SIR,

I HAVE the Honor of enclosing a Letter from Captain Bedford, of the Thunderer, giving an Account of his having taken a French Ship Privateer, which might have very much distressed the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, had not Captain Bedford's active Zeal prevented her taking a single Vessel belonging to England.

I am, &c. W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Thunderer, at Sea, July 26, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to report to you, that on the 26th Instant I captured the Venus French Privateer, pierced for Twenty-eight Guns, mounting Sixteen Six-Pounders, and Two Eight Pound Caronades, One Hundred and Fifty Men, commanded by Monsieur Lempierre.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave, at the present highly interesting and important Crisis, to lay before your Majesty the Renewal of those Assurances of our most fervent and sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, which we have repeatedly offered to your Majesty on former Occasions.

Deeply impressed with the invaluable Blessings we derive from living under the Laws and Constitution of this great and free Country, we no less acknowledge it to be our bounden Duty, than we hereby declare it to be our determined Resolution, to support your Majesty by every Exertion in our Power in resisting the unjust Attacks of an insolent and inveterate Enemy; and humbly, but firmly, relying on the Protection of Divine Providence, so often experienced by this Kingdom in Periods of Difficulty and Danger, we feel the fullest Confidence that the zealous and loyal Efforts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, all happily united in the Support of a just Cause, will be amply sufficient to frustrate the hostile Attempts of our ambitious Enemy against our just Rights and Independence, and will enable us sufficiently to maintain the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Religion, Liberties, and Prosperity of your People.

Signed on Behalf of the County,

J. H. Thursby, Sheriff.

[Presented by Francis Dickins and William Ralph Cartwright, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Sentiments of the warmest Loyalty and Affection, we, your Majesty's very dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, the Commissioners of Supply, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, and others, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's County and Town of Cromarty, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne in this Manner at this momentous Period.

Met here this Day for the express Purpose of carrying into Effect the very wise and spirited Measures recommended through your Majesty's Ministers for the Defence and Security of these Realms against the vain and insidious Designs of our inveterate Foe, we thus solemnly tender unto your Majesty the Disposal of our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of our Country, in the Support and Maintenance of its Religion and Laws, and of that Constitution by which, under Divine Providence, and the best of Kings, the freest and the happiest People on Earth have hitherto been secured in the Enjoyment of every human Blessing, with the Attainment of that proud Pre-eminence of Rank as a Nation that renders us the Envy of the Universe.

Long may your Majesty live to reign over an extensive and now happily united Empire; and ever may your People be sensible of, and gratefully thankful for, the multiplied Blessings they must enjoy under so great and good a King.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by our Preses, David Urquhart, Esq; of Brealangwell, at Cromarty, Eighteenth July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Da. Urquhart, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Bankers, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Kingston-upon-Hull.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne at this momentous Crisis with the most solemn Assurances of our firm and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government.

We have contemplated with grateful Satisfaction your Majesty's Solicitude for the Interests of Humanity, evinced in your unwearied Efforts for the Maintenance of Peace: These Efforts we have seen frustrated by the faithless and infuriate Policy of the French Government, which has perverted to Purposes of Rapine and Oppression the sacred Obligation of Treaties; and, assuming the Attitude of Peace, has treacherously meditated the Renewal of War.

We deeply lament the Necessity of again appealing to the Sword; and we pray the Almighty Disposer of Events that it may not be long unsheathed, but that the Justice of your Majesty's Cause, and the zealous Loyalty of a brave and united People, prepared to concur in the Support of every Measure which your Majesty's Councils shall deem expedient for the Preservation of their Property, their Laws, and their Religion, may speedily triumph, and permanently establish an effectual Barrier against the daring Projects of an insatiable Ambition, and rescue from its baneful Grasp the Laws, the Liberties, and the Religion of Europe.

May this glorious Work, not less inseparable from the true Interests of Europe than essential to the Security of this Realm, be the happy Achievement of your Majesty's Reign! And, in the Father of his People, may the whole civilized World hail their Deliverer and Protector!

Dated at the Guildhall in Kingston-upon-Hull, the Twelfth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Samuel Thornton and John Staniforth, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.
