From Tuesday July 19, to Saturday July 23, 1803.

St. James's, July 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, ever conscious of your Majesty's Zeal for the public Tranquillity, most gratefully respect your recent Exertions, as the Policy of real Virtue, supported with the Dignity of Equity and Justice.

We view with indignant Spirit the Warfare of infamous Usurpation, the Spoils of invaded States and the Vengeance of insolent Ambition denounced against your Majesty's Dominions.

A Period so awfully important to your sacred Person and United Kingdoms demands the firmest Union of all Hearts, the Liberality of Support, and the Ardour of Enterprize.

In the Confidence of your Majesty's gracious Care and Protection, we pledge the Assurance of our utmost Fidelity; we entrust our Defence to the Energy of virtuous Unanimity, and rest our Deliverance from impending Danger in the Supreme Disposer of all Victory.

Given under our Common-Seal of the said City this Twelfth Day of July, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by John Palmer, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, feel it our Duty in the present Situation of public Affairs to offer your Majesty this unfeigned Testimony of our Attachment and Allegiance to your Royal Person and Government. We contemplate with Indignation the insatiate Ambition, and the insidious and dangerous of the Enemy to interfere with your Majesty's judicial Courts, to distress our National Commerce and Manufactures, and to violate the Freedom of the British Press. Fully sensible that your Majesty has shewn, during the late Negotiation, the most sincere Desire to preserve the Blessings of Peace, and observing the Spirit manifested by the Government of France to be inconsistent with the general Safety, and with the Liberties of this Country, we are ready to maintain to the utmost of our Ability whatever Measures your Majesty shall think expedient to adopt in Support of the Dignity of your Crown, and for the Security and Welfare of your People.

[Presented by Mr. Moore, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, attended by Mr. Bird, Chairman of the Meeting.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the ancient City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, feel ourselves called upon at this important Crisis to offer to your Majesty the fullest Assurances of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we will most cheerfully devote ourselves to promote whatever Operations may in your Majesty's Wisdom be devised for the Success of a War into which we are impelled by the inordinate Ambition and the deceitful Proceedings of the Rulers of France.

Conscious of the Necessity to repel the Views and frustrate the avowed Intentions of that restless Government to overthrow that happy Constitution, which, under your Majesty, consolidates the Happiness of the Nation—all your faithful Subjects must see and gratefully acknowledge the wise and vigorous Measures taken by your Majesty, and most cordially unite, as we do, in concurring therein.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by Earl Grosvenor, accompanied by the Representatives in Parliament for the City, and the Recorder.]
