THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, assembled at the Assizes, held in the Moot-Hall, in the Town of Newcastle, on Tuesday the Ninth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

This Declaration of our Duty and our Affection we feel it peculiarly incumbent on us to repeat at this Crisis, when we are threatened with Invasion by a dangerous and powerful Enemy.

To defeat any such Attempt, and to maintain the Independence, the Laws, and the Liberties of these United Kingdoms, we are prepared to make every Sacrifice which the Nature of the Contest may require, humbly trusting in your Majesty's paternal Care, that, by a wise Economy, and well-directed Exertions, the utmost Effect will be given to the powerful Means which are cordially offered for the Common Defence by an unanimous and zealous People.

Signed on Behalf of the County,

Shasto Crafter, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Richard Beaumont, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach the Throne with those Sentiments of sincere and inviolable Attachment to our beloved Sovereign, which we have ever wished to cherish in our Breasts, and deem it our indispensable Duty to express in the most public and solemn Manner at the present momentous Period.

Threatened with an immediate Attack on our Country by a ferocious and implacable Enemy, whose Object is to spread Desolation and Terror as far as his Arms can prevail; although we cannot fail to join with our Fellow-Subjects in deploring the Miseries of War, and the Pressure of those Burdens that must inevitably attend the arduous Conflict in which we are now engaged: we yet feel that Confidence and Hope of final Success, which, under the Blessing of Heaven, is so justly inspired by the Wisdom and Energy of your Majesty's Councils, and not less supported by the well-known Valour and Intrepidity of your Forces both by Sea and Land.

These, we trust, will at last bring the Contest, however severe it may prove, to a favourable Issue; and as we know that it cannot terminate according to our Wishes without exposing your faithful People to many Hardships and Inconveniences, which must be patiently endured, we can assure your Majesty, that we are fully prepared to perform every Duty, to submit to every Sacrifice, and encourage every Exertion that may be necessary for vindicating the Honor of your Majesty's Government, and obtaining that Security against future Violence and Aggression, without which we can neither hope to enjoy lasting Peace, nor preserve our National Independence.

May that Almighty Ruler, whose watchful Providence has guarded your Throne from every Danger, still continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and give their full Effect to those salutary Measures which the Wisdom of your Parliament has adopted for securing internal Quiet, as well as outward Protection to every Part of your united Kingdom.

This public Testimony of our Loyalty and Affection, we humbly intreat that your Majesty will deign to accept as a grateful Acknowledgment of what is due to the beil of Princes, from a People enjoying the Best of civil Constitutions which has ever fallen to the Lot of any Country upon Earth.

Signed in Name, by Appointment and in Presence of a General County-Meeting held at Aberdeen the Eighth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, by Gordon, Lord Lieutenant.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WHEN a Rebellion has again made its Appearance in this Kingdom, and broke out into Acts of open Violence in the Metropolis, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Louth, beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our sincere and cordial Assurances of the most devoted, firm, and loyal Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and to the Succession of the Throne in your Majesty's illustrious House.

While we view with Horror and Indignation the wicked Designs of the Rebels, and lament their savage Brutality and barbarous Assassinations, more particularly in the Murder of Lord Kilwarden, a Man not less distinguished for his Humanity and inoffensive Manners, than for the inflexible Integrity, the Ability, and Knowledge with which he discharged the Duties of Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, we have the glorious Satisfaction of seeing those Designs defeated by the Ardor and Alacrity with which the Yeomen of Dublin flew to its Defence, and under the Favour of Providence happily saved the Capital.

Such Spirit must rouse the Energies of Government, and convince every Traitor within the Kingdom, and our implacable foreign Enemy, who would wish to wrest from the British Empire its old and happy Constitution, that there is in your Majesty's loyal Subjects of Ireland, a Zeal, Spirit, and Strength equal to protect their Country and your Majesty's Government against every domestic or foreign Foe.

Animated with this Confidence, and convinced that every Thing which is dear to us lies at Stake, we look forward with sanguine Expectation, that your Majesty's Ministers in this Kingdom will not suffer false Ideas of Security to delay their putting that Spirit and that Strength into the most effective and immediate State for Exertion.

In such a State, determined as we are, to stand or fall with your Majesty and the Empire, we feel a conscious and animating Security in our Power to crush all Rebels, and to defeat every Foe who may be desperate enough to invade us.

John Siraton, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeffes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro and the Neighbourhood, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to renew our Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and the Constitution of the United Kingdom. Feeling, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, the inestimable Value of that Constitution, and the Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, we should be wanting in Gratitude if we did not, at a Period when an inveterate and implacable Enemy is meditating the Destruction of every Thing that is dear to us, declare our firm and unalterable Determination to stand or fall with that Constitution and that Government.

Permit us, Sire, to return our most sincere Acknowledgments for the wise Measures which have been adopted under your Majesty's Auspices for the Defence of our Country, and to express our firm Trust, under Providence, that, if our Enemies shall be daring enough to attempt an Invasion of this Kingdom, they will be speedily involved in that Ruin which they are preparing for others.

By the Request of the Meeting,

Ja. Kempe, Mayor.

Dated the 5th of August 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Penzance, assembled at the Guildhall there, the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three. The Worshipful the Mayor, in the Chair.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and principal Inhabitants of the Town of Penzance, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to assure your Majesty of our Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown, and Government. We have viewed with Indignation the hostile and devastating Spirit of a perfidious and inveterate Foe, who, having frustrated your Majesty's pacific Intentions, menaces Destruction to our happy Constitution, and the very Existence of the Empire.

Provoked by these Wrongs, confiding in the Justice of our Cause, and animated by that loyal Spirit which has ever pre-eminently distinguished the Inhabitants of this County; we pledge ourselves to join our Fellow Subjects in a vigorous Defence of your Majesty's Throne, of the civil and religious Rights we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, and of the Honor and Independence of the British Empire.

J. Batten, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne at this momentous Crisis, with the strongest Assurances of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We sincerely regret that the Wisdom, the Justice, and the Moderation of your Majesty's Councils have proved ineffectual in preserving to us the Blessings of Peace, and that the boundless Ambition of the daring Usurper of the Government of France, has again involved us in War, and threatens the Invasion of this happy Land.

Proud of the highly valued Privileges which Britons enjoy; firm in the Justice of our Cause; happy in that mutual Confidence which results from the exemplary Beneficence of the Sovereign, and the grateful and united Affections of the People; and relying on the Blessing of divine Providence, we fear not the haughty Menaces of our Enemies, and behold their Preparations with Indignation, but without Alarm.

From a Conviction that every Thing dear and valuable to a free and independent Nation is involved in the present Contest, we must willingly submit to those Privations which the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may deem necessary; and are determined to support with our Persons and our Property the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government, and the Rights and Independence of our Country.

May your Majesty be the favoured Instrument of Providence to check the devastating Progress of that Power, which, hitherto with Impunity, has trampled on the Rights of Humanity; and may He enable you speedily to terminate the War with Glory, and to re-establish the Blessings of Peace.

Joseph Radcliffe, Chairman.
