

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 2, to Saturday August 6, 1803.

St. James's, August 3, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our fixed Resolution to exert our utmost Endeavours in Support of the Honor and Security of our Country during this unavoidable War, brought on by the unbounded Ambition of the Government of France.

We lament the temporary Distress that will attend this Contest, but trust, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, that the happy Union of your Subjects, the Wisdom of your Councils, and the known Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land, will bring it to a speedy Conclusion, and prove the Means of procuring a solid and lasting Peace to your Majesty's Dominions, and of ascertaining to the World the greatest Glory of Britons, their Loyalty to their King, and their sincere Attachment to that Constitution under which they enjoy the Blessings of true Liberty.

Rob. Hodgson, Mayor.

Chester, -July 27, 1803.

[Presented by Earl Grosvenor, and the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, sincerely regretting that your Majesty's Endeavours, attended with unexampled Moderation, to secure to your Subjects the invaluable Blessings of Peace, have been frustrated by the ambitious Views of the implacable Ruler of the French Nation, now beg Leave to approach the Throne to assure your Majesty of our firm Reliance on the collective and individual Co-operation of our Fellow-Citizens, with ourselves, in the Protection and Defence of our Country against the common Enemy, whose sole View is to annihilate the British Empire, and whose greatest Envy is the Happiness experienced by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We fervently pray that your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land, aided by the unanimous Support of all your Majesty's Subjects, will convince not only the French Government, but the whole World, of the Futility of attempting the Subjugation of a Nation inheriting the Valour and Intrepidity of their Ancestors, and who will, we are confident, cheerfully exert themselves in the Preservation of all that is dear to Britons, their King, the Constitution, and the Laws and Liberties of their Country.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City the Second Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. Hammond.

[Presented by the Honorable George Watson and John Baker, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of your ancient City of Rochester, desire, at this critical Time of threatened Invasion by our Enemies, to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Attachment to your Person and Government; and of our Readiness, collectively and individually, to give Effect, as far as lies in our Power, to such Measures for frustrating their ambitious and cruel Designs, as your Majesty, in your Wisdom, and the Legislature shall direct. We are sensible that the Safety of our Laws and Constitution, of our Liberty, and our Lives, depends on the strenuous and united Exertions of the whole Body of the People—as a Part of which we engage to use our utmost Efforts in opposing the Enemy, and to spare neither our Fortunes nor our Lives to defeat his malicious Purposes, and repel his Violence. We trust in that Providence, which has so often wonderfully preserved this Country in Times of greater apparent Peril than the present, to rescue us from the threat-