St. James's, June 22, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty having been pleased to announce to your People the Commencement of Hostilities between your Majesty and the Government of France, and to condescend to signify the Grounds whereon you have thought fit to exercise this Branch of your Royal Prerogative; we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer you our most sincere Thanks for this reiterated Proof of your paternal Goodness and unremitting Vigilance for the Welfare of our Country. Thanks to Providence we are blessed with a native Monarch, who, in his Solicitude for the common Welfare of his Subjects, is no less anxious for their Rights, than he is attentive to the Dignity of his Crown. We trust, Sire, that during this Contest you will experience the most loyal, cordial, and unanimous Support of every Individual throughout your Empire, and may the God of Battles grant Success to your Arms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this Sixteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder, attended by Sir Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Bart. and James Buller, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, humbly beg Permission to approach your Majesty at this important Crisis, with a Declaration of that active Loyalty and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, which have always distinguished the Inhabitants of this ancient Borough.

We have beheld with just Indignation the restless Spirit and ambitious Views of a Power, whom no Concessions can soothe, whom no Treaties can bind. The French Government, not conciliated by the sincere Endeavours of your Majesty to restore the Blessings of Peace to a World wasted with the Ravages of War, have invariably, since the Treaty of Amiens, pursued a System of Hostility to the Commerce and Constitution of this Kingdom, and to the Liberties of Mankind. Conscious that they could not succeed in their Design to subjugate the Continent while Britain interposed her protecting Arm, they have affected to represent her as secluded from the Concerns of the Rest of Europe, and cherished the vain Expectation that they could annihilate her political Influence. The Forbearance and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils, instead of producing reciprocal Sentiments of Amity, and a Communication of good Offices, have been repaid only with personal Insults, and with national Injuries.

In these Circumstances it must be a soothing Consolation to your Majesty to observe the Unanimity displayed by your People in their Determination to resist the common Enemy of the Repose and of the Independence of Europe. And we beg to assure your Majesty that the Inhabitants of Reading yield to no Class of your Majesty's Subjects in the Warmth of their Feelings, and in the Sincerity of their Professions to maintain the noblest Cause in which their Hearts can be engaged—the Honor of their King, and the Prosperity of their Country.

We hope that we may be permitted to express our Approbation of the Conduct of your Majesty's present Ministers, who not only prosecuted the War with Vigour and Success, but embraced the first Opportunity of putting an End to its Miseries, and who have endeared themselves to us by the sacred Regard which they have shown to the Principles of the British Constitution.

It is our fervent Prayer, that, under the Protection of a wise and gracious Providence, your Majesty may be enabled, by the Valour of your Fleets and Armies, and the zealous Support of your People, to place the Commercial and Political Interests of the Nation on a Basis which cannot be shaken by the Intrigues of secret, or the Violence of open Hostility.

Martin Annesley, Chairman.

[Presented by Francis Annesley, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, most humbly assure your Majesty, that we sincerely lament that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours to obtain for your People the Blessings of Peace have been rendered abortive by the ambitious Views of the French Government, whose Plans of Aggrandisement, fatal to the Repose of all Europe, and particularly hostile to the Safety and Welfare of your Majesty's Dominions, we contemplate with Astonishment and Indignation; we are however firmly persuaded that the same loyal Spirit which has hitherto enabled this Country to maintain the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown in unsullied Splendour will again eagerly employ its most powerful Energies to repel the insulting Aggression of our Enemy, and to effectuate your Majesty's gracious Desire of establishing an honorable and permanent Peace.

That your Majesty and your Royal Descendants may long continue to reign over this free and happy Nation, is a Blessing which we fervently pray may be enjoyed by ourselves, and our Posterity to the remotest Ages.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this Sixteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Tho. Clennell, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Town.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our sincere Regret that your Majesty's earnest Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace have failed of Success, and that the unexampled Temper and Moderation evinced by your Majesty's Ministers during the late Negotiations with France, so far from conciliating the French Government, have meet with no other Return than the most insulting Menaces of War and Destruction from the infatuated Ruler of that unhappy Country.

Impressed with the deepest Sense of the invaluable Blessings we derive from our happy Constitution, and of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's Government; be assured, Royal Sir, we shall most zealously concur in such Measures as the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils shall devise, for defending the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, the Safety of our Country, and the Preservation of all that is dear to us.

May that Almighty Power, on whose Favour and Protection depends the Fate of Empires, go forth with our Fleets and Armies; and may He be graciously pleased to abate the Pride of our Enemies, to assuage their Malice, and to comfort their Devices; and in return for these Blessings, may we never forget, that it is to Him we owe our Safety, the Life of our beloved Sovereign, and the Preservation of our Laws and Liberties.

Given under our Common Seal, this Tenth Day of June, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Wm. W. Bolton, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Earl Fitzwilliam and Mr. Staniforth, Representative in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity-House of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach the Throne to repeat our Sentiments of Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Satisfied that your Majesty would not have sacrificed the Blessings of Peace but to prevent the Sacrifice of every Blessing that a virtuous Monarch or a free and happy People esteem inestimable, and that at this important Crisis the Justice of your Majesty's Cause, and the Moderation of your Claims will be readily and universally admitted; we sincerely assure your Majesty that no Endeavours shall be wanting on the Part of this Maritime Corporation to assist your Majesty's Government in adopting Measures for the Defence and Protection of the United Kingdom against the daring Menaces of unprecedented and presumptuous Ambition.

With grateful Impressions for the many an invaluable Privileges we, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy under your mild and paternal Administration, earnestly pray that the Great Ruler of all Events may bless and prosper your Majesty's Councils and Exertions for the Welfare of your People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Guild, the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thos. Barmby, James Dewitt, Wardens.
