

cessary in this Emergency, and shall be cheerfully made on our Part; and we also beg to assure your Majesty that we shall willingly make such additional Sacrifices and Exertions as may, in the Situation of the Country, be demanded, for our Conduct is not to be influenced by that short-sighted and infatuated Policy which looks only to the Pressure of the Sacrifice, and not to the Magnitude of the Evil it is calculated to avert.

The Resources of the British Empire are immense; the Spirit of that numerous, powerful, and loyal People over which your Majesty reigns, prompts them to Achievements worthy of the British Name, and of the Fame and the Renown of their Ancestors; and we have no Doubt your Majesty will employ those Resources and that Power with Vigour and Effect, and will call forth into active Exertion that Spirit in such a Manner as not only to afford complete Protection against hostile Invasion, but also to establish the permanent Security of the British Empire.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment at Perth, the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Charles Moray Stroving, P.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and ancient Borough of Northampton, in our Guildhall at this Time assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Hearts glowing with the warmest Affection and the truest Loyalty. The restless and insatiable Ambition of our inveterate Enemy, who has again plunged us into the Horrors of War, and who at this Moment openly threatens us with the total Subversion of our glorious Constitution, and the Destruction of every Thing dear to us as a free and independent Nation, irresistibly calls upon every Description of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to press forward with one Heart and one Voice to offer to your Majesty their firm and most active Support in repelling the insolent Designs of the Enemy. We are happy in obeying the animating Call, and with the utmost Readiness to offer to your Majesty our willing though considerable Services, resting with perfect Confidence on your Majesty's kind and paternal Goodness, in restoring to us, whenever it can be attained, consistent with the true Honor and lasting Security of the British Empire, the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

[Presented by the Honorable Spencer Percival and the Honorable E. Bouverie, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]
