

Whitehall, July 28, 1803.

The King has been graciously pleased to grant unto Joseph Lovell Teek, of the Out Parish of St. Cuthbert, in the City of Wells, in the County of Somerset, Esq; His Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Issue may, in compliance with an Injunction contained in the last Will and Testament of his Kinsman, Joseph Lovell, of Wells aforesaid, Esq; bearing Date the 16th Day of June 1784, take and use the Surname of Lovell only:

And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be recorded in His College of Arms.

Admiralty-Office, August 2, 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Ewan Nepean, Bart. dated off Ushant, the 30th July 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor of enclosing a Letter from Captain Bedford, of the Thunderer, giving an Account of his having taken a French Ship Privateer, which might have very much distressed the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, had not Captain Bedford's active Zeal prevented her taking a single Vessel belonging to England.

I am, &c. W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Thunderer, at Sea, July 26, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to report to you, that on the 26th Instant I captured the Venus French Privateer, pierced for Twenty-eight Guns, mounting Sixteen Six-Pounders, and Two Eight Pound Caronades, One Hundred and Fifty Men, commanded by Monsieur Lempierre.

She is a fine Vessel, quite new, sails remarkably fast, well found, coppered, and measures Three Hundred and Fifty-eight Tons; from the Report I have received she is calculated for His Majesty's Service. She sailed from Bourdeaux the 21st Instant, in Company with Four other Privateers.

I have the Honor to remain, &c.

W. BEDFORD.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave, at the present highly interesting and important Crisis, to lay before your Majesty the Renewal of those Assurances of our most fervent and sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, which we have repeatedly offered to your Majesty on former Occasions.

Deeply impressed with the invaluable Blessings we derive from living under the Laws and Constitution of this great and free Country, we no less acknowledge it to be our bounden Duty, than we hereby declare it to be our determined Resolution, to support your Majesty by every Exertion in our Power in resisting the unjust Attacks of an insolent and inveterate Enemy; and humbly, but firmly, relying on the Protection of Divine Providence, so often experienced by this Kingdom in Periods of Difficulty and Danger, we feel the fullest Confidence that the zealous and loyal Efforts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, all happily united in the Support of a just Cause, will be amply sufficient to frustrate the hostile Attempts of our ambitious Enemy against our just Rights and Independence, and will enable us sufficiently to maintain the Honor of your Majesty's Crown, and the Religion, Liberties, and Prosperity of your People.

Signed on Behalf of the County,

J. H. Thursby, Sheriff.

[Presented by Francis Dickins and William Ralph Cartwright, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]
