Published by Authority.

From Saturday Tuesday July 26, to July 30, 1803.

Downing-Street, July 26, 1803.

THE King has been pleased to cause it to be signified by the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Neutral Powers residing at this Court, that the necessary Measures having been taken by His Majesty's Command, for the Blockade of the Entrance of the River Weser, in consequence of His Majesty having recently received authentic Information of the Occupation of Parts of the Banks of that River by the French Troops, the said River is declared to be in a State of Blockade; and that from this Time, all the Measures authorized by the Law of Nations, and the respective Treaties between His Majesty and the different Neutral Powers, will be adopted and executed with respect to all Vessels which may attempt to violate the said Blockade. Lord Hawkebury has been further commanded by His Majesty to signify to the Ministers of the Neutral Powers, that whenever the French Troops will evacuate the Positions which they now occupy on the Parts of the Banks of the Weser, and will remove to such a Distance from them as to leave the Course of that River perfectly free and secure to the Vessels of His Subjects, as well as of other Nations, His Majesty will immediately direct His Ships of War which may be stationed at the Mouth of the River Weser, for the Purpose of blockading the same, to be withdrawn.

Downing-Street, July 30, 1803.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received from Lieutenant-General Grinfield, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Troops in the Windward and Leeward Charibbee Islands, by the Right Honorable

Lord Hobart, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department:

MY LORD, St. Lucia, June 22, 1803.

IT is with Satisfaction I have the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that this Day the Fortrefs of Morne Fortunée was carried by Assault, and the Island of St. Lucia is in consequence unconditionally restored to the British Government.

I have to state to your Lordship, that in consequence of His Majesty's Order, signified to me in your Letter, dated the 16th of May, and received on the 14th Instant, which I immediately communicated to Commodore Hood, he arrived at Barbadoes on the 17th; the Troops, Stores, &c. were on board, or embarked on the 19th; sailed on the 20th. On the 21st, at Day-break, they were off the North End of St. Lucia, in the Course of the Day the greatest Part of the Troops were disembarked in Choque-Bay; about Half-past Five, the Out-Posts of the Enemy were driven in, the Town of Castries taken, and a Summons was sent to the Commander of the Troops of the French Republic.

In consequence of the Refusal of Brigade General Nogués to accede to any Terms, and the Expectation of approaching Rains, it became necessary to get Possession of the Morne with as little Delay as possible. It was therefore determined, this Morning, to attack the Fortrefs by Assault, which was done accordingly at four o'Clock, and it was carried in about Half an Hour, and with less Loss, considering the Resistance, than could have been expected; but the Loss has been chiefly among the higher Ranks of Officers, and those the most truly valuable: but it is yet to be hoped most of them will recover, for the real Benefit of His Majesty's Service.

I cannot omit a Circumstance which reflects so much Credit, as well on the British Nation, as on the Conduct of the Soldiers actually employed, that, notwithstanding the severe and spirited Resistance of the French Troops, yet, no sooner were the Works carried by Assault, and the Opposition no longer existed, than every Idea of Animosity appeared to cease, and not a French Soldier was either killed or wounded.

The Return of the Killed and Wounded is herewith inclosed, which, excepting the Number of Officers of high Rank, is not equal to what might have been expected, and, by far, less than it would have been, in all Probability, had a formal Investment of the Fortrefs taken Place.

These Difpatches will be delivered to your Lordfhip by my Aid du Camp Captain Weir, to whom I beg to refer your Lordfhip, for any Information you may require.

Return of the Killed, Wounded, and Miffing of the Troops in the Assault and Capture of the Fortrefs of Morne Fortunée, in the Ifland of St. Lucia, in the Morning of 22d June 1803.

in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Veffels at the Leeward Iflands, to Sir Ewan Nepean Bart. dated on board the Centaur, in Choc-Bay, St. Lucia, 22d June 1803.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that, on my Arrival at Barbadoes on the 17th, late in the Evening, having confulted Lieutenant-General Grinfield with refpect to the intended Co-operations of the Army and Navy, I infantly took Meafures to prevent further Supplies being thrown into St. Lucia (the Ships on this Service, under the Orders of Captain O'Bryen, of the Emerald, made fome Captures of Trading Veffels,) and every Difpofition was fettled for embarking the Troops and Light Artillery on board the Ships of War, and the neceffary Stores, &c. in fmall Veffels for the Expedition; by great Exertions the Whole was effected on the 20th, and the Arrangements completed: The Lieutenant-General having embarked with the Troops, I put to Sea with the Ships named in the Margin *; was joined the next Morning by the Emerald and Osprey, having Brigadier-General Prevolt on board, and were all anchored by Eleven o'Clock in this Bay.

There being a ftrong Breeze, the Boats of the Squadron had a heavy Pull with the Firft Divifion of the Army, compofed of the 2d Battalion of the Royals and Two Field-Pieces, under the Command of Brigadier-General Brereton; but, by the great Energy and excellent Difpofition made by Captain Hallowell, were landed in good Order about Two
P. M. and by the Perfeverance of every Officer and Man employed in landing the Remainder of the Troops, the Lieutenant-General was enabled to make an early Arrangement for an Attack on that very important and ftrong Poft, Morne Fortunée, where the Force of the Enemy was afsembled, which, on the Commandant refufing to give up when fummoned, was ordered to be attacked with that Decifion and Promptitude which has always been the characteristic Mark of Lieutenant-General Grinfield, and carried by Storm at half-paft Four this Morning, with the fuperior Bravery which has ever diftinguifhed the British Soldier: this placed the Colony completely in our Poffeffion.

To Captain Hallowell's Merit it is impoffible for me to give additional Encomium, as it is fo generally known; but I muft beg Leave to fay, on this Expedition, his Activity could not be exceeded;
and by his friendly Advice I have obtained the moft effectual Aid to this Service, for which he has been a Volunteer, and, after the final Difembarkation, proceeded on with the Seamen to co-operate with the Army. The Marines of the Squadron, by Defire of the Lieutenant-General, were landed and ordered to take Poft near Gros Ilet, to prevent Supplies being thrown into Pigeon Ifland, which,
on the Fall of Morne Fortunée, was delivered up.

We are already occupied in re-embarking Troops and other neceffary Service for future Operations.

Captain Littlehales (of this Ship) is charged with the Difpatch, whole Affiduity and Attention I with much Satisfaction acknowledge, will be able to give their Lordfhips any further Information.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

1803.*

SIR,

THE Moment I am under Sail, with Lieutenant-General Grinfield and Troops, the Emerald has brought in a very fine Schooner Corvette, called L'Enfant Prodigue, Citoyen Victor Lefebvre, Lieutenant de Vaiffeau, Commander, pierced for fixteen Guns. She failed from the Carenage the Evening the Troops landed, with Difpatches for Martinique.
The Emerald was fent in Chace from the Squadron, and did not capture her until after a Run of Seventy-two Hours, during which Time fhe threw all her

Guns overboard; being a remarkable fine Vessel, I shall direct her to be valued and purchased into the Service, which I hope will meet their Lordships' Approbation.

I have th: Honor to be, &c.

The King has been graciously pleased to grant unto William Soper, of Ashburton, in the County of Devon, and of Pulrossie, in the Shire of Sutherland, Esq; late Commissioner of the Honorable Company's Customs at the Port of Surat, in the East Indies, and to Harriet his Wife, his Royal Licence and Authority, that they, and the Issue of their Marriage, may assume, use, and bear the Surname of Dempster, in Addition to their present Surname of Soper, pursuant to a Clause in a Deed of Entail of John Hamilton Dempster, of Pulrossie aforesaid, late Captain of the Ship Earl Talbot, in the Service of the Honorable East India Company, deceased, bearing Date 15th October 1799; and also that the said William Soper, and Harriet his Wife, may bear the Arms of Dempster quarterly with those of Soper; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none Effect.

Whitehall, July 29, 1803.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Major-General John Doyle, Lieutenant Governor of the Island of Guernsey, His Royal Licence and Permission to receive and wear the Insignia of the Order of the Crescent, which the Grand Signior hath transmitted to him: and also to command, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration, together with the relative Documents, be registered in His College of Arms.

St. James's, July 27, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wexford, convened by the High Sheriff, on Monday the Eighteenth of July One thousand eight hundred and three, pursuant to public Notice.

AT this Time of active and general Preparation to engage in the arduous Contest forced upon us through the restless and inordinate Ambition of the Rulers of the French Nation, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wexford, deem it to be our bounden Duty to declare, in the warmest Terms, our affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and to offer the unqualified Support, as well of our Persons as of our Properties, in the vigorous Prosecution of a War so just, so necessary, and unavoidable. The Wisdom evinced by your Majesty's Ministers in terminating the late War, their Patience and Forbearance in the Discussion of certain important but unsettled Points in the Treaty of Amiens, their Firmness and Decision when the hostile Dispositions of our insatiable Enemies were developed, all unite to create in us a Confidence, that by their Guidance, under the protecting Arm of that Almighty Power who has on many Occasions been graciously pleased to manifest his good Providence to our beloved Sovereign and his Dominions, that this War will be brought to an happy Conclusion, and that the Blessings of an honorable and permanent Peace, will, at no great Distance of Time, be restored to your faithful People.

Signed by Order,
Henry Archer, High Sheriff of the County of Wexford.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, beg Leave, at this very important Crisis, to renew the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty and determined Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government; and while we do so it gives us Pleasure to see that a Spirit of Unanimity and Resolution, equal, if not superior, to what has appeared at any former Period, now manifests itself all over the British Empire.

Thoroughly satisfied of the implacable Hatred of the present Rulers of France towards this Country, and of their fixed Resolution, if possible, to overthrow that glorious Constitution which cost our Fathers so dear, and by which, under your Majesty's mild Administration, and the Blessing of Providence, we have enjoyed an unexampled Degree of

Happiness and Prosperity, we feel ourselves imperiously called upon to make great Sacrifices of our Time and Property, and to unite with our loyal Fellow-Subjects throughout the Realm in maintaining and defending our Rights, and the Honor and Interest of our most gracious Sovereign, and in resisting to the uttermost the ambitious Projects of an insulting Foe.

Trusting in your Majesty's paternal Care, in the Wisdom of your Councils, and the Skill and Valour of your Navy and Army, combined with the Loyalty and Spirit of your faithful Subjects, and crowned with the Divine Blessing, we feel no Dismay at the Threats of our Enemy, but, on the contrary, have well-founded Hopes that your Majesty will soon be enabled to terminate the War with Glory, and to secure a safe, honorable, and lasting Peace.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said City, in the Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the said City, at Glasgow, the Twenty-third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Law. Croigie, Provost.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of the City of Bath, humbly beg Leave, at this critical Conjunction, to assure your Majesty of our firm and unshaken Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, and that we will, with the greatest Alacrity, embrace every Opportunity of exerting ourselves in the Support of both.

Steadfast in our Allegiance, unalterable in our Loyalty, unanimous in the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, we view with Indignation the proud and impious Threats of our Enemies, and with Pleasure offer our most devoted Services in the furtherance of such Plans of National Defence and Annoyance of our Enemies as your Majesty's Wisdom with the Concurrence of your Parliament may think proper to direct in a Contest of such National Importance.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

Navy Office, July 25, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that they are ready to receive Tenders for the Purchase of Six Vessels of the Burthen of 250 to 280 Tons; the Vessels must have Two Flush Decks, and be coppered and Copper-fastened.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
