ERRATUM in the Gazette of the 21st Ultimo. For Alexander Young, Esq; to be Captain in the Renfrew Militia, Read Adjutant Alexander Young to be Captain, by Brevet. Commission Dated May 6, 1803.

St. James's, June 8, 1803.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting), with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled; beg Leave to approach the Throne, at this important Crisis, with our renewed Sentiments of Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government.

We are fully persuaded of the Necessity for the decisive and dignified Measures adopted by your Majesty, by the Recall of your Majesty's Ambassador from France, and the vigorous Posture of Defence of the United Kingdom to repel the Designs of that Government, whose inordinate and insatiable Views of restless Ambition are manifestly directed to overthrow the glorious Constitution of these
