afforded against further Encroachments on the Part of France.

His Majesty has thus distinctly and unreservedly stated the Reasons of those Proceedings to which He has found Himself compelled to resort. He is actuated by no Disposition to interfere in the internal Concerns of any other State; by no Projects of Conquest and Aggrandizement; but solely by a Sense of what is due to the Honour of His Crown, and the Interests of His People, and by an anxious Desire to obstruct the further Progress of a System, which, if not resisted, may prove fatal to every Part of the civilized World.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in Consequence of the repeated Insults and Provocations which His Majesty has experienced from the Government of France, His Majesty finds himself compelled to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honour of His Crown, and the just Rights of His Subjects; His Majesty, therefore, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the French Republic, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic, and bring the same to Judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, as shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance thereof; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, His Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions which shall be duly commissioned to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be made, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to the French Republic, or to any Persons being Subjects of the French Republic, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French Republic; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes above-mentioned.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 16th Day of May 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, That no Ships or Vessels, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, be permitted to enter and clear out for any of the Ports of the French or Batavian Republics, or for the Ports of any Country occupied by the Armies of France, until further Order; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That a General Embargo or Stop be made on all Ships, belonging to the French and Batavian Republics whatsoever, now within or which hereafter shall come into any of the Ports, Harbours, or Roads, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, together with all Persons and Effects on board the said Ships and Vessels; but that the utmost Care be taken for the Preservation of all and every Part of the Cargoes on board any of the said Ships, so that no Damage or Embezzlement whatever be sustained; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Faulkener.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of April 1803,

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre; and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower

“ His Majesty to refrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:” And His Majesty judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for some Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty’s Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty’s Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. *Steph. P R E S E N T,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council,
WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty’s Reign, intituled “ An Act to enable His Majesty to refrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council,” it is enacted, amongst other Things, That His Majesty may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting, or the attempting to export, Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, and other Naval Stores: And His Majesty, judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of the said several Articles for a limited Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, during the Space of Two Months from the Date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by the aforementioned Act: But it is nevertheless His Majesty’s Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty’s Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty’s Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty’s Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty’s Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty’s Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty’s Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty’s Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty’s Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. W. Faulkener.

AT the Court at the Queen’s Palace, the 11th of May 1803,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That all Ships and Vessels clearing out for the Coast of Africa for the Purpose of carrying on the Trade there, be permitted to take on board, as an afforded Part of their Cargoes, as much Gunpowder, and as large a Quantity of Trading Guns, Pistols, Cutlasses, Flints, and Lead Balls, Bars, and Shot as the Exporters shall think necessary, notwithstanding any Thing contained in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Sixth Day of April last; provided that sufficient Security be given to the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs of the Port in which the Ships are fitted out, and before they proceed on their respective Voyages, in treble the Value of the Articles exported, that the same shall be expended in Trade upon the Coast of Africa; which Security is not to be cancelled until Proof of such Expenditure has been made by the Oath of the Captain or Master of the Ship or Vessel in like Manner as is practised with regard to Spirits and East India Goods used in carrying on that Trade; and His Majesty is further pleased to order, That all Ships and Vessels trading to the said Coast, be allowed to take on board for their Defence whatever Quantity of Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms, shall be judged proper by the respective Masters thereof; provided that no greater Quantity be taken on board any one Ship for her Defence than Twelve Carriage Guns and Twelve Swivels, together with one Musket or Blunderbuss, one Pair of Pistols and one Cutlass for every Person of which the Ship's Company shall consist, and Ammunition in Proportion; and provided also, that sufficient Security be in like Manner given to the said Principal Officers of the Customs at the Ports where the Ships shall be fitted out, in treble the Value of the Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms so taken on board for the Defence of the said Ships to bring back the said Carriage Guns, Swivels, and small Arms when the Voyage is completed, and to account upon Oath for the Expenditure of the Ammunition: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary herein accordingly.

This Day Baron Belmont de Melcor had a private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Credentials as Minister Plenipotentiary from His Serene Highness the Elector of Wurtemberg :

To which he was introduced by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 18, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King ; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark, impressed with the deepest Sense of the Danger of the late diabolical Conspiracy, which your Majesty, under the Protection of Almighty God, escaped, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, and grateful Thanks to the Divine Goodness, which preserved your sacred Life.

That your Majesty may ever be the special Care of Providence, and long reign, as you have hitherto done, the King and Father of your People, and your Descendants after you to the latest Ages ; and that your Subjects may be sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and just Government, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Towns, in the Name, and Presence, and by Appointment of the Bailies and Trustees of the said Towns, in Council assembled at Port Glasgow, the Eighth Day of April, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, by
Archd. Falconer, Eldest Bailie.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty's Throne with our humble but warm Congratulations on the Exposure and Discomfiture of the late treasonable Conspiracy, directed against your Majesty's most sacred Person, and against that mild and equitable Government, which ought to ensure the Affection, as it secures the Happiness of the whole United Kingdom.

Whilst we deeply lament the Turpitude of the Individuals who sought to disturb the Blessings we enjoy, we give unfeigned Thanks to Heaven for your Majesty's Preservation ; and we offer up our ardent Prayers, that you may long continue to reign with undiminished Glory over a united, free, and affectionate People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Magistrates, and sealed with the Corporation-Seal, at Greenock, the Fourth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Walter Ritchie and Hugh Craufurd, Magistrates.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, experience the most sincere Satisfaction and Felicity in congratulating your Majesty on the fortunate Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Person and Government, in averting which the Protection of the Omnipotent is most decidedly discernible ; and it is our most fervent Wish and Prayer, that your Majesty may long live in the Enjoyment of personal and domestic Tranquillity ; and that your Subjects may continue to participate, under your Majesty, the Blessings of a mild and well-regulated Government.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Town, in the Name, and Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, at Paisley, this Twenty-eighth of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Andrew Moody, C. M.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery of the late most atrocious Combination against your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we reflect with just Abhorrence on the Formation of a Conspiracy, which involved not only an Assault on your Majesty's sacred Life, but also had for its Object the Subversion of all civil Society within these Realms, we cannot sufficiently acknowledge our Gratitude to Divine Providence for its timely Discovery and Defeat : And we most fervently pray that the same Providence will long continue to preserve your Majesty to your faithful and affectionate Subjects, and enable your Royal House to transmit, to the latest Posterity, the Glory, Independence, and Happiness of the British Empire.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting this Second Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

George Houstoun, Preses.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant for Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Wigtown.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Wigtown, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the sincerest Sentiments of Congratulation upon the Detection of a late most wicked and diabolical Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

We deplore the treasonable Spirit that actuated some worthless and misled Individuals; and we meditate with Thankfulness the remarkable Intervention of Divine Providence, so often declared in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, so justly dear to your Subjects.

Fully sensible of the manifold Blessings we so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and sincerely attached to the happy Constitution we live under, we would warmly and cordially express our Willingness to join Heart and Hand in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government against all Traitors or treasonable Conspiracies. And we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long live to reign in uninterrupted Security the Sovereign of a happy, free, brave, and loyal People.

Signed by Appointment of the Meeting at Wigtown, the Fifteenth of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Rob. Hathorn Stewart.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, beg Leave to approach the Throne with heartfelt Congratulation on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person.

With Gratitude to Almighty God for the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we are eager to express our Abhorrence of the pernicious and detestable Principles which have prompted wicked Men to Machinations of Treason against the Life of a Sovereign who is the Father of his People.

As the Servants of the God of Order we revere that System of Laws, by which, under your Majesty's paternal Care, our Religion is guarded, our Liberty maintained, and the Enjoyment is secured to us of all that we hold dear as Men, as Citizens, and as Christians; and conscious of our Obligations, and zealous to fulfil them, we will not fail to inculcate upon the People under our Charge affectionate Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and a steady Attachment to our happy Constitution both in Church and State.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may prolong your Life, and prosper your Administration; that he may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales; and that, after a happy Reign in this World, you may in the future World receive a Crown of Glory, are the earnest Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Begg, Moderator.

[Presented by Mr. Boyd Alexander.]
